

Sight & Sound

Why We Need Accountability

Answering God's Call

Lawsuits target Navy's bias against charismatics

Houston Church Discovers That Racial Unity Brings Growth

and Revival

In 30 years, Braeswood Assembly of God has gone from a white, middle-class church to a local church to a local bation of racial diversity.

Race Not an Issue for Church In South Georgia

Defying regional sentiments, Southland Church in Valdosta opened its doors in 1997 to people of all races.

Fragile East Timor Economy Boosted By Australian Pentecostals

Two Assemblies of God churches in Sydney are aiding the nation in the aftermath of devastating ethnic violence.

Sparks Fly After Opening of Holy Land Theme Park

Organizers have run afoul of Jews and charismatics since they opened the attraction in Orlando

Airwaves and Cyberspace Carry Gospel to Latin America From Miami

Voz Cristiana, a high-power Christian radio station is reaching the Caribbean and Central and South America

SEALs Mean Business for Jesus

Some of the U.S. Navy's toughest tough guys are turning to Jesus thanks to a tenacious San Diego pastor