

Midyear Prophetic Shift: God Is Doing a New Thing Starting This July

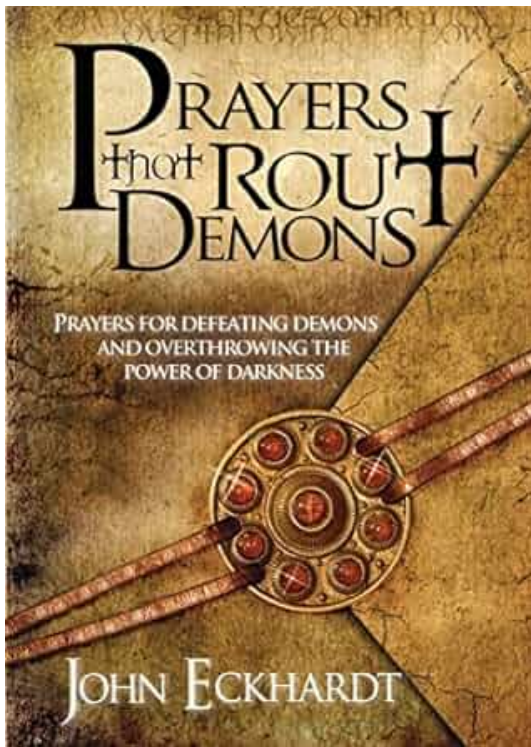

As we step into July—the midpoint of the year—God is inviting His people to embrace a new season. This is not just about the turning of a calendar page but a spiritual shift that calls for bold faith, intentional reflection, and prophetic realignment.

In a new video, author and prophetic voice John Eckhardt declares that this month is the time we will see God do a great work across the earth.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

“And I do decree Isaiah 42:9, that the former things have come to pass and new things God says, ‘Do I declare before they spring forth? I tell you of them.’” Eckhardt reminds listeners that “God is the God of a new thing,” pointing to Isaiah 65:17–18: “Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth. Rejoice and be glad in that which I create, for I create Jerusalem a rejoicing and a people of joy.”

This season of newness isn’t limited to spiritual renewal—it touches every area of life. “Begin to believe God for something new to happen in your life financially, in your business, your ministry, your accounts,” Eckhardt encourages, declaring it’s time to “believe that as we come into this new month, that it’s a new season for you.”

As July 1 marked the halfway point of the year, his message focuses on the importance of strategic midyear reflection. "Sometimes during the year, when you get to the midpoint... it's in the middle that people become discouraged, they become frustrated... Sometimes in the middle, things look dark." But this is precisely why "the middle is a very important time."

Using the metaphor of a sports game, Eckhardt continues, "You play the first half, and then in the middle of the game... they make adjustments. Maybe things are not going well in the first half... they've seen some things in the first half that the other team was exploiting." His takeaway is clear: "The best coaches are the ones that know how to make adjustments at halftime."

These adjustments aren't just for those who are struggling. "Maybe things are going well. Maybe you don't have to make an adjustment... If it's not broke, don't change it, don't fix it." But for others, it's a wake-up call: "Sometimes what you're doing is not working, and you're just hoping it's going to work."

Eckhardt offers practical reflection: "What areas of your life do you need to make adjustments in?... Do you need to rearrange your priorities?... Do you need to develop some new relationships or go in a new direction?" This prophetic insight challenges listeners to take inventory so that "the next six months of the year [can] be prosperous, successful, and for us to break through."

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

In closing, Eckhardt encourages believers to press on, regardless of current circumstances: "You're not going to stay in that storm... You're going to come out of it. And the dawn is going to come... Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning." As the seventh month begins, the declaration is clear: "You're moving into new things... It's a new season."

Texas Flood Tragedy Strikes at Eclipse Crosspoint: Is God Speaking Through the Empty Cross?

On July 4, tragedy struck Kerrville, Texas, when a catastrophic flash flood claimed the lives of at least 82 people, with others still missing. Among those affected were families attending Camp Mystic, including a rodeo family personally connected to Pastor Troy Brewer. But amidst the heartbreak, many are asking: Could there be a prophetic message buried in the chaos?

