

Justin Bieber Just Married Hailey Baldwin, Reports Say

Justin Bieber married Hailey Baldwin Thursday, according to People magazine.

“They went ahead and did it without listening to anyone,” a source told the celebrity magazine.

TMZ reports several sources saw the new couple—they were engaged for two months—at the marriage bureau in New York City.

“I can’t wait to marry you, baby,” Bieber reportedly told Baldwin.

The courthouse ceremony was just for the two of them, but the couple reportedly will have a blowout celebration later.

“They’re going to have a big blowout, in front of God and everyone they love,” People’s source says.

The two attend Hillsong Church together and are friends with several prominent pastors including Carl Lentz and Judah Smith.

Baldwin is the daughter of Christian actor Stephen Baldwin.

Bieber confirmed the engagement on July 9 after rumors began circulating.
