Mike Signorelli's Prophetic Dream Has Come True

Pastor Mike Signorelli of V1 Church had a prophetic dream that he is seeing come to pass.

"I was walking the streets of Roosevelt Island between Brooklyn and Manhattan and this young man in a seventies era suit, he approached me and said, 'Hey Mike, it's me, don't you remember me?'" Signorelli recounted about the dream.

The man in the dream then revealed himself to Signorelli as Tim Keller. This left Signorelli in disbelief because in real life Tim Keller acted as his mentor when he was part of a program for young church planters.

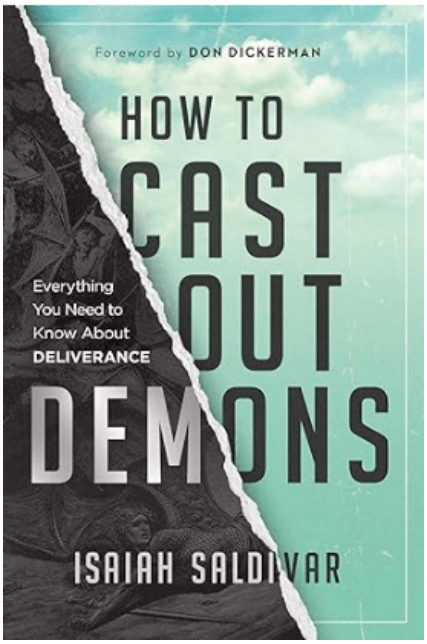
In this dream, Keller pointed out the financial district of Manhattan to Signorelli and told him that if he went to this area of New York and answered the people's questions they in return would answer his prayers.

Fast-forward a bit, and Signorelli found himself talking with the elders of V1 Church about the current state of the body of Christ on a global scale. Signorelli has seen the division happening in the church right now, which has left him feeling the necessity to reach for even more lost souls and bring them to Christ.

Trying to figure out a way to get more people in the doors of the church at a time of year when people are settling back into their way of life with work and school, Signorelli knew

V1 would have to expand beyond the typical Sunday morning services.

“I said, ‘We have to open up evening services,'” Signorelli said.



To pre-order Isaiah Saldivar’s “How to Cast Out Demons,” visit Amazon.com.

Without mentioning his dream about Tim Keller, Signorelli asked if a shared location in Manhattan was possible for the evening service instead of having separate services in New Jersey, Brooklyn and Long Island.

With this idea in motion, someone recommended Signorelli reach out to the pastor of Liberty Church. During his call with this pastor, Signorelli was pleasantly surprised and saw how God really does make dreams come true.

“I said, ‘Hey, do you have venue space for an evening service in Manhattan?'” he asked the pastor. “He said, ‘Absolutely. We have a fixed installation with all the equipment, all the chairs, it’s ready to go, and we are just waiting for a church, and we’ve been looking for a church to do evening services.'”

Signorelli was thrilled to hear about this good news, and knew that God's hand was on this plan when he heard about the building's location.

"He said, 'It's located in the financial district.' And as you can imagine, the fear of God gripped my heart when I realized that the dream I had many months ago was divinely and sovereignly being fulfilled," he continued.

The evening services hosted by V1 Church will begin the second Sunday of September. Along with V1 Manhattan, V1 Miami is slated to open a second location to host evening services, and V1 Indiana is opening as well.

"I believe that across all of our revival homes and all of our regions that we will lead 1,000 people to Christ," Signorelli said.

Signorelli is also requesting that believers pray for necessary finances and plans to go through to take this initiative forward so more people can hear the gospel.

During this day and age where we see so pews emptying out and church doors shutting, it's encouraging to know that there are churches and ministers out there who are seeking the Lord with their whole hearts to bring revival and the true mission of the gospel to a broke and hopeless world.

Witchcraft Retreat Turns Lethal: 'Something Sinister Happened'

51-year-old Dana Jackson of North Carolina supposedly died after going on a Vodou retreat in Haiti where she was planning to become initiated as a "Manbo priestess," according to USA TODAY.

