

Slain in the Spirit: Miracle or Manipulation? The Answer Will Surprise You!

Marzulli also noted inconsistencies between the Pope's Italian and English statements, suggesting that certain versions may have been strategically toned down to avoid backlash. For Marzulli, this selective messaging points to a calculated effort to gradually shift global religious sentiment toward a unified spiritual framework that embraces all faiths—something he believes plays directly into the hands of the coming global deception.

Beyond religious pluralism, Marzulli has expressed concern about the Vatican's engagement with the subject of UFOs.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Over the past several years, the Catholic Church has shown openness to the possibility of extraterrestrial life, hosting and participating in conferences that entertain theological implications of alien contact. Marzulli ties this interest directly to biblical end-times prophecy, warning that what the world calls "aliens" may in fact be fallen angels or spiritual entities bent on deceiving mankind.

Jonathan Cahn has dropped yet again another fantastic announcement to fans.

Best-selling author and prophetic teacher Jonathan Cahn has announced his first-ever prophetic masterclass, set to begin with a free, live session on May 6, at 8:00 p.m. EST.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

“I have never done this before,” Cahn said in a video announcement. “For the first time ever I’m going to be giving my first ever masterclass on prophecy, prophetic revelation [and] the end times... from ‘The Dragon’s Prophecy’ to [all the] mysteries of the end times I have ever ever done.”

The free opening session will be live and include a question-and-answer segment. “It’s going to be the first opening master class... and it’s going to be free, followed by a live time of your questions and I’ll be answering your questions.”

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

In the free live session, Cahn will lay the foundation for what he calls a journey into the deep mysteries of the end times, covering insights he has never revealed publicly, including:

- The prophetic mystery that foretold Israel’s invasion and 9/11
- The invisible Hebrew word in Scripture that holds a key to the last days
- A biblical number code that foretold Israel’s rebirth—and may hold clues to what’s coming
- The mystery behind the Great Apostasy
- A Hebrew insight that may point to the beginning of the Mark of the Beast
- The three ages spoken of by ancient rabbis
- An alternate dimension of the apocalypse

Following the free session, participants will have the opportunity to enroll in Cahn's exclusive 8-part masterclass, exploring topics such as:

- How much time do we have left?
- Is the Antichrist already on earth?
- Where is America in Bible prophecy?
- Could Revelation events be unfolding right now?
- What the Leviticus code, Hebrew marriage and cosmic signs reveal about the future

As the world continues to shift and the signs of the times grow clearer, Jonathan Cahn's masterclass offers a unique opportunity to gain unparalleled insight into the mysteries of the end times. Participants can find out more information at

Whether you are a seasoned student of prophecy or someone eager to understand what lies ahead, this free session could be the key to unlocking a deeper understanding of God's plan for the world. Don't miss this rare chance to hear revelations that have never been shared before. Join Cahn on May 6 and prepare for a prophetic journey that could change the way you view the future—and your place in it. Be ready. Be informed.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.

Did 'The View' Just Agree with Trump? And Fulfill Prophecy?

Sometimes God surprises us.

Back in 2007, the late Kim Clement prophesied that the television program "The View" would speak exactly what the Lord would want them to say. "What I want you to say!" was Kim's word. And in a very strange turn of events, "The View" just may have done that when speaking about the dismantling of the Department of Education.

Whoopi Goldberg said on the show, "...maybe some of what's happening, like they're trying to take apart the Department of Education, maybe that is a good thing," Goldberg says.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Goldberg, of all people, just gave a compliment to a conservative presidential administration. That is highly unusual.

"Maybe it will force us to make sure that our kids actually get what they need," she continues. "Maybe it'll force us to go to our state and say, 'Listen, I want to make sure since you're taking all this money from my taxes, I want to make sure that my kids get exactly what they need.'"

Her next statement is even more inspiring.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

“I don’t have to wait for the government to do it. We can do it. This is now in our hands. This is in our hands and it’s going to be tough.”

While no one would have expected Whoopi Goldberg to echo sentiments that align with a conservative viewpoint—especially on a platform like “The View”—this moment is a striking reminder that God can use anyone, anywhere, at any time to speak truth.

Whether through prophets or pundits, when God wants to get a message across, He will make sure it’s heard.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.

5 Shocking Holy Thursday Events You Never Heard of Until Now

For followers of Christ, Good Friday and Resurrection Sunday are powerful, hope-filled moments in the story of redemption. Yet, before the cross and the empty tomb came a night filled with purpose—Holy Thursday, also known as Maundy Thursday. It’s the quiet before the storm, a sacred chapter that leads us into the heart of Jesus’ sacrifice.

But what exactly happened on Maundy Thursday?

This day marks the first communion.

On this night, as Jesus gathered with His disciples to celebrate the Passover, He instituted what we now call the Lord's Supper. It was during this meal that Jesus gave them—and us—a tangible way to remember the price He would pay on the cross.

