

December 2006

I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you.

–Genesis 12:3, NLT

What do you do with a family whose genealogy goes back 4,000 years, whose national roots reflect 2,000 years of history? The answer is, study and learn from them.

Lessons From Da Vinci

We must put down our protest signs and start a dialogue with others.

God Loves You

Our Father loves each of us with perfect love. His love is unqualified and incomparable.

Fall on Your Knees

It's time to rediscover the humbling power.

Keeping Kids Safe

We must make it a priority to know what our youth are saying and doing in cyberspace.

Need Confidence?

Don't be afraid to make mistakes, and if you do, recover quickly and press on.

Help Save Christmas

This year, do your part to change public opinion about celebrating Christmas.

The Passion of the Christ Child

It's a gamble, but Hollywood is betting that Christians will flock to theaters to see this year's most Bible-friendly film, The Nativity Story.

Going to Extremes

Don't expect Patricia King to settle for the status quo. She is teaching a new Christian generation how to live in the supernatural.