As Harvard University notes, a manbo or mambo is a "female ritual specialist in the Haitian Vodou tradition." This person "performs ceremonies, initiations, healings and divinations. She is a spiritual guide for those who make contact with the gods through possession."

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Jackson's son, Timothy Jackson, said this form of sorcery is something his mother had been practicing for years. His mother left for her trip to Haiti on July 1 and was slated to come back to the United States on the 26.

There's one particular part of the Vodou ceremony which would require Jackson to not communicate with others, something that deeply troubled her son.

"…she sent me one last message on the 13th, and said, 'we will talk on the 21st, going to church tomorrow,'" Timothy Jackson said.

Timothy received one more message from his mom asking him to "pray for her" on July 21. He continued to try to reach out to her, but never received a response. His grandmother then notified him on July 22 that his mother had died.

"The way she told was, 'your mom's not coming back from Haiti,'" Jackson said. "She said, 'she's not coming back from Haiti. She passed away…'"

When Jackson tried to get a hold of the group leaders, he had a suspicious feeling that something wasn't adding up with the stories he was being told.

"To be completely honest with you, my initial thought was my mom went down to Haiti," Jackson said, "They did this last piece of the ceremony, and something sinister happened."

To pre-order John Ramirez's "Exposing the Devil's Playbook," visit Amazon.com.

Jackson said he was told that his mother became ill during the deeply spiritual ceremony and then fainted. He was then told when she was finally conscious again, she thought she was in Virginia, a state that she hadn't lived in in more than a year. He was also told that she had a heart attack and a stroke at the hospital after having seizures.

This terrifying and heartbreaking story is a reminder as to why believers should not mess around with demonic things. The enemy has every intention of stealing, killing and destroying anyone he can. It is only through Christ where we can find true life and freedom.

Joel Osteen Launches Thrilling New Venture

Lakewood Church's pastor, Joel Osteen, is launching a new media venture.

As Variety reported, Osteen is partnering with Roku to create a streaming channel (FAST), completely ad-free.

"I am excited to see our content become part of The Roku Channel's exceptional free streaming offer," a statement by Osteen said.

The media launch occurred last Wednesday with the network known as The Joel Osteen Network.

"This collaboration opens up terrific avenues to reach even more individuals in search of hope and inspiration," the statement continued. "The Roku Channel has proven it is a pioneer in television technology and I am looking forward to seeing the results of this fantastic opportunity."

This new streaming service is just one of a few other major milestones that Osteen has celebrated this year. Earlier in the year, Osteen celebrated his 1,000th sermon since taking over at Lakewood Church, along with the finished payment of the $100 million loan that the church has been working on for two decades.

"I believe in 2024 you'll see God release you from some things that have held you back. Release you from debt, release you from addiction, relationship, from wrong mindsets," Osteen said.

These feats also come right as darkness tried to take over the church when a shooter came into Lakewood Church, causing complete havoc.

August Prophecy: Prepare for War

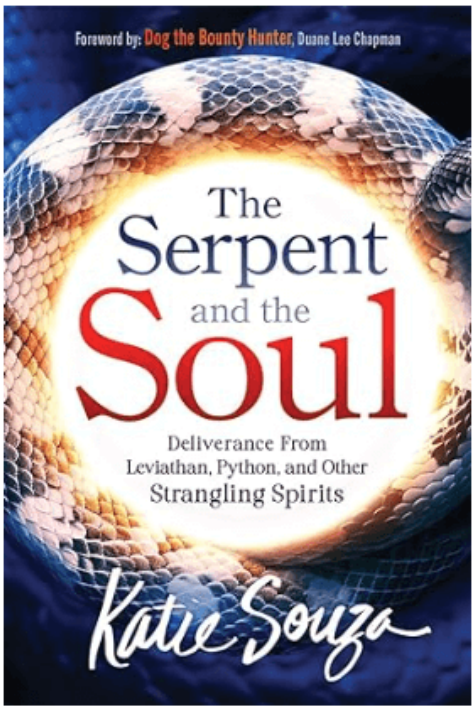
In a recent video, Katie Souza gave a prophetic word for the month of August which is a call to prepare for war.