Pastor Troy Brewer believes the answer is yes.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

As Brewer pointed out in an interview with Charisma Media, Kerrville is the unique crossing point of two recent solar eclipses—one on Oct. 14, 2023, and another on Apr. 8, 2024. This geographic “X” over the region isn’t just coincidence to Brewer; it points directly to a towering monument called The Empty Cross, a 77-foot, 7-inch sculpture designed to represent the resurrection of Jesus Christ. “The shadow pointed exactly to where we needed to look,” Brewer said. “And now, we’re looking at Kerrville. And if you look at Kerrville, you’ve got to look at the cross—and see that it’s empty.”

The flood occurred on America’s birthday—July 4—which Brewer says is also significant. He believes God is using these events to call the nation back to Him. “It’s not just a word for Texas. It’s a word for all of the United States,” he emphasized.

Beyond the symbolism, the devastation is very real. Torrential rains caused the Guadalupe River to rise between 20 to 40 feet within an hour—so fast and so far that even camps located far from the riverbanks were consumed. Many victims were asleep when the floodwaters hit, their RVs swept away in the dark without warning.

To order Jonathan Cahn's new book, The Avatar, visit Amazon.com.

In a moment of divine encouragement, Brewer shared that exactly 888 people have been officially rescued from the water—a number that matches the Greek numerical value for the name “Jesus.” For him, this is a reminder that even in the midst of loss, God is present.

But while reflecting on the supernatural, Brewer also called for practical action. Rather than sending more volunteers into an already chaotic rescue effort, he urged believers to be strategic. “Rescue the rescuers,” he said, encouraging churches to support those already on the frontlines with supplies, meals and prayer.

Above all, Brewer calls the Church to rise and respond—not just with relief, but with resurrection power. “This is not the government’s role,” he declared. “It’s the role of the people of Jesus. Christ in us is the hope of glory.”

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

As the nation mourns with Kerrville, Brewer says this moment demands more than sympathy—it calls for spiritual awakening. “Only the church can turn tragedy into testimony. The Lord is with us. He is resurrected from the dead. And He is the only hope America has.”

Silver Cord, Tornadoes and Witchcraft: Exposing the Enemy’s Hidden Agenda

In a powerful and eye-opening conversation with Julie Hedenborg, author Jennifer Bagnaschi unpacks the mysteries of the supernatural realm, sharing insights from ex-witches, spiritual warfare encounters and her upcoming book The Devil’s Greatest Fear: How His Lack of Identity Reveals His Plan to Steal Yours. With boldness and clarity, Bagnaschi confronts spiritual ignorance in the Church and urges believers to wake up to the authority and identity they have in Christ.

One theme Bagnaschi explores is the phenomenon of astral projection and the “silver cord”—a spiritual lifeline mentioned in Ecclesiastes 12:6. She recounts conversations with former occultists who confirmed the reality of this cord that connects the spirit to the body. “If the silver cord is cut,” Bagnaschi explains, “the soul gets lost and can’t get back into the body.” She warns that venturing into the spirit realm apart from the Holy Spirit’s leading is illegal and dangerous.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

To order Jennifer Bagnaschi's new book, The Devil's Greatest Fear, visit Amazon.com.

Bagnaschi also draws from the late Earthquake Kelley, a former sorcerer turned minister, who discussed his belief that curses brought to America through witchcraft during the transatlantic slave trade may have even affected the weather. “He [claims] there were no tornadoes in America before sorcerers, unknowingly brought as slaves, cursed the land,” Bagnaschi shares.

For Bagnaschi, the bold exposure of the enemy’s tactics isn’t about fear—it's about equipping the church. "The devil knows the power we have. But as long as we don't know it, it's free game for him," she says. "Witches should not know more about the supernatural realm than Christians do."

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Addressing skeptics, especially those who believe the supernatural ended with the Bible, Bagnaschi emphasizes that the spiritual realm is not optional—it's part of who we are. "God is supernatural, and if you're made in His image, you're supernatural too," she says. "You can't see love or joy, but they exist. You walk into a room after an argument, and you can feel it. That's the supernatural at work."

