

Trump Invokes Scripture in a Powerful Call to Protect Foster Children

President Donald Trump is calling on Americans to abide by the biblical command to care for the least of these.

In a statement, the president said, "The Bible tells us that of the measures of any society is how it cares for vulnerable children and orphans. So important. It is so big in the Bible."

With this, he promised that as America strives to rebuild and become an even better nation, part of this growth includes caring for those children who need it most.

President Trump's words draw America back to a timeless biblical mandate—one God has never revoked. Scripture is unmistakably clear: "A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in His holy dwelling" (Ps. 68:5). The Lord aligns Himself with the vulnerable, and He measures His people by how they respond to those who cannot defend themselves. Throughout the Old and New Testaments, God commands His people to "defend the fatherless" and to care for orphans with compassion, justice and sacrificial love.

May the church lead the way in restoring hope, reaffirming dignity and reminding every orphaned and vulnerable child in this nation that, through Christ, they are seen, valued and loved.

Chemtrails Exposed: Tucker Carlson Reveals What's Poisoning Our Skies

Is there something lethal circulating in our skies?

In a recent interview with Tucker Carlson, Dane Wigington of GeoEngineering Watch shared terrifying news about what is really happening to the air we breathe.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

“The world’s second most recognized climate engineer, Dr. Ken Caldeira, stating what he did for the DOD was to design methods of spraying pathogens into clouds to infect the populations below,” Wigington stated.

Wigington then connects the concept of chemtrails to the broader spread of COVID-19 back in 2020.

“At one point, 85 countries were infected in three days. That’s indicative of an airborne dispersion,” he said. “We know from Italian researchers they found CV-19 attached to airborne particulates. We know from our precipitation testing we have polymer fibers and graphene in our rain.”

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Pondering more on the concept of why our rain would be polluted with these elements, Wigington says, “Those two elements are used militarily as biological carrier platforms to carry a pathogen from the clouds to the ground to infect the population below. Why is that in our rain right now? Could they, at any point of their choosing, put something much more lethal into the precipitation and level the playing field? Certainly, they could.”

As these revelations continue to surface, the questions grow more pressing: What exactly is being released above our heads, and who is controlling it? If our skies have become a delivery system for undisclosed substances, the public deserves transparency, accountability and the truth.

AI, CERN and Quantum Tech: Is This the Prophetic Blueprint of the Coming Beast System?

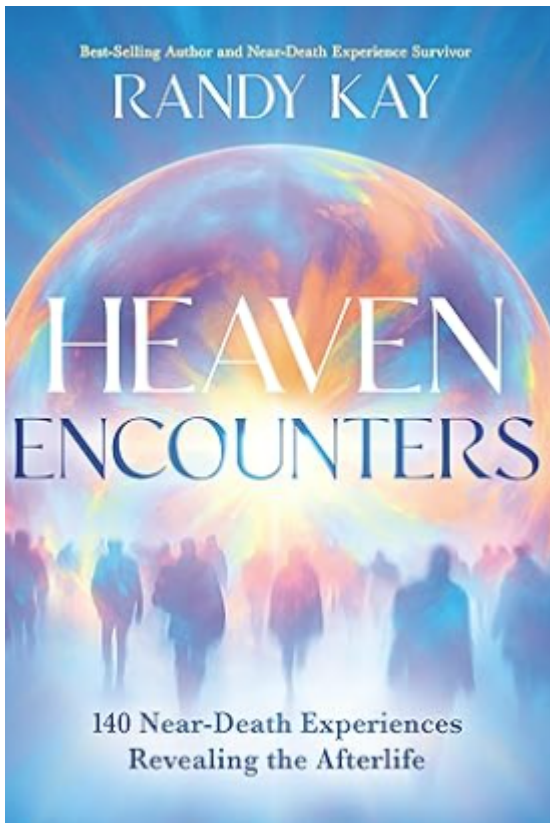

Prophetic voices are sounding an alarm over a convergence of technology and biblical prophecy that many believe could signal the rise of the end-times beast system. Randy Kay, a Christian prophetic teacher, warns that artificial intelligence, quantum computing, global surveillance and transhumanist technology are aligning in ways that echo the warnings of Revelation.

