

Jack Hibbs Sounds the Alarm: How the Antichrist Will Captivate the World

In a rapidly shifting geopolitical moment—marked by Middle East chaos, European instability and unprecedented political upheaval—Pastor Jack Hibbs reveals the reason why the world is suddenly obsessed with a single end-times figure: the Antichrist.

Antichrist, the Spirit and the False Prophets

“Isn’t it funny that even the unbelieving world, even CNN, cares about the Antichrist?” Hibbs notes in a recent podcast episode.

Hibbs highlighted that the Bible distinguishes between multiple forms of opposition to Christ. “1 John talks about the Antichrist is coming, that there’s a spirit of Antichrist and that there are those who preach false doctrines and do false miracles and they’re antichrists, plural,” he said. “So think about that for a moment. There’s the Antichrist, who’s an actual person, that is going to be the famous Mr. 666. Then there are those who are false prophets and teachers. They are antichrists plural. And then all of that operates in the atmosphere of the spirit of Antichrist. Make sure you understand that.”

The Beast Rising Out of the Sea

Turning to Revelation 13, Hibbs connects the biblical description of the Beast to Daniel’s prophecies about earthly empires—kingdoms God sees not as glorious, but as “brutal beasts.” These prophetic images, he says, are now colliding with modern headlines.

He explained that Daniel views earthly kingdoms as brutal beasts rather than glorious empires, reflecting God’s perspective on human power. “Man sees himself in power as glorious. God sees man in power as raw, brutal, destructive beasts.”

Hibbs also emphasized the role of Satan in empowering the Antichrist: “The dragon, who do you think the dragon is? What do we know from the Bible about who the dragon is? The Book of Revelation tells us that the dragon is none other than Satan himself.”

The Mortal Wound and Global Marveling

One of the most striking aspects of Revelation 13, Hibbs explained, is the “deadly wound” the Antichrist appears to receive. “I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded...John said, ‘I saw one of his heads.’ So the empire of the Antichrist begins to arise. The Antichrist will preside over this system. The dragon will give him the powers. All of this in operation is the spirit of the Antichrist.”

The Tribulation Saints and the Church

Hibbs emphasized that the Antichrist’s persecution targets tribulation saints, not the Church. “The Antichrist is going to be given power over them, and they’re going to die. Please don’t ever again say that that’s the church because it says saints... Those are tribulation saints, and they will have to die for their faith.”

He clarified that while all saints wear white robes, only the Church is called the Bride of Christ and wears fine, clean linen. "...only the church is called the bride of Christ. The other two wear white robes."

The False Prophet Emerges

Revelation also describes a second beast, which Hibbs identified as the false prophet. "Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth... He had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon... He's not Satan, but he speaks like Satan. And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast whose deadly wound was healed."

This figure, Hibbs said, completes the unholy trinity of Satan, the Antichrist and the false prophet.

A Call to Study and Prepare

Hibbs closed the session with a strong exhortation for Christians to read Scripture and discern the times. "Read your Bibles. Read the book of Daniel. Read the book of Revelation. That's your homework. That's your assignment."

As global tensions rise and speculation swirls around world leaders, Hibbs' message is a stark reminder that the end-times warnings in Scripture remain as urgent and relevant as ever. The rise of the Antichrist, the emergence of the false prophet and the coming tribulation are not distant concepts—they are unfolding realities that demand spiritual preparation, steadfast faith and a clear understanding of prophecy.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

Amanda Grace: Divine Intervention, Political Turmoil and the Coming British Revolution

A powerful prophetic word from Amanda Grace is warning others that a new season is unfolding—one that will reshape nations and political structures in unprecedented ways.

One of the ways Grace believes there will be a significant shift involves changes to the Church of England and the Catholic Church.

“One of the most shocking betrayals in the Catholic church shall emerge in this time,” Grace says. “The Church of England, says the Lord, Episcopal, says the Lord...you have let the betrayer and destroyer in, and now it shall turn on you.”

Grace warns that the upcoming shifts will expose the fragility of systems built on appearances. “The order of My Word shall leave it amount to nothing...as you see how weak these parties and organizations and leaders truly were. No substance, all show. This shall take place over the next year.”