“As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed it and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, ‘Take and eat. This is My body.’ Then He took the cup, and after He gave thanks, He gave it to them, saying, ‘Drink of it, all of you. For this is My blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins’” (Matt. 26:26–27).

At the time, the meaning may have been veiled to the disciples. But in the days to come, they would understand—His body would be broken, His blood poured out, all for the forgiveness of sin.

Holy Thursday is when Jesus humbly washed the disciples' feet.

In a stunning act of humility, Jesus took the role of a servant, kneeling to wash the feet of His followers. Peter resisted, but Jesus made it clear—this was more than just an example. It was a message: the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve.

“Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands and that He came from God and was going to God, rose from supper, laid aside His garments, and took a towel and wrapped Himself. After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel with which He was wrapped” (John 13:3–5).

This act was a reflection of the greater cleansing to come—only through Jesus are we made clean. It was also a foreshadowing of the cross, where He would lay down His life for His friends.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Maundy Thursday is the night Jesus prayed in Gethsemane.

In the garden, Jesus poured out His soul to the Father. Fully divine, yet fully human, He felt the crushing weight of what lay ahead. His prayer reveals both His agony and His surrender.

“He prayed, ‘O My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless I drink it, Your will be done’” (Matt. 26:42).

The suffering He faced was more than physical—it was the burden of bearing the sin of the world. Yet even in this, Jesus submitted Himself to the will of the Father so that we might be saved.

Maundy Thursday is the night of Judas’ betrayal.

Under the cover of night, Judas led a crowd to where Jesus was praying. The sign of betrayal? A kiss.

“Now he who betrayed Him had given them a sign, saying, ‘Whomever I shall kiss is the Man. Seize Him.’ He immediately came to Jesus and said, ‘Hail, Rabbi!’ and kissed Him” (Matt. 26:48–49).

Overwhelmed by what he had done, Judas later returned the 30 pieces of silver and took his own life. The religious leaders used the blood money to buy a potter’s field, unknowingly fulfilling the prophetic words written centuries earlier.

“‘They took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of that which was priced by the sons of Israel, and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord directed me'" (Matt. 27:9–10).

This is the night Peter denied Jesus.

Peter had once boldly declared his loyalty to Jesus, even if it meant prison or death. But just as Jesus foretold, Peter's courage faltered.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

"Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken: 'Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.' Then he went out and wept bitterly" (Matt. 26:75).

His denial wasn't the end of the story—but it showed just how deep the need for grace truly is. Even the most devoted among us can fall. That's why Jesus came.

Maundy Thursday is a solemn yet sacred turning point in the story of redemption. It's the night of covenant, humility, surrender, betrayal and brokenness—all leading to the cross. And without it, there would be no Resurrection. Let it draw our hearts into deeper gratitude for the One who gave everything for us.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.

‘Ready to Come Roaring Back’—John MacArthur Breaks Silence on Health

Amid rumors of declining health, John MacArthur says that he is recovering well and is “ready to come roaring back to ministry.”

In a video posted to X, MacArthur gave an update about his current condition despite discussions that he was on the verge of death.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

“I feel fine,” MacArthur says. “I’m not ill at all. My heart is working well. My lungs are working well.”

He further notes that there is “nothing terminal” happening to him right now.

“In fact, my heart is probably stronger now than it has been in the last decade of my life,” he says.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

MacArthur says he is currently receiving quality care, and that after his lung and heart procedures, he had no choice but to stay in the hospital for seven weeks. However, he now is ready to head back onto the ministry scene.

The rumors of my death have been greatly exaggerated. ☐ So thankful to the Lord for your prayers as I continue to recover.

– John MacArthur (@johnmacarthur) April 16, 2025

“I’m ready to come roaring back into public and pick up my ministry again.”

As he prepares to resume his work, MacArthur’s recovery highlights the importance of maintaining hope at all times. Continue to lift him up in prayer.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.

He Met King Solomon in Heaven—The Truth About His 700 Wives Will Shock You!

If you could meet any giant of the faith, who would it be?

In a stunning heavenly encounter, prophetic voice Micah Turnbo shared a moment that left a lasting impression—not just for its supernatural awe, but for the sobering wisdom it carried.

Passover is more than a Jewish tradition—it’s a vivid, faith-filled journey through history, prophecy and divine promise.

Recently, believers from around the world joined a livestreamed Passover Seder hosted by Ark of Grace Ministries, stepping into a sacred celebration that powerfully revealed how every element of the feast points to Jesus, the Lamb of God. From the lighting of candles to the breaking of matzah, the event invited participants to experience the story of deliverance not just as observers, but as those living in the freedom it proclaims.