“Two thousand years ago, the apostle John received a vision of an image that could speak, think and enforce worship,” Kay explained in a recent teaching. “For centuries, scholars wondered how such an image could come to life. Today, they’re not wondering anymore.”

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

According to Randy Kay, Revelation 13:14-15, which speaks of the beast and the image of the beast, describes an entity given “breath,” the same word used when God breathed life into Adam. “The critical difference is that this isn’t biological life—it’s artificial animation,” he said. “It’s something manmade that appears to live, thinks and enforces allegiance. For two millennia, this prophecy seemed symbolic. Today, we call it artificial intelligence.”

To pre-order Randy Kay's new book, Heaven Encounters, visit Amazon.com.

Kay emphasized the rapid growth of AI technologies, including autonomous systems capable of decision-making, predictive neural networks and sophisticated computer vision. He said developers have admitted that the only barrier preventing AI from controlling global commerce is the financial infrastructure. “The image that speaks, check. The image that makes life-and-death decisions, check. The image that controls buying and selling... almost there,” he noted.

Beyond AI, Kay warned of technologies that could connect humans to dimensions beyond the physical. CERN, the European Organization for Nuclear Research, conducts high-energy particle collisions to study matter and antimatter. Still, some scientists have openly discussed the possibility of opening “portals” or exploring other dimensions. “Could CERN's experiments inadvertently be opening doors that God sealed for a reason?” he asked.

Quantum computing further complicates the picture. Unlike traditional binary computers, quantum machines operate in superposition, allowing them to process vast amounts of data simultaneously. Some executives in the field claim their systems can access information from other dimensions. Kay cautioned, "Combine quantum computing with AI, and you get a super-intelligent system operating according to logic that transcends human comprehension. This is not science fiction—this is being developed now."

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

The prophetic implications extend to global financial control and the mark of the beast. Revelation 13:16-17 states that no one will be able to buy or sell without the mark. Kay highlighted the rise of central bank digital currencies, biometric identification, social credit systems and neural interfaces as technologies that could enable such a system. "The infrastructure exists. Cash is freedom, and that's why it's being eliminated," he said. He pointed to real-world examples, such as bank account freezes during the trucker protests in Canada, as previews of what could come.

Kay also addressed the transhumanist movement, which seeks to merge humans with machines and transcend biological limits. "The lie is the same as in Eden: 'You will be like God,'" he said. "At what point are we no longer made in God's image? At what point does taking the mark become an unforgivable sin? It is not just about an action; it is a fundamental change of essence."

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Despite the warning, Kay emphasized hope for believers. "All of this—the AI, the quantum computers, the surveillance, the beast system—is temporary. It ends when Jesus Christ returns," he said. "The beast system will have its moment, but eternity belongs to God. Redemption is near for those who are watchful and faithful."

The signs of the end times are converging faster than ever, from Israel's rebirth to the unprecedented global deployment of surveillance, digital finance and advanced technology.

"The stage is set, the players are taking their positions and the King is coming," Kay concluded. "This is not speculation. This is reality. Time is shorter than we think."

The Alien Agenda: Are UFOs and Drones Preparing the World for End-Time Deception?

In a powerful clip by the Shawn Ryan Show, former Navy Chief and psychological operations (PsyOps) expert Chase Hughes shared his belief that much of what we see regarding the alien phenomenon today is part of psychological warfare.

"There's six needs... Hughes explains regarding psychological manipulation, "Those six needs are significance, acceptance and approval. And the final three are intelligence, pity and strength. So I know instantly just by understanding you on this needs map, I know where your fears and your insecurities are, better than probably your therapist that's been working with you for a year."