“We are stepping into the next layer to peel back and assault and push back against the resistance that is trying to fight against us,” Souza says. “Seeing [the] full manifestation of everything God has spoken to us.”

This prophetic message comes from a vision that Souza had regarding the United States.

“I saw a map of the United States, and then it spread out to the world,” says Souza. “Sprinkled throughout the map and then the world were black holes everywhere all over the map. I said, ‘God, what am I looking at? And He said: ‘these are spaces in lands, businesses, economics, in stock market, in new projects, in churches and ministries—places where the body of Christ has not occupied.’”

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!



To pre-order Katie Souza's "The Serpent and the Soul," visit Amazon.com.

Souza points out that the darkness in those places is a direct reflection on us as the light of Christ not going into all the different spaces that we are called to go into.

"They're under the control of demonic spirits who are trying to hold that ground. But we must fill those holes with our light and invade and take new territory so that we can occupy," Souza says.

Souza reminds Christians that whatever gifts, dreams and talents God has given us we must use for His glory. We are supposed to take what He gives us and bring Him an eternal return on the investment. This command to sow and reap for the Lord is critical during this time because we must be prepared for when disaster ultimately does strike someday.

"If we do not position ourselves now, when disaster arrives, we will not be ready on a firm foundation," she explains. "The Lord wants the body to rule and reign over a huge variety of industry, businesses, economic endeavors. In this hour you must diversify."

Souza gives some reasons about why we need to diversify due to the deception running rampant in society.

"You need to start realizing what God is breathing on," she says. "He's breathing on people that learn how to do stocks and crypto trading, that learn how to make homeopathic medication because we cannot be under the control of the pharmaceutical giants that are in the earth today. Those medications are creating massive side effects, deaths, illnesses…people who are skilled in natural food preservation. Look, there is food shortages that are happening right now…and they're going to get much, much worse."

Part of this preparation for war, according to Souza, is learning skills like preserving meats, canning and freeze-drying food. She also notes that this is a time of God stretching people to be able to handle and do more things without them becoming overwhelmed and exhausted.

"You must follow through with what God has been putting on your heart and you cannot look at what the economy or the inflation or the stock market crashes or anything else are doing because we are not under the world's economy. We are under the kingdom economy," Souza says.

As the world will continue to get darker, make sure that you have built your life upon the firm foundation of Christ. It is only with Him that we can be more than conquerors in every area of life.

Perry Stone: The Spiritual War Waging Over Israel

In a message from Caesarea, Perry Stone gave a prophetic warning about the battle that is being waged over Israel.

Stone gave viewers a few questions to ponder about Israel.

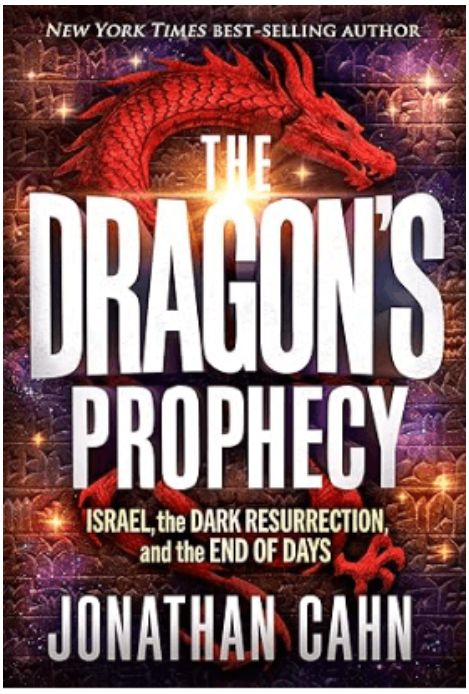
“Why has there been such a battle for the nation of Israel, surrounded by nations that hate her, and why have the Jewish people been perhaps the most persecuted group of people on the face of the earth?” Stone asks.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Stone points to the time of Moses as prophetic symbol of what was to come.

