

J.D. Vance and the Spiritual Realm: 'The Devil is Real'

J.D. Vance has acknowledged the spiritual realm.

Back in 2021, Vance spoke at a private Teneo Network Event where he talked about the impact of politics and media on our society today.

"We are horrified in this country," Vance said. "And I see it on both the Left and the Right. We're horrified of unconventional people who say and believe unconventional things."

"I got myself into a little hot water last week because I made what seemed to me a plainly obvious observation that Alex Jones, the InfoWars guy, is a better source of information than Rachel Maddow, the MSNBC gal," he continued.

Kim Clement had a unique prophetic gift and was known for his accuracy and interweaving of musical talent when he would prophesy. One of his prophecies which described a "Strange July" and a "Hypnotic November" appears to potentially be for 2024 after the strangeness we've seen this month with the attempted assassination of Donald Trump and the decision for Joe Biden to step aside from the presidential race. Now, we are all anticipating to see what this fall will turn out to be.

In an interview with Charisma Media, Donné Clement Petruska, Kim Clement's daughter, and Amanda Grace shared prophetic insights about this period of time we're in right now.

"I call it the season prophecy because he goes through all the seasons of the year," Petruska said. "It was very unlike anything he ever did. But he saw a strange July, a falls in the fall and a hypnotic November. And in the falls in the fall, he was speaking about exposure. And in many other prophecies he was speaking about exposure."

Petruska said that this exposure her father prophesied about would deal with intelligent agencies, leadership and churches.

Grace shared two prophetic words that she had with Charisma, one from Oct. 6, 2020 and another from July 11, 2024. In the October 2020 word, Amanda Grace heard that there would be a "clash of the titans" as we've never seen before.

"There shall be a clash of the titans in Washington, D.C. the likes of which has never been seen," Grace prophesied. "And there shall be those exposed in both parties who have been liaisons for wicked interests of foreign entities...the trumpet will sound, the trumpet will sound in the midst of all this happening, the trumpet will sound says the Lord, for I, the Lord am making an unexpected move that will catch the enemy, his alliance and those involved in the darkest of dealings off guard, off-kilter, a surprise attack."

Grace's 2020 prophecy further talks about the shocking, infighting that will happen within groups and a major player falling.

Moving forward to July 11 of this year, two days before the attempted assassination of Trump, Amanda Grace also had another prophecy about exposure and evil.

“This is the crucial hour of switches and swaps and flops as the great scramble has begun, says the Lord, there is a great scramble and panic as they have caught themselves in their own net,” Grace prophesied. “They are a vapor, says the Lord. A vapor, and that is what their twisted heinous shall now turn into—a vapor before their very eyes.”

Right now, God is shining His light on every area that is hidden by darkness and exposing the truth behind it.

Chick-Fil-A Overthrown as Best Fast Food Restaurant in America

It's a sad day for God's chicken.

Chick-Fil-A has been bumped from the no. 1 fast food spot in America to no. 3 in the USA TODAY's Reader's Choice vote.

Taking the no. 1 spot now is Mexican fast food chain Del Taco with KFC taking the second spot. As the New York Post reported, Chick-Fil-A has been named the best fast food spot now for almost an entire decade.

Earlier this year, it was reported that Chick-Fil-A made over

$21 billion in 2023 which was an 11.2% increase from the year before which generated $ billion. Chick-Fil-A has also recently had to abandon their vow to only serve customers antibiotic-free chicken. Instead of chicken that had “No Antibiotics Ever” they had to switch to “No Antibiotics Important to Human Medicine.”

Shake Shack also took on a battle against Chick-Fil-A by offering a special Sunday chicken sandwich, jabbing against Chick-Fil-A’s policy of being closed on Sundays.

“Every Sunday in April, we are offering a Free Chicken Shack with $10 minimum purchase with promo code: CHICKENSUNDAY. Just go to your nearest participating Shake Shack or order on our app or website to taste the true difference,” the food chain wrote on their website.

Have Jonathan Cahn’s Prophetic Warnings to Biden

Come to Pass?

Did Jonathan Cahn's prophetic warnings to Joe Biden come to pass?

The president's bombshell decision to drop out of the presidential race for re-election comes after he vehemently told ABC's George Stephanopoulos that he wouldn't leave the race unless the Lord Almighty Himself came down and spoke to him. That bold statement after a disastrous debate performance against Donald Trump was followed by even more blunders that called Democrats and Republicans alike to ask the current president to exit the race.

What seemed like a provoke to God on Biden's end, however, did not come without warning. Since his inauguration, prophetic voice Jonathan Cahn has been issuing Biden warnings not to go against the one, true, living God or else face the consequences.

"Choose true greatness, and lead in that return or continue in this departure from God to destruction and judgment," Cahn warned in his inauguration prophetic message to Joe Biden.

"Mr. President, President Biden, you have called for unity and peace. But how can a nation have unity and peace when it wars against the very foundation on which it stands. How could a nation have unity and peace when it turns against the God who brought it into existence?" Cahn asked.

Could Perry Stone's latest troubling dream be a prophetic warning for Christians in America?

Stone has been a prophetic voice for years, sounding the alarm of what is coming to our world. One of the ways he says God speaks to him is through dreams. However, his latest troublesome dream just may be a warning for Christians in America of what is coming next.

"In this dream, it appeared to me that everyone that was with me in the dream or that I was seeing in the dream were all Christians," Stone says.

In this dream, Stone says laws had been passed in order to control a group of people by using federal government agencies. By passing these laws, the government had tracking control over the people. While Stone acknowledges that satellite and phone technologies have the ability now to do some tracking over us, Stone says this tracking was on a totally different level.

"This was completely different because what had happened is that the Christians in America had completely, totally had all their freedom to travel freely taken from them," Stone says.

In this dream, Christians could not do the things they desired to do. Limitations and stipulations were put in place on Christians and their ability to freely move about.

"We were limited the distances that we could go each day," Stone says. "And if we were to go beyond those distances...the way the cars were set up...you would be fined."

“I did see gas vehicles there. Gas was still in existence, but there was a limitation of all gas vehicles,” Stone continues.

Stone says going over the limited mileage per day was part of an environmental protection charge. More than the charge and driving limitations alone, a strain was placed on the body of Christ at-large.

“They could care less about your religious freedom, they could care less about you assembling in your worship. In fact, they preferred you not to assemble,” Stone says.

“It was causing enormous stress and distress on pastors and ministries. And of course, a lot of them were having to go to social media, which again, was being monitored heavily,” Stone continues.

This dream is not only troubling because of the implications of the restrictions and restraints that Americans felt, but because its reality is closer than most of us would like to admit. With technology’s daily advancements, this type of tracking could actually become a reality. However, we should take this dream as a prophetic warning and pray for God’s divine protection, wisdom and peace.
