

Sight and Sound

Iraqi Christians Call for Prayer, Not War

Frightened and persecuted believers say removal of Saddam Hussein will not secure their future

Pensacola Revival Leaders Reconcile After Split

Modest Trucker Says God Used Him To Nab Northeast Sniper Suspects

By finding the alleged killers, a praying truck driver named Ron Lantz did what the best U.S. surveillance powers couldn't

Rhema Expels “Disobedient” Pastor For Protesting Abortion at Clinic

The Tulsa, Okla.-based ministry revoked Mark Holick’s ordination rather than risk lawsuits

Harlem Church, Born Out of Racism, Forgives Rejection 85 Years Later

Bethel Gospel Assembly reconciled in November with the white congregation that turned away its originators

Author: Music Legend Bob Dylan Still A Believer Despite ‘Restless’ Faith

Though Bob Dylan declined interviews for the book, Restless Pilgrim is an engaging defense of the songwriter’s spirituality

Revival in Ethiopia Rooted in Unique National Missionary Movement

Ethiopians are being trained to evangelize their own country amid a belief that they stand in the way of an Islamic takeover

Ex-Muslim Businessman Comes to Christ After Miraculous Healing

Nasir Siddiki prayed to Allah on his deathbed, but became a Christian after Jesus answered his prayer and healed him

'Queen of Las Vegas'

Entertainer, Lola Falana, Offers Hope to Orphans

The former showgirl and protégée of Frank Sinatra's is part of a relief agency that is helping African children