As Bagnaschi shares, her passion culminates in her new book, which dives deep into the devil's lack of identity. "Satan, Lucifer, the devil—those are all titles. He has no name because he lost his identity when he fell," Bagnaschi says. "And he's trying to steal yours."

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

This knowledge of the supernatural calls believers to awaken to their God-given authority, walk confidently in their identity, and stand firm against the enemy's attempts to steal, kill and destroy. Recognizing these hidden spiritual dynamics equips the church to rise as true warriors in this critical hour.

Texas Under Siege? Prophetic Revelation Unveils Spiritual Battle for 2025

A series of prophetic words from Amanda Grace dating back as far as 2019 are converging in real time, pointing to Texas as a central battleground in both the spiritual and natural realms.

The devastation that we saw happen in Kerrville, Texas, on Independence Day may have marked more than a national holiday—it potentially served as a prophetic symbol of what’s to come for the rest of the year.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

“This is a prophetic foreshadowing of what we are going to endure the rest of the year,” Grace declared. The warning is not just for the political left or right—but for the church as well. A divine adjustment of heart posture is being called for in every camp.

Key prophetic words from 2019 and 2020 referenced Texas and the unusual events that would confound people, even predicting humanitarian crises and divine purging akin to the days of Noah. These words now seem to echo loudly in light of the July 4, 2025, floods that struck Texas.

symbols are now seen as representing liberal-dominated areas like Los Angeles, which burned in wildfires on Jan. 7, and conservative areas like Texas, which flooded on July 4. Together, these dates—January 7 and July 4—point to the number 47, tied directly to President Trump as the 47th president of the United States. “I don’t think that’s an accident,” Grace stated.

A July 7, 2021 word from the Lord foretold boiling points, political clashes and strategic attacks against Texas leadership. “Watch Texas in this hour,” Grace declared. “For there is pressure building in Texas.” The word warned of attempts to target Texas leaders due to the state’s pivotal role in coming elections and audits.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Now, in 2025, President Trump is scheduled to visit flood-ravaged Texas during the 25th week of the year, a prophetic link that Grace believes is tied to a word from November 2024 warning of a “Kennedy in Texas” type of crisis. Trump, who released the JFK assassination files earlier this year, is stepping directly into the center of that prophetic puzzle.

Prophetic insight also connects Texas to deeper spiritual conflicts. There are warnings of Islamic infiltration, jihadist threats and chemical fog reported across the state and others in Jan. 2025. Words from April and June tie the Texas flooding to eclipse paths from 2023 and 2024—events that passed directly over towns like Kerrville and Eagle Pass, where the disaster struck.

With Nineveh, Texas falling directly in the path of the Apr. 8, 2024, solar eclipse, the message is clear: judgment and mercy are both in motion. Just as Jonah warned ancient Nineveh to repent within 40 days, this modern-day Nineveh may also be

receiving divine warnings.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

As the signs multiply and prophetic timelines converge, intercession has become urgent. “Something is up, and we need to pray,” Grace urged. “Let any sinister plot be exposed and thwarted in Jesus’ name before it ever has a chance to unfold.”

