

News Briefs

British Evangelist Treks Across United States Repenting for Slavery

Traveling by faith on a skimpy budget, Geoff Sadler has been visiting U.S. cities and seaports that were once part of the slave trade.

Sight and Sound

From a Distant Shore

Songwriter Darlene Zschech lives in Australia, but her music has revitalized worship in thousands of churches on this side of the planet.

Blessing Our Servicemen

Christians Aim to Stop Child Sex Trade

Faith-based groups in Cambodia and elsewhere are working to end sexual exploitation

President Bush addresses NAE

Chinese Missionary Nora Lam Dies

Christians in Pakistan Face Increased Threat of Attacks

Since Sept. 11, 2001, and the start of the war on terror, violence against believers has become more common

Tireless Christ for the Nations Co-Founder Celebrates 90th Birthday

Tireless Christ for the Nations Co-Founder Celebrates 90th Birthday