“Moses predicted to the people ‘there will come a time in your future when you will wake up and wish to God it was night and when it’s night you wish it was day.’ He said, ‘There will come a time when nations will turn against you.’ But the prophets always predicted that based on the covenant God would bring the people back,” Stone continues.

Stone also says the war that is being waged over the heart of Israel is connected to the covenant that God made with them through Abraham.



To pre-order Jonathan Cahn’s new book, “The Dragon’s Prophecy,” visit Amazon.com.

“God made a covenant with the descendants of Abraham,” Stone says. “Then the Lord declares, ‘Out of you the nations of the world shall be blessed.’ So we see that God made a covenant with Abraham for a nation.”

Stone discusses how Israel built the First and Second Temple, literally bringing to earth what is of heaven. Israel is also unique to the rest of the world because it is through Israel that the Word of God and the prophets came.

“To them was given the oracles of God. The oracles are the writings of the Torah and the prophets. So, in other words, the prophets that we know that gave us the scriptures that prophesied of things to come. They prophesied about the appearance of the Messiah. They prophesied about the last days, what would happen. They prophesied about the Messianic kingdom,” says Stone.

So, a lot of the struggles and the warfare that Israel has faced relates directly to their unique positioning with God. Their existence declares that the Lord is real and that He is king over it all.

“Israel being re-established proves the existence of God and proves that the Bible is the Word of God,” Stone says.

Let us continue to pray and bless Israel as Scripture commands.

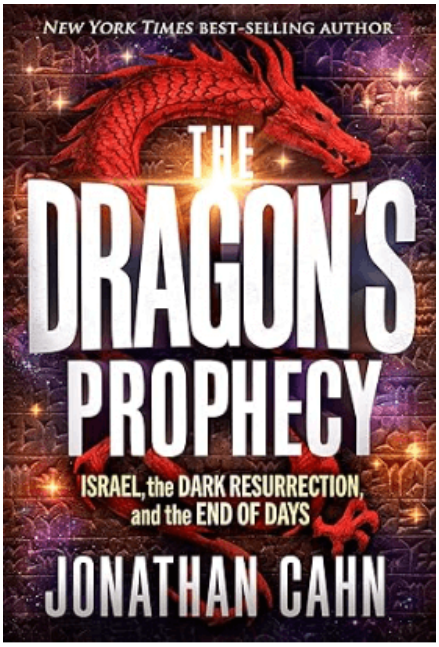
Jonathan Cahn, Sid Roth Reveal Shocking Ancient Prophecies

In an interview between Sid Roth and Jonathan Cahn, the two discussed the supernatural warnings of what is happening in our world today, and how they relate back to ancient mysteries foretold long ago.

Cahn explains that if you want to know what's been happening in the past year, looking at Jewish history is key.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

"If you want to understand what's happened with Jewish history, you want to understand what's happened in the last year, it is part of an ancient war," Cahn says. "There is a real force. You cannot explain the war against the Jewish people and what we've just seen in the world by any natural means. This is supernatural. It goes back to an angelic being. And that's why it never ends because the enemy doesn't die and it's no accident that the most opposed, hated, persecuted people in the world are the Jewish people."



To pre-order Jonathan Cahn's latest book, "The Dragon's Prophecy," visit Amazon.com.

Cahn then unlocks something massive about the meaning behind the people of Palestine.

"Palestinian means the Philistines," Cahn says.

Cahn points out how what we see happening between Israel and Gaza is a replaying of what occurred in ancient times.

"What happened on Oct. 7 were the Gazans coming back to Israel. How many? The IDF said about 3,000," Cahn points out. This is the same number of people who were struck down when Samson pulled down the temple in Scripture.