She also pointed out how England is positioned as a focal point of this divine strategy. "I am raising up a leader in England, a leader who knows me, a leader who is not afraid of Ishmael, a leader who will provoke an entire nation that has lost its way to think and to exit the old way of doing such and throw off such wine skin. This shall be more potent than Brexit." According to the prophecy, this leader will challenge entrenched powers: "Mayors who serve Ishmael shall be overthrown...some territory shall be taken back, for the Spirit of the Lord shall be upon this leader. They shall not look the role. However, when they open their mouth, a provoking power that comes from Me...shall stir the people."

Grace shared prophetic imagery of a wailing sound rising from England to point out the magnitude of what is coming. "Before the world, a cry shall come out of England—woe, woe—a wail is coming out of England that the whole world will hear," Grace prophesied. This is more than political upheaval; it is a divine awakening that will spark a revolution and a purification of leadership, with ripple effects across nations. "It shall begin a revolution and an exit and a driving out and impeachment..." she continued.

The time is urgent. Grace's prophetic word is a call to vigilance, prayer and participation in God's strategic move. The old wine skins are being shattered; the new wine is ready to fill the faithful with power, influence and divine wisdom for a season of transformational change.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

A Great Collapse for King Charles? Prophetic Warning for 2026

Is there a shake-up awaiting Great Britain and King Charles in the upcoming year?

In a prophetic word from Oct. 22, 2025, Chris Reed saw a great shift coming to the United Kingdom, writing:

I keep seeing Great Britain going through much turmoil, and even their Prime Minister Starmer being forced out of power. The left-wing/socialist/globalist/uncontrolled migration is literally upending their culture. He will be out of power soon, and the Labor Party will be hit hard. Pray for God's purposes for Great Britain and another great awakening.

This, however, is not the only shocking thing that Reed saw. He believes he also saw the end of King Charles and the rise of Prince William in leadership.

On Nov. 5, 2025, Reed wrote:

Pray for England. Before 2025 ends, there will be a sharp economic decline, and social unrest will increase in England. Twenty-six will come, and I saw in cold weather the death of King Charles. And King William will lean into Christianity and push back on Islamic immigration.

These prophetic words are pretty heavy. These are also not the first of the solemn prophetic words to surface regarding King Charles.

As Charisma previously reported, Charlie Shamp prophesied in 2022, “Charles, Charles, what have you done? Have you not sold your birthright? Have you not traded it in? But even while you were selling it, even while you were selling your sonship with your brother, for did you not see what I saw with Phillip?”

Prophetic voice Joseph Z also prophesied in the wake of Charles’ cancer diagnosis that his rise to power signified that of a “false king,” but that with his reign would come the emergence of the true king, and that the “Spirit of the Lord will come upon William.”

With 2026 just around the corner, we will have to press into prayer and see what events unfold in the next few months.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

Jonathan Cahn Reveals the Thanksgiving Miracle: How to

Unlock God's Abundance

Thanksgiving reminds us of the cross and the life-changing power of Christ's blood. We have endless reasons to be grateful for what Jesus accomplished on the cross. In a powerful message, Rabbi Jonathan Cahn reveals how genuine gratitude reflects a genuinely thankful heart—and how that thankfulness can shape your future in ways you may never have imagined.

As Cahn points out, if two people each claim to have received a wonderful gift, but only one shows gratitude, it's easy to see who is telling the truth. "The one who's thankful," Cahn says, "is the one who's telling the truth. In the gospel, it is written that He took the bread at the Last Supper and gave thanks... it was the blessing. It's never the bread." Thanksgiving is the accurate measure of whether someone has received the gift of salvation.

Jesus' act at the Last Supper points to a principle that extends to every area of life. The organized church called the bread the Eucharist, but as Cahn explains, "The word for Eucharist is in the Bible... It's not about the bread. It's not the bread at all... It's the blessing over the bread." Gratitude, not possession, is the key to abundance. "It's never the things that are going to make your life. It's the blessing over the things... It's not how much you have. It's how much blessing you give for what you have."

Cahn points out that this principle was also evident in Jesus' miracle of feeding the multitudes. With only two fish and five loaves, He "didn't complain about the food... He says he lifted it up and He gave thanks to God. And when He gave thanks to God, it multiplied.” Cahn emphasizes, “Take the little you have. And instead of complaining about the little, give thanks for the little and the little will multiply.” This multiplication begins in the heart: frustration lifts, joy grows and the believer begins to see how truly blessed they are.

