

Minnesota Couple Turn Corporate Surplus Into Tool for Ministry

Through their Hope for the City ministry, Dennis and Megan Doyle will dole out millions of dollars in excess goods this year

Financial Dispute Forces Mongolian Christian TV Station to Shut Down

Eagle Television broadcast Christian evangelistic programs, news and The Flintstones before it went off the air in April

Former Football Pro Has Taken the Gospel Into Hundreds of U.S. Prisons

Bill Glass has seen some 35,000 inmates make decisions for Christ each year for the last decade at his outreach events

News Briefs

Sight and Sound

The Faith of George W. Bush

I personally believe Bush is the real deal in terms of his walk with Christ.

Take Care of Yourself

God made our bodies to produce health unless we interfere.

Christians Mobilized to Combat AIDS

President Bush and U2's Bono have helped inform Christians about the disease's spread in Africa

Dick Eastman's Mission Center

Beloved Latin American Evangelist Preaches On Despite Cancer Battle

The 82-year-old American missionary known as 'Hermano Pablo' has been ministering for more than 60 years