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

What sounds like a psychological tactic is actually revealing something more profound about the war for the human mind. Hughes explains that perception is everything—how someone sees the world determines what they believe, value and even how they identify themselves. This kind of understanding, he warns, can be used for both good and evil.

"A cult recruiter could use this as easily as a PsyOp doing it on an entire group of people." The term "PsyOp" refers to a psychological operation—something that can manipulate behavior on a mass scale.

Hughes draws attention to how quickly control can be established once perception is altered. "Every part of you goes away like one, two, three," he says.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

The conversation then shifts toward what may be one of the most powerful perception battles of all: the growing talk about UFOs and alien disclosure. "Let's bring up alien[s]. Is that a PsyOp?" Ryan asks.

"When the New Jersey drones were happening, that was insane," Hughes recalls. "And I put a video out on that and how we are in the middle of a PsyOp.”

Hughes warns that many of the so-called whistleblowers may not be revealing the truth but are merely repeating what they are told to say. “If you have someone that has talking points from the government, that’s a spokesperson, not a whistleblower,” he explains. “If I’m sitting here and I say, ‘Well, I can’t say this, but I can tell you this one thing’—that’s a controlled government release of information.”

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Hughes’ conclusion echoes a sobering biblical truth: deception isn’t just political—it’s spiritual. What we see unfolding in media, government narratives and the fascination with UFOs may be modern forms of an ancient battle for the human mind.

As Jesus warned, “See to it that no one deceives you” (Matt. 24:4). In a world where perception itself is being weaponized, the only proper defense is spiritual discernment and a mind renewed by the truth of God’s Word.

Trump, Syria and the Middle East: Revelation Signs Emerging in Real Time

A historic visit to the White House recently took place when Syrian President Ahmed al-Sharaa met with U.S. President Donald Trump. While the media highlights diplomacy and sanctions, prophecy watchers see more profound spiritual significance from this event.

In an Endtime Show broadcast, Doug Norvell and Vince Stegall pointed out that Trump's meeting with someone with dark ties, like al-Sharaa, signifies something much more prophetic than the world notices.

"[President Trump] went on Fox News later...saying that he believes that Syria is going to sign on to this peace plan, right? Is that believable? Is that something we should believe or not?" Stegall asked.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

"...the president of Syria himself said that he he wasn't going to rule it out that it will never happen, but at this moment he is not doing it," Norvell replied.

The meeting between Trump and al-Shahara also raises questions about prophetic timing. Trump expressed optimism about Syria's role in a coalition against ISIS, while the Syrian president left the door open for U.S.-mediated negotiations with Israel. The Golan Heights, captured by Israel in the Six-Day War of 1967, is at the center of this discussion.

Charisma videos & more!

Norvell explained more on this topic, stating:

Now the broader diplomatic developments of this is reports indicate that Israel and Syria could reach several security and military agreements before the end of this year. These talks reportedly mediated by the Trump administration could lead to the establishment of get this a US military base in Damascus. Okay? So Damascus should raise some some bells there because there's a very prophetic reason...

To order James Lasher's new book, The Revelation of Jesus, visit Amazon.com.

Control of this plateau is critical not just militarily, but prophetically, as Scripture repeatedly references the nations surrounding Israel in the last days. Norvell emphasized that events like Syria's engagement with Israel and discussions of U.S. military presence in Damascus are markers in the prophetic timeline.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Every diplomatic move, every decision regarding the Golan Heights, and every U.S.-Syria interaction may carry prophetic weight, signaling that the world is moving closer to the climactic events at the end of time. Believers are called to stay vigilant, pray earnestly and discern the signs of the times, understanding that Scripture is not just history—it is alive and unfolding before our eyes, pointing unmistakably to the imminent return of Jesus Christ.