The practice of thanksgiving is transformative. Cahn shares, “Just sit down, just start writing down blessings in your life and start giving thanks to God. Watch the joy grow and multiply in your life.” He points out that it doesn’t matter how big or small your home, account, or resources are—when gratitude flows, blessings flow. “When you take nothing for granted, everything becomes a blessing… You take your spouse for granted; they can’t bless you anymore. You take your salvation for granted; you won’t be blessed. But when you start giving thanks, take nothing for granted, give thanks for everything you’ve got every day, it’s going to bless you.”

Paul echoes this in Scripture: “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks—for this is God’s will for you” (1 Thess. 5:16-18). Cahn reinforces this, saying, “When you present your request to God, but with thanksgiving, the shalom, the peace of God which passes all understanding, is going to guard your heart and your mind in Messiah Jesus.” Gratitude isn’t optional; it’s protective. Romans 1 warns, “When they knew God, they didn’t glorify him… neither were they thankful, and their foolish hearts were darkened.”

The key to abundance is radical but straightforward: in every situation, lift your needs to God, but do it with thanks. Cahn reminds us, “If you give thanks from your heart, you won’t be frustrated. If you give thanks, you won’t be depressed. If you give thanks, you won’t be filled with anxiety and fear.”

Start small—thank God for waking up, for the clothes you wear, for your breath, your home, your family, and see how He multiplies your joy, peace and blessing. In the Kingdom of God, thanksgiving is not just a response. It's the key that unlocks everything.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

Erika Kirk Reveals the One Thing She Prayed for After Charlie's Death

In a candid interview with Megyn Kelly, Erika Kirk revealed the one thing she was praying for after the assassination of her husband, Charlie Kirk.

When Kelly asked Kirk how many kids she and Charlie were hoping for, she told her they wanted four.

"We wanted to have four. Yeah. And I was praying to God that I was pregnant when he got murdered," Kirk said. "I was like, 'Oh goodness, that would be the ultimate blessing out of this catastrophe.'"

Because of this desire to have had more children with Charlie, Kirk says she now encourages couples not to put off having kids.

“Now when I see young couples, I tell them, ‘Please, like, don’t put it off.’ Especially if you’re a young woman, don’t put it off. You can always have a career. You can always go back to work. You can never just go back to having children and they grow so fast and so quickly...I was praying. Both of us were, we were really excited to just expand our family,” she said.

As The National News Desk also reported, Kirk told Kelly in a separate part of the interview that she does not hold onto anger and bitterness against Charlie’s accused killer, Tyler Robinson.

“The enemy would love for me to be angry,” she said. “He would love it because it would distract me from building what Charlie entrusted to me: raising our babies, Turning Point... If I had any amount of anger in my heart then the Lord would not be able to use me.”

In the midst of unimaginable loss, Erika Kirk’s testimony is a reminder that even in life’s darkest valleys, God is still near and purpose still calls. In her courage, forgiveness, and unwavering trust in God’s purposes, Erika reminds the body of Christ that, even when the enemy strikes, we are still called to do the works that God has entrusted to our hands.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

Third Temple Rebuild and the Rise of the Nephilim: Are We Witnessing the Last Days?

As the world races forward, technological advances and global unrest are aligning in ways that echo the prophecies of Scripture.

Joe Kirby, founder of Off the Kirb Ministries, told Charisma Media in an interview that as he studied end times prophecy, “It was like getting saved again. The Bible just opened up—Zechariah, Daniel, Revelation—even the parables of Jesus became alive, showing the reality of the new kingdom.”

Kirby points to the rise of new technologies as key indicators. Digital IDs, facial recognition, cashless societies and even Neuralink-style brain chips raise serious concerns about control and surveillance. “I’m not saying these are the mark of the beast, but it does concern me,” he notes. “Once people have these technologies, it will be tough to buy, sell or participate fully in society if you don’t have them.”

Alongside these innovations, Kirby sees cultural signs fulfilling biblical warnings: selfishness, thanklessness and a growing apostasy. “People are deconstructing their faith, mocking Christ and chasing self-gratification,” he says. “The Bible predicted this, and we’re seeing it in real time.”

Prophetic developments in Israel also capture Kirby’s attention. He references Ezekiel 38, noting the alignment of modern nations with ancient prophecies. “Persia is Iran, Kush is Ethiopia and modern Russia fits the role of Magog,” he explains. “When nations turn against Israel, it’s a direct fulfillment of prophecy.” He also highlights the significance of the red heifer, whose rarity is tied to the rebuilding of the Third Temple. “The temple can’t be rebuilt without it,” Kirby says, underscoring the potential for dramatic events in the Middle East that may fulfill end-times prophecy.

