

Chuck Pierce's Prophecy for America, Israel: 'Receive a Finishing Anointing'

Chuck Pierce is giving a prophetic word for America and Israel for this moment.

In a recent video, Chuck Pierce gave a prophetic word for both America and Israel that he believes is for this current moment.

"I began to pray for Israel and America and God spoke a word to me," Pierce says. "This was the sentence God spoke to me, for all of us. 'Receive a finishing anointing now. Strike again.'"

Pierce says upon receiving this, he went to 2 Kings 13 which brought clarity to the meaning of this prophetic word.

"This is where Elisha is sick and on his last few days of living. And he had received an illness, he was going to die with this illness, and it reminds me that a prophetic season can come to an end," Pierce says.

In this portion of Scripture, Elisha tells the king of Israel: "Take a bow and the bow," (v. 15). After this, the king opens the east window and shoots the arrow out of it, a sign of deliverance from God. Following this, Elisha tells the king to take more arrows and strike the ground with them. The king strikes the ground three times with the arrows, but Elisha tells him, "You should have struck it five or six times. The you would have stricken Aram until you had finished them. Now you will strike Aram just three times," ().

Pierce points out that just as Elisha placed his hand on the king's hand to shoot the arrow out of the window, this is key to our future.

"That is the key to Israel's future right now; it is the key to America's future. Where will the prophetic be imparted to those who are going to rule in the future?" Pierce asks.

Pierce also says that the open window is representative of us currently being in the season of the open door. Just as Elisha told the king that he should have kept striking the ground, Pierce believes Israel too needs to keep on striking.

Lisa further points out that it is the enemy's mission to bring division into our world to see everything crumble. It is the serpent who wants to see fall in tragedy and pain.

"For so long the women have been fighting the men, the men have been fighting the women, and we both have forgotten that there is a serpent in the shadows who has grown into a dragon. Who is now dividing male and female, Republican, Democrat, Black, white – his whole thing is divide, divide divide," she says. "Because he knows divided houses cannot stand."

One of the ways Lisa says that God brings and desires unity is through the family unit.

"At the end of the day, the family is still the most powerful unit, and sometimes I think we forget that God is a father. He is not an apostle, he is not an entrepreneurial leader, He is the Creator of all. But He chose to represent Himself as a father," she says.

Joni Lamb, Jonathan Cahn Reveal Mysteries of the Last Days

In an interview on Daystar, New York Times best-selling author, Jonathan Cahn, discussed with Joni Lamb the mysteries we see coming to pass right now that point to the return of Christ.

To order Jonathan Cahn's #1 New York Times best-selling book, "The Dragon's Prophecy," visit .

One of the major points that Cahn makes is the immense amount of hate that we saw against Israel from around the world after the October 7th attack from Hamas.

"This is spiritual," Cahn says, explaining the significance of the evil spirits that come from the dragon discussed in the book of Revelation.

“They [the spirits] spread through the world and gathered the world to Armageddon, basically to destroy ‘ve already seen the first fruit of it. Look what you saw around the world; it was the widest outbreak of anti-Semitism. The other thing is it was the young. It was Harvard, it’s the future,” he continues.

Cahn points out that the chant, “From the river to the sea, Palestine shall be free” is more than just a merely hateful statement. He says it is ultimately the taking of Scripture and twisting what God has promised.

“What is on Mount Moriah? The Temple Mount and Calvary,” Cahn says. “It’s God; He’s confirming, He’s saying I’m going to fulfill all my promises in this one act. When the Messiah dies all my promises are in that.”

Second Corinthians 1:20 tells “For all the promises of God in Him are ‘Yes’ and in Him ‘Amen,’ to the glory of God through us.” God promised to bring us a Savior, and in the perfect time, the promise was fulfilled. Just as God was faithful to provide the sacrifice who wiped our sins clean, He will also be faithful to return in all of His glory, just as His Word says.

Kim Clement: The Tidal Wave of the 'Hypnotic November'

Is Kim Clement's "hypnotic November" prophecy for 2024?

This prophetic word by Clement about a "hypnotic November" was given to him by the Lord not once, but twice.

"Do you believe I am the Creator, the Ruler, the One who started life from its beginning?" Clement began the prophecy. "Then I spoke, and when I spoke, light was in the beginning, and I am here today.

"The angel of the Lord stands over America to speak that division may even get worse. Why? For I wish to bring to you the light and the understanding that when those in leadership reject Israel, they reject Me, says the Lord."

Clement also described a dream he had about a great storm heading to the Northeast of America, to the east and finally to the south.

"It seemed like it was a tidal wave of destruction, and written across was 'Elizabeth,'" Clement prophesied. "For a minute I thought it was South Africa, but God said, 'No; this will start now, in November.' A tidal wave that seemed to bring destruction. And it broke in pieces. Every wall and every building that stood in its way for its purpose."

Clement said he realized this dream was not just spiritual, but something that would take place in the physical realm.

Gaines says that the Lord put it on his heart years ago that a season would come where he would become an itinerate preacher instead of working as a preacher to one set church.

“The Bible says there’s an appointed time for everything. And there’s a time for every event under heaven. That’s Ecclesiastes 3:1,” says Gaines. “While I am not retiring from ministry, I will begin a transition out of the pastorate.”

Gaines made it clear to the Bellevue congregation that he was not pressured in any way to make this change, but rather that this was simply the time to make a professional leap. This decision comes within less than a year after Gaines was diagnosed with cancer.

“While I received a cancer diagnosis 10 months ago, this transition is not connected with that. My treatments are going well. I received a good PET scan report this last week. But regardless of what tests show, my faith is in the Lord and in His Word...” he continues.

Gaines says Bellevue will continue to be he and his wife’s home church, and a team from the church will prayerfully consider who will become the next pastor. Until the new minister for Bellevue is found, Gaines will remain as the pastor and then help train them for several months before fully passing the church over to the new preacher.

“My race as senior pastor of Bellevue is coming to an end, but my commitment to you is to keep running with all my strength and effectively hand off the baton to the next senior pastor. I do not come to this transition with fear. I do not come with regret. I’m genuinely excited to enter into the next phase of our ministry that the Lord has for us. I’m calling it my fourth quarter,” Gaines says.

During this transition, pray for God’s direction and guidance for Bellevue, and for Gaines’ health and new opportunities.

Chris Reed on MorningStar: 'Thank You for the Good Times'

Chris Reed continues to speak about his time at MorningStar Ministries, this time, giving a show of appreciation for all of those that he worked with and ministered to during his time as the CEO and president of the ministry.

Reed began his message by apologizing to all those who may be hurting in the middle of this storm.

"I just want to say to all you who are hurting or confused or sad I'm sorry for all of those things that you're feeling. To the victims, I'm deeply sorry, I really am," Reed says.

"I just want to say to the employees, about 120 of was a great group of people. Many people who worked there, 15, 20 years or so or more. Many of you got thanked, many more of you didn't get thanked for seen and unseen, and I just want you to know, for those of you who I got to know, the vast majority of you were delightful Christian people with godly Christian character. And it was a joy to get to know you, and I'm thankful we got to meet. I hope that somehow we can remain friends," Reed says.