These mysteries that Cahn has been uncovering are all discussed in his new book, "The Dragon's Prophecy." For Cahn, the writing of this book has been unusual compared to everything else he's done.

"This is the only book I've ever written where as I'm writing the book things are coming true in the world," Cahn says.

Cahn discovered that even the term "Hamas" can be found in Scripture.

"It's actually an Arabic word that means 'zeal' and 'fervor,' but it's actually a strange word because it's not just Arabic, it's actually Hebrew," says Cahn. "In the Bible it means 'evil,' 'violence' and 'destruction.'"

This violence and destruction plays into the biblical figure of the dragon.

"One of the things about the dragon, the enemy, is that he's a desecrator. He desecrates holy things of God, and it's no accident that what happened in the world on Oct. 7 was a holy day of Israel. It was a Sabbath," says Cahn.

These prophetic mysteries are uniquely detailed. Roth says that the amount of revelation Cahn brings to the table about today's world is astounding.

"I have to tell you, it astounds me, the [amount of] revelation that God has entrusted to this rabbi," Roth says.

As we navigate these end times, let us stay close to the person of Christ to overcome the evil of this world.

U.S. Makes Promise to Investigate 'Peruvian Alien Mummies'

Rep. Tim Burchett (R-Tenn.) has promised that he will look into what is believed to be mummified bodies of aliens coming from Peru.

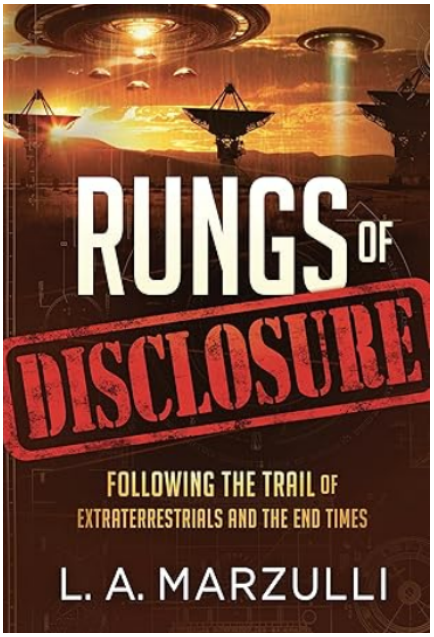
As the New York Post reported, Burchett told Mexican journalist Jaime Maussan "I will gladly help you." Maussan first brought these potential "non-human" remains into the international spotlight. Mexico even held a congressional hearing on these supposed mummified bodies.

Breaking News*. Spirit-Filled Stories. *Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

"I would also be interested in getting some people to analyze those bodies that are independent of the federal government," Burchett said, according to the Daily Mail. "We will look for the most important people in the world."

Some scientists have previously made the claim that these supposed remains have 30 percent "unknown" DNA.

However, while some may believe these "alien mummies" are the real deal, Nephilim expert L.A. Marzulli previously told Charisma Media that these findings do not meet the necessary criteria to be real mummies.



To pre-order L.A. Marzulli's new book, "Rungs of Disclosure," visit Amazon.com.

"Anybody who's in this field, if you see something, you immediately stop," Marzulli says. "If you uncover something you stop. You put down a ruler, a marker, a yardstick, $1 bill, something. That's huge. There is no provenance for this thing."

Marzulli also has a personal background of working with Maussan. The two are friends, but at one time they were both fooled by a hoax of believing that an actual fairy was found.

After having veterinarians examine the body, everyone believed that what they had discovered was real. However, about an hour after the believed fairy was outside of a jar of formaldehyde, Marzulli noticed something peculiar.

"I look down at the tray, and I take a pair of forceps and I go, 'what's this?' to the lead veterinarian. And I hold it up in front of him and he goes, 'that looks like wood with two pieces of wood with epoxy on either end,'" Marzulli says.