Kirby doesn’t stop at political or technological signs—he also examines the spiritual and supernatural. He points to the Nephilim and the days of Noah as examples of the world’s increasing corruption and the overlap between natural and spiritual realms. “Fallen angels once walked among humans,” he says. “The Bible says the abyss will be opened in the last days, and these evil beings will be unleashed. This should give us urgency in evangelism.”

Indeed, evangelism is at the heart of Kirby’s mission. “The gospel melts my heart,” he declares. “We’ll have plenty of time to sing hymns in heaven, but we’ll never have the chance to reach the lost once the door is closed. That urgency drives everything I do.” Through online videos and street evangelism, Kirby uses current events, prophecy and even cultural fascination with giants and the supernatural to lead people to Christ.

In a time when technology, global unrest and moral decay point to the end times, Christians are called not only to watch—but to act, preach and share the gospel with urgency.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

Tucker Carlson Opens Up About His Terrifying Ghost Encounter: 'Demonic Possession Is Real'

While Tucker Carlson's reported encounter with a demonic entity has continued to make airwaves across the internet, he also previously disclosed his ghost sighting.

Stating that he has "personally seen a ghost," he explained why communicating with the dead is against Christianity when he was asked if he believed in the afterlife and the possibility of communicating with those who have since been deceased.

"Well, of course I believe in the afterlife," he said. "I wouldn't still be here if I didn't. It's very clear to me, having personally seen a ghost, not a figment of my imagination, but an actual, physical ghost that you can communicate with beings. The supernatural realm is as real as my iPhone, in some ways, more real."

Carlson then shared why trying to call on these entities is spiritually dangerous.

To buy Jenny Weaver's new book, The Wicked World of Witchcraft, visit Amazon.com.

"I would be very, very worried about messing around with attempting to communicate with that world because in Christianity, there's a direct prohibition against sorcery. That stuff is absolutely real. Demonic possession is real. I've seen it. We have all seen it. My strong sense is if you mess around with that in the wrong way, that could be a vector for possession."

In a culture growing increasingly fascinated with the paranormal, we must be reminded that spiritual realities are not fairy tales or ghost stories for entertainment. They are powerful, active forces operating around us every single day.

We cannot dabble in occultic practices to speak to the deceased. These activities will open the doors to the demonic warfare that the enemy is waiting to use in order to kill, steal and destroy our lives. In an age when séances, witchcraft and New Age rituals have become mainstream trends, the Church must sound the alarm louder than ever.

The enemy is after the souls of this generation—especially our children—and the only safe place is under the covering of Jesus Christ. Now is the time to shut every spiritual door, stand firm on the Word and reaffirm that the Holy Spirit, not counterfeit spirits, is our only source of supernatural truth and power.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

David Wilkerson's Alarming End Times Prophecy: Fire, Riots and a Nation on the Edge

David Wilkerson, the legendary street minister who changed the lives of thousands in New York City, was more than just a voice for the lost—he was a prophetic watchman for a nation.

As Perry Stone pointed out in a new video, Wilkerson was known for his courageous work with gangs. His ministry began when he answered a divine call to the streets of New York, a city riddled with violence and despair. There, he encountered gang leader Nicky Cruz, whose conversion sparked an unprecedented revival among the youth and gang communities.

Yet Wilkerson's ministry was not only about saving souls; it was about sounding alarms. In 1985, he penned Set the Trumpet to Thy Mouth, a prophetic call for America to awaken before judgment. As Stone noted, Wilkerson prophesied that: "America is going to be destroyed by fire. Sudden destruction is coming, and few will escape. Unexpectedly, in one hour, a hydrogen holocaust will engulf America, and this nation will be no more."

He later warned of another attack, writing, "The great holocaust follows an economic collapse... the enemy will make its move when we are weak and helpless because America will not repent."

Perhaps his most chilling prophecy came on Sept. 7, 1992, during a sermon in which Wilkerson shared a vision that had haunted him for years: over 1,000 fires burning simultaneously in New York City. "I've had a recurring vision of over 1,000 fires burning at one time in New York City," he said. He spoke of an eruption of rage sparked by economic hardship: "New York is now...ready to blow. Federal and state welfare cutbacks will be the spark that ignites the fuse. A 100,000 angry men will be on the streets, enraged because they've been cut off from benefits. Fires will rage everywhere."

