Cloud Seeding, Chemtrails and Control: Is Weather Manipulation an End-Times Sign?

As an arctic blast froze Texas and much of the nation, Pastor Troy Brewer gave a startling claim: the winter storm over America is not just meteorological—it's spiritual.

"The Bible presents the weather as a direct manifestation of God's sovereignty," Brewer said. "It belongs to His power and authority. This is a hijack. It's a bunch of globalist, Luciferian thieves that are actually trying to make this happen."

Brewer and his guest Alan DiDio exposed what they call the "weaponization of weather" through cloud seeding, chemtrails and geoengineering, tying it directly to end-times control and spiritual warfare.

"When I was a teenage boy…we never one time studied chemtrails because they weren't around in the early '80s," Brewer recalled, citing his training at Texas A&M Weather School. "As somebody who was trained… I can tell you that is nefarious. I can tell you it's man-made."

DiDio called it "the arms race that nobody's talking about," pointing to historical precedent. He highlighted Operation Popeye during the Vietnam War, when the U.S. military seeded clouds to intensify monsoon rains and bog down enemy forces. "The ability to manipulate weather has been a weapon for a very long time," DiDio said.

Yet the pastors insisted awareness must not lead to fear, but to faith.

"You have not been given a spirit of fear, but of power, of love and a sound mind," DiDio prayed over viewers. "Be encouraged in Jesus' name and know greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world."

Brewer echoed that sentiment, reminding believers that Jesus Himself demonstrated authority over the elements. "When Jesus rebuked the storm and calmed it, the men with Him said, 'What sort of man is this that even the winds and the sea obey Him?'" Brewer said. "Don't forget, your prayers count."

For Brewer, the message is clear: weather may be manipulated, but man does not ultimately master it. "We declare that the airwaves and the natural weather belong to You, Lord," he prayed. "It does not belong to these nefarious governments… Let the Lion roar in the name of King Jesus."
