

Pastor Encounters the Devil: 'All I Could See Was His Face'

Renowned prophet Chuck Pierce shared powerful insights for 2025, emphasizing that it will be a year marked by both grace and conflict. During a livestream with Christian International's Jane Hamon, Pierce described how God's timing and positioning will be essential for believers to navigate the challenges ahead and fulfill their divine purposes.

"I think this year more than ever it is important that we understand times and know what we are to do," says Pierce.

Pierce says the night before the election, the Lord woke him up at 3:00 a.m. Prior to going to sleep, Pierce asked the Lord if He could show him anything beyond the year 2026 since God had previously given him insight into the years leading up to 2026.

"He woke me up these words to me: 'Hezekiah, extend time,'" says Pierce. "And at 4:00 a.m. I got a call from Israel, and the person on the other line said, 'The Lord told me to call you from Israel and say He is speaking Hezekiah to you.'"

Pierce says God then took him to a Scripture from Isaiah that spoke to him about what the next three years would be like into 2027.

“We are moving in an extended time frame of grace,” Pierce says.

Looking at 2025, Pierce also prophesied a year of both abundant grace and intense conflict. While God’s grace will be poured out in a powerful way, believers must also remain vigilant, keeping the light of Christ burning brightly. Pierce described 2025 as a time to stay spiritually alert, with grace being multiplied to empower believers to fulfill their God-given purposes.

“God’s people have to keep their lampstand burning this year,” says Pierce. “Without that, without having the oil, the anointing, you’re going to get really confused in the year ahead.”

5 Simple Strategies As You Fast

In a message by Mike Thompson, he explains why three dates related to the 2024 election are not only culturally and politically important, but why they have a greater spiritual significance as well.

“The very first one is already passed, but that is Nov. 5, 2024; that is election day,” Thompson says. “On that day, something broke, and that’s the spiritual, that’s the prophetic significance of was a time of breakthrough when there was a breaking of the ruling political spirit of Jezebel, Antichrist, idolatry and it’s hold over America.”

Thompson believes there was a blanket of darkness that was broken off of America on this day. He also believes that Jan. 6 was another key date for America, which is when the election was certified.

“That confirmation is important because that’s what brings about prophetically the agreement between heaven and earth,” says Thompson. “The agreement between God and man, the government.”

Lastly, Thompson believes Inauguration Day, Jan. 20, will also have a heavenly significance to it as well.

“At that point, there’s a release of the anointing,” says Thompson. “The anointing of God that comes upon [Trump] and a release of what was broken on Nov. 5, confirmed on Jan. 6 and now released on Jan. 20.”

“They are the dates that align with the way that God is going to release everything that He has for us in this nation,” he continues. “It’ll be felt all around the world. There’s going to be radical prosperity, radical evangelism, just so much more that is being released into our nation.”

Prophetic Warning From Jenny Weaver: Don’t Look Back

In a recent prophetic word, Troy Black shared a word of encouragement and warning concerning Inauguration Day.

“The Lord said, ‘This inauguration, [this] be a sign of what is to come,’” says Black.

Within this word of encouragement was also a word of warning not to idolize or give the credit of victory to people, but rather to Jesus Christ, who has already won our ultimate victory.

“He’s saying, ‘Be careful not to celebrate the victory of a man more than you celebrate the victory that I’ve already won for you at the cross,'" Black says.

"I heard this about the inauguration. He said, 'Pray, wait and see what transpires, what comes next.' Then He said, 'I have a step-in moment that I have called my church to live up to,'" Black continues.

Black believes that following Inauguration Day, it will become obvious how the Lord wants the church to specifically rise up in prayer for those who have been tried unfairly, and misjudged due to fear. Black also predicts that Inauguration Day will bring about a type of reconciliation politically as well.

As we inch closer to Inauguration Day, take this prophecy, and any prophetic word that you hear, into prayer and seek the Lord for discernment. Pray also that reconciliation prophesied about in the church and across the nation would be able to happen in a way that honors and glorifies the Lord.