Wilkerson's warnings did not end there. In March 2009, he released a public statement foretelling an "earthshattering calamity." According to Stone, Wilkerson said, "It's going to be frightening, and we are all going to tremble, even the godliest among us. Major cities across America will experience riots and blazing fires... There will also be looting."

What makes Wilkerson's prophetic voice particularly compelling is its consistency and weight. Stone reported that this particular vision came through an angelic visitation, which he kept private to avoid ridicule. Stone emphasized, "He would never say he saw an angel as he knew people would probably mock it and not believe it... But the Lord had showed him that in the future this was coming."

Wilkerson's prophetic words serve as both a warning and an invitation: a warning of the consequences that await an unrepentant nation and an invitation to pray and prepare spiritually.

As New York and America face economic and societal pressures, the call is clear: the prophetic voice of God is not silent, and His servants continue to sound the alarm.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

Slender Man Stabber Escapes: A Demonic Deception Returns to Haunt the Nation

The Slender Man stabber has escaped.

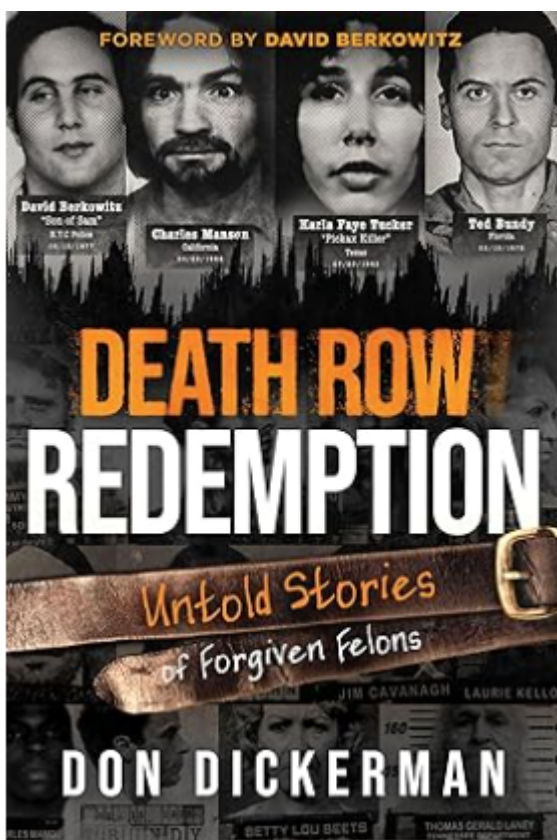

According to The Guardian, Morgan Geyser, 23, was discovered in Posen, Illinois, after she had escaped from a group home where she removed her monitoring bracelet. Previously, authorities issued an alert, noting that Geysler was last seen with another acquaintance on Saturday. Back in 2014, Geysler had confessed to “repeatedly stabbing a sixth-grade classmate” to honor the fictional Slender Man. The classmate, Payton Leutner, was stabbed by Geysler 19 times.

Geysler’s horrific crime went viral after she explicitly admitted that Leutner was attacked in hopes of becoming a “servant” for Slender Man. She believed that this was necessary to keep Slender Man from harming her own family. Another classmate, Anissa Weier, encouraged Geysler to perform the act.

Until now, Geysler was in a psychiatric center and then a group home in Madison, Wisconsin.

According to ABC News, Geysler would not give her identity to police, telling them to “Google her.”

To order Don Dickerman’s new book, Death Row Redemption, visit Amazon.com.

“The female repeatedly refused to provide her real name and initially gave a false one,” police said, per ABC News. “...she finally stated that she didn’t want to tell officers who she was because she had ‘done something really bad...’” Geyser’s acquaintance has not been named, but is reportedly a 42-year-old male. The two were discovered asleep on the sidewalk.

Earlier this year, Fox 6 Milwaukee reported on Geyser’s conditional release and move into the group home. She now also identifies as a transgender male and says she “no longer hears voices.”

Geyser’s crimes and her escape, however, point to something even more sinister that continues to grow in our nation. Children are being fed content that leads to demonic acts and oppression, sometimes in subtle ways, and at other times, in very blatant terms.