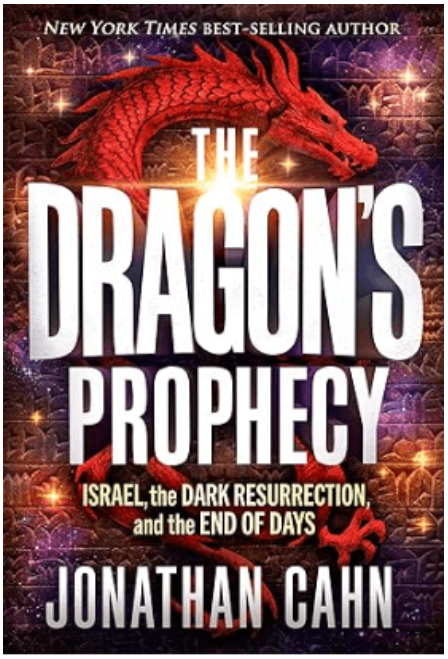
Jonathan Cahn and the Keys for the End Times

As we continue to approach the return of Christ, our world will continue to grow in darkness. However, what if there are keys that we as believers are supposed to take into consideration when it comes to living in these unprecedented times?

Rabbi Jonathan Cahn gave a message to help guide believers in these pressing times.

- Build your life on the firm foundation of the Word of God.

Using the parable of the two men who built homes, one on a rock and the other on the sand, Cahn points out that the man who built his house on the sand had it wiped away by the storm. However, the man who built his home on the rock was secure when the storm came. In the same way, we are supposed to build our lives on the rock of God's Word.



To pre-order Jonathan Cahn's latest book, "The Dragon's Prophecy," visit Amazon.com.

- Bind the word of God to your mind.

"Let the Word rule your thought life and you're going to have a stable thought life. Bind the Word to your actions," Cahn says. "Whatever you do, make sure it lines up with the Word of God."

- Become rooted into the things of God.

Cahn points out that we are supposed to be plugged into God through prayer and communion with Him. Each day a believer should place themselves into God's presence.

- We have to walk in alignment with God's will.

"A key here is the more out of the will of God you are the more you will not prevail. The more you'll be overcome. The more in the will of God you are, the more you cannot be overcome and you will overcome," Cahn says.

- Place your faith in the truth.

Cahn says it is when we place our faith in God, in His truth, it connects us to Him. True faith connects us to God's salvation and love and it's how we grow stronger in spirit.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

- Remember the Lord.

"It is key in this hour, in this day right now at the end times to remember. Remember. Why? Because the spirit of the age is to make you forget. The spirit of the age is to make you forget God, to forget God's ways, forget His Word," says Cahn.

- Praise the Lord.

We are to praise God no matter what we are facing, regardless of the troubles and the situations we see. We are to praise God even in a dark world.

- Do not bow down to the things of this world.

"The enemy wants you to bow down. It wants you to give honor," Cahn says, "You have to be the one who says 'I will not. I'm not bowing down to this god, I'm not bowing down to that idol, I'm not bowing down to that falsehood, I'm not bowing down to that political correctness, I'm not bowing down to that golden calf."

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

- Don’t wait for the battle to know what you’re going to do.

We all will face battles that require us to make decisions. Instead of determining what to do right then and there, we must prepare with how we will stand up against darkness ahead of time.

- Do Not Be Afraid.

“God is in control, God is on the throne and He has no intention of getting off of the throne,” says Cahn.

- The darkest days produce the most fruit in our lives.

Cahn points out that when we experience greater darkness, with it also comes even bright of a light.

- Repent and return to God.

“The church, the people of God, have to go back to the beginning. They have to go back to when it wasn’t so cultural and comfortable,” Cahn says. “It was radical and revolutionary and prophetic and on fire and all out and they didn’t have a lot of worldly power, but they had a lot of spirit power.”

The world will only continue to get darker and more intense as we approach the very end. However, when we lean into Christ, we can prevail because He has overcome the world.

Prophetic Warning for America: The Two Faces and the DNC

Nothing is exempt from the prophetic realm, including the direction of a nation.