Jonathan Cahn’s Bold Message for the Modern Church

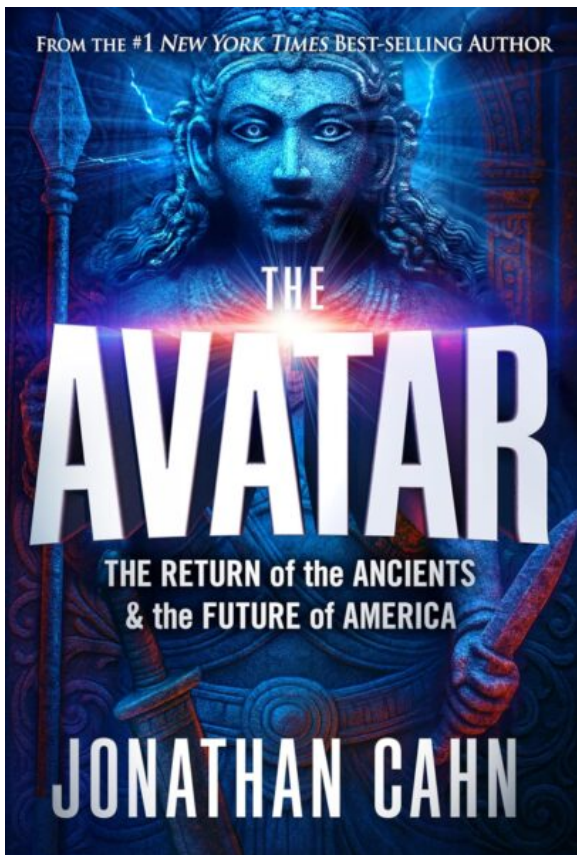

In an inspiring sermon, Jonathan Cahn urges believers not to give up in the face of spiritual battles, but to fight for the blessings God has promised.

“So many of the blessings of God come after you just kept going when you were going to give up. Don’t give up. Fight for what you have. Fight for what’s good. Fight for your walk. Fight for your calling. Fight for what God has for you. Keep fighting,” he says.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Using the apostle Paul’s analogy of athletes striving for a fading crown, Cahn exhorts the church to press toward a far greater reward. “They’ll do all these things to get this wreath that’s going to fade away... but we have an imperishable wreath.” He continues, “Train yourself. Run in a way that you’re going to win... because you have something so much greater.”

To order Jonathan Cahn's new book, The Avatar, visit Amazon.com.

Cahn draws attention to the attitude of those who walk in joy and faith consistently. “They’re the ones who are taking God’s Word seriously. They’re the ones who are taking, ‘God said it, I do it.’... If God said something, that’s going to come true... God says, ‘Do this and I’ll be blessed,’ I’m going to do it.”

Emphasizing the value of God’s presence and promises, he says, “Open up the Word of God—this is a treasure. Every day I got to take a jewel from this treasure... Treasure your salvation. Every day thank God. Treasure the love of God. Treasure the fact that you have the Holy Spirit in you—that God is with you.”

Cahn defines salvation as “the power—the dynamic—of salvation is Heaven come down to earth. It’s heaven touching the earth in every possible way.” He explains, “It’s totally God... but it’s got to go totally through me—every part of me: heart, mind, soul and strength.”

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

He addresses the relationship between faith and action: “Faith and works are not in competition or in conflict. They go together... Let your faith become an act of faith, and a faith that acts upon the world.”

Some believers, he warns, wait for God to act and do nothing, while others try to do everything in their own strength. “That’s not the Spirit of God... Salvation is God doing it through you... Let it start everything with God.”

“Stop trying to do the works of God on your own and focus on learning the secret of becoming the work of God,” he says. “If you speak of being moved by the Spirit, let yourself actually be moved by the Spirit... The Spirit’s always flowing.”

“The joy of God is a treasure. The love of God is a treasure. It’s all a treasure. Those who treasure the treasure... are going to have those blessings.”

In closing, he declares, “The blessings are waiting...It is His will and heart to bless. Grasp it, take it, run with it with all your heart, mind, soul and strength... because great is your salvation.”

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Becoming a co-laborer with the Lord requires more than belief—it demands perseverance, wholehearted devotion and a willingness to be led by the Spirit. Jonathan Cahn’s message is a call to press beyond comfort and complacency, to treasure the things of God and to live out our faith with passion and purpose.

The blessings of God aren’t reserved for the passive, but for those who pursue Him with everything they have.

Frances Swaggart Asks Key End Times Question: ‘Ready for the Rapture?’

Frances Swaggart, the wife of the late Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart, asked an important question as we make it closer to the Second Coming of Christ: Are you prepared to be raptured?

In a post on Facebook, Swaggart gave profound insights on how Christians should focus their attention on the Lord.

