

Partnership Aims to Reach Secular Audience With Christian Media

First on the list of upcoming projects is Gifted, a talent show patterned after Fox's popular program American Idol Inspirational Speaker

Christian coffeehouse reaches German youth

Leaders say the Café-Bohne coffeehouse has become a surrogate church for many of the city's disaffected teens

C.S. Lewis' Chronicles of Narnia headed to the big screen

Produced by Walden Media and Walt Disney Studios, the film is scheduled to release in late 2005

Persecution Watch

News Briefs

Sight and Sound

Christians Urged to Care for the Earth

'Creation care' advocates say protecting the environment is part of biblical stewardship

Christians Urged to Support Marriage Amendment

50 Million Christians Enlisted to Participate in Prayer Day for Israel

Organizers plan to hold a Day of Prayer for Jerusalem each October until the second coming of Christ

Transitional House in Indianapolis Helps Give Ex-Offenders a New Start

Jesus House director William Bumphus says Christians don't have to wait for grant funding to reach out to former prisoners