

Was the Man in the Red Hat Prophecy Fulfilled?

Did a secular prophecy about a man in a red hat come to fruition?

Back in 1972, a Hopi Native American spiritual elder predicted that there would be a rise of a man in a red hat, alone with other future predictions about what would be coming for people in the years to follow.

“They will be very intelligent people. They’re going to produce many inventions,” the spiritual elder said. “They’re going to be so powerful that they’re going to use that to shake us up real hard, and they’re going to almost destroy themselves. But later, out of a new generation, is going to rise. This time, they will know what to do in the right manner for right purpose.”

The elder then pointed to the symbol of the sun, discussing further how the people to come would create powerful inventions and equipment, and that the destruction would appear to be right around the corner. However, through this time, a man with a red hat would arise.

A decade later, we saw the manifestation of this “Strange July” come to pass with the assassination attempt on Donald Trump’s life during his Butler, Pennsylvania rally. This is something Clement also prophesied about back in 2004.

“There shall be one assassination attempt that will endeavor to destroy the plans that I have for this this nation,” Clement prophesied. “This night is a Saturday night...”

Just as we saw that this prophecy about July come to pass, is Trump's election victory now part of the "hypnotic November" part of this prophecy?

"Hypnotic November. And oh, Christmas. Where winter shall say, 'And me? I will make them happy,'" Clement prophesied.

Right now, the world has been mesmerized and by this success on Trump's part as he won both the popular vote and the electoral vote. Another key part of this prophecy is that the fall time would be when the Lord would reveal His chosen David to the nation.

"And in the fall, [I] will show you whom I have chosen to pray for and guide this nation. You shall rejoice for it is My man. It is My chosen David, says the Lord."

2011 Prophecy of 2-Term Donald Trump Presidency Fulfilled

Back in 2011, Mark Taylor heard from the Lord that Donald Trump would someday be president. At the time, this seemed completely out of the blue, but now that Trump has just been re-elected as the 47th president of the United States, the puzzle pieces seem to be coming together.

"I didn't know a lot about Donald Trump. I just knew he was a very powerful businessman that had built this empire, and he was toying with the idea of running for president at the time," Taylor told CBN in an interview uploaded in May of 2020.

Taylor says he was listening to Donald Trump speak in an interview when God spoke to him and told him Trump would be the future president.

"I just heard the voice of the Lord say, 'You're hearing the voice of a president,'" said Taylor. "You know He was saying that basically America was going to prosper like never before. Israel and America, the ties between the two countries would be stronger than ever before."

When asked if it would be an eight-year presidency, Taylor said, "absolutely."

"There's gonna be no doubt; he's gonna sail right in for the second term,” Taylor said.

Another interesting part of Taylor’s prophecy is that God would make a clean sweep in the media.

This means it is the job of the church—of the Christian—to actively share the gospel and disciple people to know and live for Christ.

Just as the hearts of the people must be truly changed for a lasting revival, this is the same for our president-elect as well. We must pray for Donald Trump to embrace the opportunity to walk in everything the Lord has called him to do, and to fully surrender to the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In his victory speech, Trump discussed how God spared his life so he could help to save the nation from turmoil. God has given America a window of opportunity for change; let’s not miss it.

“The moment now is too important for us to miss. The political door has opened. But it’s opened so that which is spiritual, the answer can come through the door. The door has now opened so that the presence of God, the work of God, the will of God, the Word of God, the salvation of God, the Spirit of God, the redemption of God, can enter through that door,” says Cahn. “This election is not the end of the story; it’s the beginning.”

Dear Body of Christ,

The LORD has given us a beautiful and miraculous space of grace. It's time to unify and not fumble the ball.

"Americans are tired of WOKE insanity!"

"Suddenly behind me, starting behind my back, going in a form of an arrow, for hundreds of thousands of people. And I turned around and I was stunned at what I saw," Clement explained. "This was not just a mere dream but this was a vision."

Clement said he raised his hands, and the people behind him also raised their hands. When he then shouted, all the people shouted.

"They were one. One party. One party of people. It continued until I realized that the unity of these, amongst them stood one that God had set aside to be the leader of this nation. And then I heard, 'gold,'" Clement prophesied.