Have you ever wondered, “Am I ready—really ready—for the rapture or for dying or for going to heaven?” If you’re a believer and find yourself dwelling on such questions, then it’s time to remember who it is that your faith is in because all salvation and all victory is in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Swaggart then quoted the apostle Paul and what he had to say about salvation in Christ.

The apostle Paul said, "For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." The "whom" he is talking about is, of course, the Lord Jesus Christ. You received salvation by believing in your heart and confessing with your mouth what He did for you on the cross. You believed Him then, so believe Him now and keep right on doing so. If your faith is in Christ, then you know that you know that you know you are ready to meet the Lord; there is absolutely no debate.

Swaggart also pointed out that when we commit our soul and spirit to the Lord, then we can find our trust alone in Christ to be the One we will see at the very end.

Paul said he was persuaded—that means he couldn't be budged from believing anything other than, "He is able to keep that which I have committed unto him." And what you committed to Him is your soul and your spirit. We must know in whom we have believed, because when the final curtain is about to come down, it had better be Christ and Christ alone in whom you place your trust.

Swaggart's powerful words are a reminder that as Christians, whether we live or die, it is for Christ and His glory.

Amanda Grace Sounds the Alarm: Major Spiritual Warfare Planned for Mid-July in America

Amanda Grace shared a sweeping message in a prophetic word declaring that nations across the globe are about to experience divine shaking, judgment and exposure.

The word, which she said was more than six pages long, speaks of governments being weighed, underground alliances coming to light and a spiritual separation of those who drain the people of God from those who walk in covenant with Him.

“The governments of the earth are weighed before His throne, and the matters of men and nations decided,” she began.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

According to Grace, the Lord is calling His people to posture themselves with reverence and humility, saying: “Posture your hearts, My people... For My might and power is about to bring the fear of the Lord into your nation and the nations of the earth.”

In the prophecy, Iran is singled out for its defiance: “For such the neck of Iran shall now be broken... their oil, their commodities from within the earth, shall now be pinched shut.” Other nations such as Greece, France, England and Canada are warned of upheaval and internal crisis. “A national crisis in England is about to erupt... calls for war within their network,” and Canada’s leadership “is about to be shaken hard... for what has been allowed.”

The United States is highlighted for both its peril and divine intervention. “Around the middle of July... they are out to attempt to shed blood that they did not accomplish last year.” Cities including Denver, New York and Chicago are named as spiritual strongholds where the enemy seeks “to make these a breeding ground of deception, delusion, laundering, sacrifice, a place of idolatry.”

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

However, as Grace says, the Lord promises a turning of the tide: "I, the Lord, will cause a shift in the wind of such races, and leadership will be blown in another direction... the largest excavation and gutting of what has lurked in the underbelly."

She describes a defining moment coming soon as a "time where Lot is being separated from Abraham amongst My people." The Lord is pruning relationships and influences that have acted as spiritual drains. "...For Abraham to lead and go deeper, Lot had to be purged."

One of the most surprising revelations in the word is a prophetic declaration that God will raise up voices from historically dark family lines: "One of Bill Gates' children will be raised up by God to become one of his greatest opposers... God is raising up individuals out of those family lines... to bring down the high altars their families have erected for generations."

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

This mid-July marks a prophetic tipping point where hidden agendas, spiritual battles and plans for disruption are set to collide with divine intervention. As darkness seeks a symbolic moment to strike, God is positioning His people to rise in discernment, holiness and authority.

This Prophetic Word for August Will Encourage You to Keep Going

With August just a few weeks away, prophetic voice Alwyn Uys is sharing a new message he received for next month. Opening with a heartfelt prayer, Uys declares, “Lord, I pray that they may look back and realize that Your hand was upon them all this time. Father, that You have kept them. You have protected them.”

For more than two weeks, Uys was surrounded by constant rain and gloom. “It has been pouring down where I’m at right now. And it’s almost like there just hasn’t been a break from the bad weather.” But amidst the bleak skies, something unexpected happened. “Every so often, there was a break in the weather. There was a break in the dark cloud... the sun would burst through... and you would see this rainbow.”