Kathryn Krick: 3 Revelations on Walking in the Authority of the Holy Spirit

In a world that seems increasingly dark and self-centered, the call for the church is urgent: We must be vessels of honor for the Lord to prepare the bride for the return of Jesus. As Kathryn Krick shared in a powerful interview with Ryan Miller, the key to this preparation is humility, surrender and a willingness to receive God's power.

Jesus often hid His mysteries from the proud and revealed them to the humble and childlike. "The Pharisees have ears but cannot hear. They have eyes but they do not see," Krick explained. "Pharisees have pride. Disciples are humble and childlike."

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

"There's a difference between skepticism and discernment," Miller emphasized. "The pathway to discernment is to become childlike, and the Lord will give you spiritual eyes to see the counterfeits."

Part of growing in this spiritual sensitivity includes understanding the three major areas God uses for His miraculous purposes.

1. God Uses the Weak and the Unqualified

Feeling unqualified, unspiritual or inadequate is not a limitation—it's God's perfect starting point. "God uses the weak and foolish things," Krick said. "If you feel unqualified, you are in the perfect place to be. You are the most qualified by God because God can only use vessels who see themselves rightly: nothing without [Him]."

Even gifts that seem natural or talents that appear impressive are meaningless without surrender and anointing.

2. Preparing the Bride: Surrender and Action

The greatest preparation for Jesus' return is not passive anticipation—it is active surrender and faithful service. As Krick and Miller point out, the church must be ready not only in heart but in action.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

- Surrender Everything: Examine your life and yield all areas to God. Actual readiness comes when you let go of control and trust Him fully.
- Complete the Assignment: Be a vessel that demonstrates godly transformation, healing and salvation. God calls His people to be busy while there is time.
- Reject Judgment: Stop being judgmental toward others or toward God's new work. Accept revival, new ministries and the anointing on others with humility.

- Be a Light That Attracts: Love, not condemnation, draws people to Christ. When operating in God's power, the lost are drawn to Him, healed and set free.

As Jesus told His disciples, the question is not when He will return but whether His followers are ready to move in power and complete the work He has given them.

3. Meekness as Strength

Meekness in the end times is often misunderstood. It is not weakness; it is strength under submission. Miller explains:

The meek will inherit the earth...it's not meek as a mouse, but meek as a mustang. It's meek as a warhorse that will inherit the earth. He's looking for those who have fully lost the operating system that they were currently under...and said, "It's all Yours, Jesus."

Those who let go of strategy, self-reliance and pride become vessels of God's glory. Seasons of waiting, testing and refinement are preparing these believers for global impact.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

The Power of God for Today

Finally, Krick issued a prophetic blessing over all who would receive it: healing, freedom and empowerment. "God is pouring out His Spirit for those who humble themselves. You will be changed forever as His power comes upon you. You will walk in authority, cast out demons, heal the sick and lead others to Christ. Revival will move through you in your family, community, city and nation."

The end times are not just about waiting for Jesus—they are about preparing the bride through obedience, yielding and active engagement in God's kingdom. The question is simple: Will you surrender, receive His power and shine as a light in the darkness?

Pastor Exposes the Satanic Roots of '6-7' and Its Hidden Spiritual Agenda

Pastor Nathan Bentley of LifePoint Church in Arizona is sounding the alarm over a viral trend sweeping the nation known as "6-7," revealing what he calls its satanic roots and spiritual influence—especially over youth.

"I woke up and saw a video about a trend I had given no thought to," Bentley explained. "I said, 'Yeah, I looked on the internet. There's nothing wrong with that.' But when I saw it this morning, I realized it wasn't just a harmless meme. There is a spiritual side to this, and we need to pay attention."

@lifepointaz The 6-7 trend exposed #67 #sixseven #skrilla #sermon #exposed ↻ original sound – LifePoint Church AZ

He recounted his own morning routine before the revelation, when he saw a video that gave more context on the song and the singer, Skrilla, who started the “6-7” trend. “At first, I thought it was just a funny thing kids do. But what I found was something much deeper.”

