

Millions to Gather Across Africa for Day of Prayer and Repentance

The Africa Day of Prayer is expected to draw 15 million to 30 million participants from all 58 African nations and islands

Homeless Men in Israel Find Hope, Shelter in American Couple's Home

The Liebmanns moved to Jerusalem in 1999 and opened their home to men who had been living on the streets

Persecution Watch

Texas-Based Ministry Plants

Churches, Offers Relief in Mexico

Founded in 1982, Mexico Ministries runs two Bible schools, two medical clinics and a missionary training center

News Briefs

British Evangelist Treks Across United States Repenting for Slavery

Traveling by faith on a skimpy budget, Geoff Sadler has been visiting U.S. cities and seaports that were once part of the slave trade.

Sight and Sound

From a Distant Shore

Songwriter Darlene Zschech lives in Australia, but her music has revitalized worship in thousands of churches on this side of the planet.

Blessing Our Servicemen

Christians Aim to Stop Child Sex Trade

Faith-based groups in Cambodia and elsewhere are working to end sexual exploitation