It was in that brief moment of light that the Lord began to speak to him. “No matter how dark and ominous and you know how depressing a situation might be... ever so often there is a break of light where the sun is shining through, where a glimmer of hope is showing itself.” Uys continues, “This breakthrough, this break in the sun, this cloud opening up—that He will do it for you as well.”

To order Alwyn Uys' new book, Speak, Lord, visit Amazon.com.

Recalling a painful season from the past, Uys shares, “One in particular happened 11 years ago when I had my car accident... one of the worst times in my life. And I never want to relive that ever again.” During that dark period, a word his sister left a lasting impression: “Nothing is forever. Everything comes to an end at some point or another. The tide must change.”

Uys continues, “The state of mind that I was in at that moment, guys, I didn’t want to live anymore. I thought it would be better if I just not be here. If I just take my life and end it right now.” But making it through this season, Uys has a powerful testimony that is clear: “Coming to where I am right now and [having] gone through those seasons—that is true. Nothing lasts forever.”

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

In prayer, Uys heard the Holy Spirit say, “You will see my light break through the darkness that has been hanging like a cloud over your head. You will see my light.” He believes this word is for right now: “This is something for the month of August... that you will see things shift, that you will see things change in your situation.”

The verse he stands on is Malachi 4:2: “But to you who fear my name, the son of righteousness shall arise with healing in his wings.” He adds, “There are so many people probably like myself that have been trusting the Lord for so long for your healing... there just hasn’t been any breakthrough. You don’t see a way out.”

However, the Word of God does not change, and it never fails. “God sees your situation. God sees your need for healing... your need for provision... your need for a change.” And the message for August is simple yet powerful: “Nothing lasts forever.”

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

As August unfolds, this word serves as a divine reminder that no season of darkness lasts forever. Even when the storm feels relentless and breakthrough seems distant, God is working behind the scenes.

He sees every tear, every prayer and every step of endurance. This is not the end—it’s the turning point. Hold fast, because the light is about to break through.

WATCH: Evangelist Declares Prophetic Future Over Atheist in Powerful Gospel Moment

In a powerful moment of street evangelism, Richard Lorenzo Jr. shared his testimony and challenged the beliefs of an atheist professor at the University of Central Florida in a conversation that touched on science, dreams, psychology and the supernatural. What began as a casual exchange turned into a deeply personal dialogue about eternity, evidence and the existence of God.

The conversation started when Lorenzo asked the professor to look at John 17:3: “This is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.” He declined, identifying as an atheist. “So that means you believe in nothing?” Lorenzo asked. The man responded affirmatively, explaining his belief in self-manifestation and psychology over religion.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

As the two continued talking, Lorenzo pressed further. “Have you ever had a dream that came true?” he asked. The professor admitted he had but attributed it to subconscious manifestation. But Lorenzo shared that he, like millions of others, had dreams come true without any conscious planning. “There’s a spirit realm,” he declared, adding that personal experiences—like sleep paralysis and supernatural healing—point to realities beyond what science can explain.

To order Richard Lorenzo Jr.'s new book, What's the Purpose of Life?, visit Amazon.com.

The man, who said he was from India and had seen spiritual possession in both religious and cultural contexts, argued that belief creates gods.

Lorenzo then shared how he was healed from an incurable disease and delivered from addiction—not through self-belief, but through the power of God. “I didn’t create God—I met Him,” he said. Lorenzo explained how he had explored multiple world religions, including voodoo, Santeria, Islam and Hinduism, but encountered the undeniable presence of God only through Jesus.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

The man argued for belief in scientific evidence like CO₂, even though it’s invisible. Lorenzo used this as a parallel for faith: “You believe in CO₂ because of reproducible experiments and testimonies. That’s the Gospel—it’s written, reproducible and you experience the results.”

The conversation between the two soon closed with a heartfelt prayer by Lorenzo: “Father, in the name of Jesus, reveal Yourself to my brother... that he would know You and teach Your Word prophetically.”

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

It was a seed planted—an unapologetic encounter that bridged faith and intellect, belief and evidence. And for the young atheist, it may have marked the beginning of a deeper journey. Pray that he would experience the true power of the living God.