Bentley explained how Skrilla has publicly admitted to membership in the Church of Satan. “He worships Oshun and Ogun and the gods,” the pastor said. “He sacrifices goats, chickens and mice depending on the ritual, all in pursuit of favor and success in Hollywood. Since committing fully, he says his career has taken off.”

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

The pastor described the content of Skrilla’s music as particularly concerning. “The song is only about two minutes long. It’s full of references to sex and drugs, but halfway through, he inserts the Baby Shark theme. Why would a hardcore persona, whose singing about things that are very mature, do that unless he wants to appeal to an audience?” he asked.

To order Jenny Weaver's new book, The Wicked World of Witchcraft, visit Amazon.com.

He also addressed skepticism from others who downplay the trend as harmless. "Some say, 'Pastor, you're over-obsessed. It's just where he's from, 6-7 is just his city.' Really? So, it has no connection to the god Ogun or the god Tamara who he says he worships?"

The pastor tied this trend to a broader cultural issue, calling out mainstream artists such as Beyoncé and Taylor Swift. "Beyoncé has said, 'When I take the stage, I take the form of Oshun, the goddess of fertility and sex,'" he explained. "Billie Eilish...The imagery is more demonic than anything you'll find in the Book of Satan. They've stopped even hiding it."

He challenged the Church to recognize the cultural deception while maintaining personal discernment: "I know that there is a spiritual realm and a spiritual world, then why would I even want to get close to the edge of it? Just stay away from it."

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Referencing the prophet Jeremiah, Bentley emphasized the importance of discernment and vigilance. "Jeremiah was telling the people, 'This worship is wrong. Going to this temple is wrong. Going to these gatherings and providing a financial offering is not honoring Yahweh. You're being lied to.'"

Trends like "6-7" may seem like innocent memes or viral songs, but they can subtly influence hearts and minds, especially those of children and young people. The call is clear: stay vigilant, protect your family and seek God's guidance, because the spiritual forces behind these cultural phenomena are real—and only by walking in awareness and faith can we safeguard our homes, our children and our own souls.

Jack Hibbs Issues Urgent Message: Is America on the Brink of a Spiritual Crisis?

Following the recent elections across the United States, Pastor Jack Hibbs is calling Christians to wake up and face a sobering reality: the nation's spiritual and political direction directly impacts believers. "As a believer, as a Christian, it's going to affect you directly," Hibbs said, warning that the church can no longer afford apathy.

Hibbs recalled the attacks of Sept. 11, 2001, noting how Islamic jihadists targeted the epicenters of American commerce, military power and government. "Well, not only have we not kept that [motto 'never forget'], we have actually intentionally forgotten," he stated, pointing to the election of New York's new mayor, a Muslim with socialist leanings. "Do you think for a moment if you know your Bible that that's a coincidence? In the Hebrew language, there is no word for coincidence. I think God's plan is unfolding upon a Christ-rejecting nation."

The pastor stressed the spiritual consequences of national sin, including abortion policies that were allowed under the Biden administration. “We have offended the God of heaven. America needs to repent of her sins. But will she?” Hibbs asked, pointing to biblical examples such as Nineveh and Noah, as reminders that God’s patience is not infinite.

“Could the United States be in the opening throes of judgment? I believe we are,” he warned. Hibbs emphasized that the attackers of 2001 are now advancing in influence, and Christians’ historical reluctance to engage in politics may have contributed to the nation’s current path. “For the church in America, we have sown apathy, and we are about to reap what we get. I pray that I’m wrong. I’m fearful that I am correct.”

Hibbs ultimately called believers to keep their focus on Christ. “Our politics is in heaven. Put your eyes on Christ. Focus on Him and get ready,” he said, urging the church to maintain faith, sustain their families spiritually, and prepare for whatever lies ahead.

No matter who we are—politician or everyday person—the truth remains the same: there is only one way to heaven, and that is through Jesus Christ. Scripture tells us plainly in John 14:6 that Jesus said, “I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.