In recently released message, Joseph Z discussed the prophecy of "two faces," and what God has laid on his heart about the DNC.

Using his famous whiteboard, Z wrote the letters "DNC" and said, "I see things happening around this."

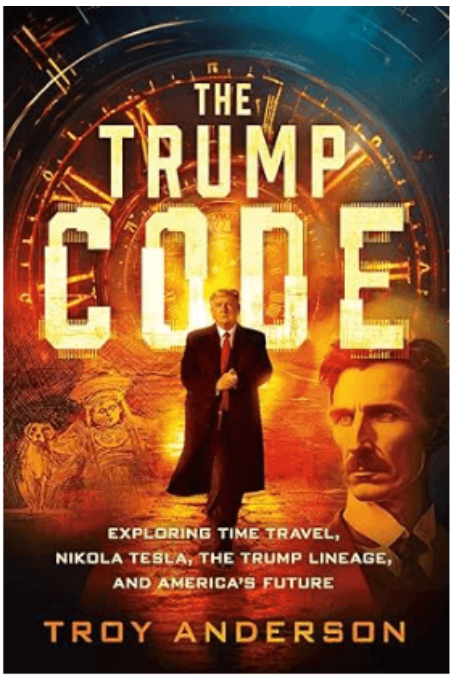
He believes this event will bring about new characters onto the scene. "New characters that are going to come through the veil so to speak," Z said. "They're going to begin to make a showing. But, I'm very concerned about this word."

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

The word is "tragic."

"It's like a cloud they want to induce of tragedy. They want to induce this cloud of tragic scenarios. Why?" Z asked.

He believes it is so the attention will be taken off of the 45th president, Donald Trump.



To pre-order Troy Anderson's "The Trump Code," visit Amazon.com.

"They're willing to do anything to make sure. So, I have a very concerning sense over what's happening at this convention," said Z.

Z then shared about the vision of "two faces" he saw back in 2020. The two faces he saw were of Kamala Harris and Donald Trump. When Z had this vision, he saw Harris' face growing stronger while Trump's became more faded. Z believes this vision now relates to the word he received that 2024 would be a do-over year.

"I am contending in the spirit that this is not going to be the do-over of that scenario. I believe through prayer we will see the outcome of righteousness where the do-over will not be as it was, but rather we will see victory," Z said.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

"I have not seen the outcome; I've only seen a strong potential of what I believe God wills and what needs to happen…I believe that the do-over is God's giving us another chance to rise and shine according to 1 John 4:17," he continued.

Z also shared that no matter who wins, he believes we're going to see some redemptive instability. He also believes that regardless of who becomes the president, the years 2024 through 2027 are imperative before 2028 which he says could be a new beginning and a new America.

"That doesn't necessarily mean good or positive, it just means new. It'll be different. And I'm believing it really is predicated on who gets in here [the presidency]," Z said.

As this year has been full of surprises and unexpected outcomes, we as Christians must continue to press in through prayer that God's will and the gospel will continue to be spread no matter what kind of hardships or victories we face in the future.

Over 100,000 donors in more than 151 countries were part of this milestone, according to the post’s video.

Season 5 is set to tell the story of Holy Week, perhaps the most powerful moment in history as this time span goes from Palm Sunday to Resurrection Sunday.

It is in this season that viewers will witness the heartbreaking betrayal of Judas.

During an interview with The Direct, “The Chosen” creator Dallas Jenkins explained why he is anticipating this particular moment.

“What isn’t a spoiler is how it happens and who it impacts and how the disciples wrestle with knowing that something bad is happening,” Jenkins told the outlet. “They didn’t have a hallway for it. They couldn’t understand it. They couldn’t figure out who it might be. So why is that? Why couldn’t they figure out it was Judas? I love exploring that. How does this impact Judas? Judas probably had a family.”

Jenkins also described the scenes that have already been filmed between Jesus and Judas as “heartbreaking.”
