

Pearson's Gospel of Inclusion' Stirs Controversy

New Screenwriting Ministry Calls Christians to Influence Hollywood

Act One trains writers how to add a Christian perspective to the kind of work entertainment professionals want

Christian Music Icon Larry Norman Is 'Up' Despite Poor Health

The affable 'Jesus Rock' founder told Charisma he needs heart rehabilitation and hand surgery

Lois Prater's Childhood Missionary Dream Is Fulfilled—at Age 76

God called a great-grandmother to leave her comfortable home in Seattle and become a mother to Filipino orphans

'Mother Teresa of Cairo' Offers Hope And Faith to Impoverished Egyptians

Maggie Gobran is an angel of mercy to thousands who live in the vast garbage dumps of the ancient city

National Religious Broadcasters' New President Resigns Over Remarks

Wayne Pederson stepped down under pressure from conservatives when he said the group should depoliticize

Ethiopian Slips Communist Grip To Pastor U.S. Church

Hanfere Aligaz arrived nearly penniless in the U.S. but now heads a thriving church in the nation's capital

Liardon Preaches First Sermon After Stepping Away From Pulpit

The pastor, who admitted to 'moral failure' in December, continues to seek counseling

Rodney Howard-Browne Hits Airwaves With New Satellite Venture

A new facility in Tampa, Fla., also enables the evangelist to renew plans to expand his Bible training institute

Atlanta Pastor Rebukes AIDS Group For Appointing Openly Gay Director

The decision by a religious AIDS awareness group, Balm in Gilead, drew fire from Darryl Foster, a minister to gays