

Former USA Today Columnist Helps Addicted Women

Former USA Today columnist Barbara Reynolds is showing women how to break free of drug and alcohol dependency

Faith-Based Entertainment Venues Provide Safe Hangout Spots for Teens

Christian nightclubs are popping up in cities across the country, providing unique evangelism opportunities

Pentecostal Pastor Reaches Inuit People in Canada's Arctic Circle

Bill Prankard and his wife, Gwen, have seen thousands come to Christ through their preaching in the northern territories

Couple's Personal Tragedy Now Helps Others Who Struggle With Loss

Since the death of their 6-year-old daughter, Harry and Cheryl Salem have been helping people find healing from grief

Sight & Sound

A Channel for Love

The first step in prayer is clearing the channel, making it ready for God's love.

Celebrated Author Builds Community and Character Through Bible Study

Pulitzer Prize nominee Clifton Taulbert hopes his 10-lesson curriculum will motivate people to engage in acts of kindness

Exercise for the Soul

Our spiritual health is as important to our well-being as our physical health.

Sight and Sound

Toronto Blessing Celebrates 10 Years

Leaders say the laughing has stopped, but the unique revival movement is still going strong