The Seder opened with communion, reminding viewers that Jesus is the ultimate fulfillment of Passover. "He was the Passover lamb," they declared, reading from Isaiah and recounting the brutal suffering He endured to purchase salvation with His blood.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

As candles were lit and prayers spoken, symbolic elements of the Passover table took center stage. Matzah was broken and hidden as the afikoman, recalling the body of Christ broken for us. Bitter herbs represented the suffering of slavery, while charoset—a sweet mixture—reminded them of the hope of deliverance.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

The Seder followed the ancient order: retelling the story of Israel's slavery in Egypt, the birth and calling of Moses, the dramatic exodus and the miraculous crossing of the Red Sea. Powerful symbolism was present: the blood of the lamb on the doorposts, placed on the lintel and the sides, forming the shape of a cross; hard-boiled egg, symbolizing both new life and mourning; cup of grape juice, celebrating the fruit of the vine and the joy of redemption.

This Passover wasn't just a retelling. It was a prophetic proclamation of hope, redemption and victory—pointing not only to what God did, but to what He is still doing through His Son, the Messiah and the Spirit that dwells within His people. A celebration of freedom. And a night to remember.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.

Is Easter Really a Pagan Holiday? What You Need to Know

Is Easter a pagan holiday?

One viewpoint is that Easter is rooted in the celebration of the fertility of a pagan goddess, Ishtar, who was from Babylonian times. This celebration of ancient fertility rites would, ultimately, mean that Christians were celebrating something far from the truth of Jesus' Resurrection.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Others have also connected Easter to the timing of Passover, and the forbidding of Christians eating eggs at the time of Lent in the Middle Ages. The word "Easter" can also be connected to the Germanic form of the word “dawn” which would symbolize the dawn of Christ’s Resurrection on the Third Day.

So, should Christians use the term “Easter” or not?

As believers, we are called to walk in wisdom and discernment, that’s why it’s important to seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit, allowing Him to convict and lead us personally.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

While discussions about pagan roots and cultural influences for the name “Easter” are valid, they should not distract believers from the central truth that Resurrection Sunday marks the greatest event in human history—the defeat of sin and death through Jesus rising from the grave.

Regardless of the terms used, what matters most is the posture of our hearts and our focus on the victory of the cross and the empty tomb. Our hearts must be fixed at all times on Christ in sincere worship, not only at this time of year, but in all situations and circumstances.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.

How Dave Ramsey Lost Everything—And How He Got It All Back

Dave Ramsey has become a household name for those who want to get out of financial debt. However, this wasn't always the case. In fact, there was a time when Ramsey himself was broke and without hope. That is, until he finally met Jesus Christ.

On an episode of the Shawn Ryan Show, Ramsey explained how he was living the American dream in his twenties. By the age of 26, he had accumulated $4 million in real estate and earned $250,000 in a single year. But despite his financial success, he was drowning in debt, and his world would soon collapse. By age 28, Ramsey was bankrupt, losing everything he had built.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

It was through this downfall that Ramsey experienced a profound transformation—one that would change his life forever. His journey to faith began during a sales conference, where he encountered a speaker who challenged his worldview. The speaker, a successful businessman, boldly stated, "If you don't know this man named Jesus, you need to get introduced because it will change the way you do business. It will change the way you do relationships."

Although Ramsey initially resisted his wife's pleas to attend church, he eventually agreed, driven by a deep curiosity and a sense that something was missing. However, the first churches they visited didn't leave a lasting impression. That is until they walked into a small, humble church where the presence of God was undeniable. Ramsey recalls, "We just kept coming and we didn't know what was drawing us back, but we found out later it was... the spirit of God we could feel it and it was just attractive.”

Through this encounter, Ramsey began to understand a key truth: material possessions, no matter how luxurious, could never fulfill the longing in his heart. He’d chased after cars, homes, and extravagant experiences, thinking they would bring peace, but they only left him empty. “If you eat enough lobster, it tastes like soap,” he humorously reflects, illustrating how, eventually, wealth and material goods lose their luster. “You get enough cars, you get enough suits of clothes, you get enough houses... eventually you just go, ‘It’s unfulfilling.’”

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

It wasn’t until he surrendered his life to Christ that he found true purpose. Ramsey explains, “It’s not all about you... the most fulfilling thing you can do in your life is serve and not gather up another Jaguar...” This spiritual awakening wasn’t just about a change in beliefs—it was a complete shift in priorities. Dave realized that true fulfillment comes not from accumulating wealth, but from serving others and living according to God’s purpose.

Ramsey also reflects on the moment he realized possessions couldn’t bring him peace: “There’s nothing wrong with getting you some stuff... but what’s wrong with where it becomes wrong is if you are asking the stuff to do something it’s not capable of, which is give you peace.”

As he rebuilt his life and career over the next 35 years, his wealth grew, but his attachment to material things disappeared. Today, Dave Ramsey encourages others to seek fulfillment not in wealth, but in the peace that only Jesus can offer. His journey from bankruptcy to faith is a powerful reminder that no amount of success can replace the joy and purpose found in Christ.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.