

Celebrated Author Builds Community and Character Through Bible Study

Pulitzer Prize nominee Clifton Taulbert hopes his 10-lesson curriculum will motivate people to engage in acts of kindness

African AIDS Orphans Find Shelter

Businessman Rob Smith is returning to his homeland to purchase farms that will provide homes for 400,000 children

“Conquering Hollywood” Tour

Industry veterans say equipping believers to work behind the scenes can bring change from the inside out

Prayer Tour Seeks to ‘Shift’

the Nation

Leaders Dutch Sheets and Chuck Pierce hope their 50-state initiative will spark widespread revival

Bible Teacher Issues “Call for Conversation” To Arafat

Christians Continue Israeli Tours Despite Middle East Violence

Thousands journeyed to the Holy Land last fall despite State Department warnings against traveling to the Middle East

Former USA Today Columnist Helps Addicted Women

Former USA Today columnist Barbara Reynolds is showing women how to break free of drug and alcohol dependency

Toronto Blessing Celebrates 10 Years

Leaders say the laughing has stopped, but the unique revival movement is still going strong

California Family's Home Spared During Wildfires

Teen Mothers Find Refuge at Faith-Based, Live-In Girls Home

Ohio pastor Darlene Bishop said the $1.5 million Home for Life is a response to a burden she has carried for 17 years