Geyser’s escape is more than a headline—it is a sobering reminder that the demonic is no longer hiding in the shadows. Our culture is being saturated with darkness disguised as entertainment, creativity and “just stories.” What once belonged to the fringes of the internet has now become normalized, even celebrated. As Christians, we cannot afford to shrug off these moments as isolated incidents. They are warnings—alarms sounding in the spirit—revealing how aggressively the enemy is targeting the next generation.

Now more than ever, we must guard the gates of our homes. We must pray with discernment, watch with vigilance and teach our children how to recognize truth from deception. The darkness may be rising, but so is the call to stand firm. When we stay anchored in God’s Word, filled with His Spirit and attentive to what is shaping our children, no scheme of the enemy will prevail.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.

---

Startling 2026 Prophetic Insights That Could Change Everything

In a recent message titled “2026 Prophecies and Beyond...” prophetic leader Chris Reed unveiled a sweeping series of warnings and revelations he says the Lord gave him during a time of fasting and prayer.

Below is a full breakdown of each prophecy he delivered, detailing what he saw for the rest of 2025, 2026, and beyond.

Scandals Unfolding in the White House

On July 30, 2025 Reed saw:

...from President Trump all the way back to President Clinton, there's about to be some serious, scandalous information come out that is potentially crime. It can all seem to come close together. Pray that the truth is revealed regarding crime...

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

A Fall In Great Britain

Reed also prophesied that in the fall of 2025, there would be much happening in Great Britain.

I keep seeing Great Britain going through... much turmoil, and even their Prime Minister, Starmer, being forced out of power. The left-wing/socialist/globalist/uncontrolled migration is literally upending their culture. He will be out of power soon, and the Labor Party will be hit hard. Pray for God's purposes for Great Britain and another great awakening.

Great Britain in Upheaval and King Charles III

Reed offered one of his most detailed geopolitical warnings concerning Great Britain:

Pray for England. Before 2025 ends, there will be a sharp economic decline, and social unrest will increase in England. 26' will come, and I saw in cold weather the death of King Charles. And King William will lean into Christianity and push back on Islamic immigration.

Missiles Over the Baltic and a Potential NATO War

Reed then warned of a flashpoint that could ignite a global conflict:

In a vision, I saw missiles being shot over the sea, and it seemed to be coming from the Baltic nations, and I believe it was Estonia or Poland. This will be a response from Russia, trying to poke the bear by flying planes into the airspace and doing other provocative actions. I see it hitting a Russian plane. Please pray this does not lead to NATO going to war. Putin is desperate. This goes along with a time-stamped prophecy from 3.11.22, where I named those nations.

A Global Market Correction

Turning to the economy, Reed predicted a worldwide financial shakeup:

I see a major correction in the stock market and a pretty sizable dip because of all the investments in AI. I encourage you to invest in gold and silver. The Lord showed this to me to prepare his people for the coming economic downturn in the markets to protect their retirements.

Riots Throughout Europe

Reed foresees intense cultural backlash spreading across the globe:

There are going to be incredible riots in Europe and across the world against Islam, an explosion of Christianity, where people will come to know the Lord.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Middle East Stability and an Expanded Abraham Accords

Shifting to Israel and the Middle East, Reed declared:

The Gaza peace will hold. But we will see occasional resistance from Hamas. However, there will be a second battle as we will see from Lebanon, as they will rise up in attack against Israel. I don't see there being a two-state solution, but we will see battles in the West Bank, and Israel will battle other Arab nations.

2026 U.S. Midterms: A Divided Government

Reed also spoke into America's political future:

As it stands now, I was taken into Nov. 2026, and the Republicans lost control of the House of Representatives, but they kept the Senate. This will cause a divided government and will be problematic. Please pray for God's hand in the midterm elections.

Breakthrough Medical Cures Through AI

Despite delivering many heavy warnings, Reed concluded with a message of hope:

I've seen with AI and the private sector and the government that cures for major diseases will come, including some forms of cancer and neurological diseases.

**Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!**

Reed reminded listeners that these prophetic words are not inevitable but conditional—invitations for believers to pray, repent and stand firm against the schemes of the enemy.

Abby Trivett is a writer and editor for Charisma Media and has a passion for sharing the gospel through the written word. She holds two degrees from Regent University, a B.A. in Communication with a concentration in Journalism and a Master of Arts in Journalism. She is the author of the upcoming book, The Power of Suddenly: Discover How God Can Change Everything in a Moment.