

Muslim-Christian Conflict in Nigeria Claims Thousands of Lives

Christian ministries are offering humanitarian assistance for the victims of what many believers say is a Muslim-led holy war

Christians Urged to Support Marriage Amendment

50 Million Christians Enlisted to Participate in Prayer Day for Israel

Organizers plan to hold a Day of Prayer for Jerusalem each October until the second coming of Christ

Transitional House in Indianapolis Helps Give Ex-Offenders a New Start

Jesus House director William Bumphus says Christians don't have to wait for grant funding to reach out to former prisoners

Pentecostal Leaders Support Formation of New Church Network

Organizers say they hope the new group will bridge the gap between liberal and conservative ministry organizations

Former Beauty Queen Uses Platform to Reach Children

Susan Cagna says her title as Mrs. U.S. Beauties opened doors for her to encourage and pray for sick children

Conversion reported in Iran

Both former Muslims, the pastors say new believers are risking their lives to tell others about Christ

Christian coffeehouse reaches German youth

Leaders say the Café-Bohne coffeehouse has become a surrogate church for many of the city's disaffected teens

C.S. Lewis' Chronicles of Narnia headed to the big screen

Produced by Walden Media and Walt Disney Studios, the film is scheduled to release in late 2005

Persecution Watch