

Spirit-Filled Miss America Stands Firm on Abstinence Message

Pageant winner Erika Harold, a Pentecostal, says opposition to her stand won't stop her from speaking her mind

Christian Leaders Spar Over Iraq War

Prophetic leaders disagree on President Bush's resolve to remove President Saddam Hussein

Ted Roberts challenges men to deal with Sex Addictions

Native American Believers

Gather To Forgive 'White Man' of Injustices

Indian intercessors chose historic Plymouth Rock, Mass., as the site to repent of unforgiveness toward white Americans

Comfort and Cameron Make An Unlikely Preaching, Evangelism Team

A street preacher and a Hollywood actor combine to take the gospel outdoors to draw unbelievers to Christ

Tammy Faye Messner Finds New Role in Ministering to Gay Fans

To her Christian critics, the former TV host says the church should be a 'hospital,' not a 'courtroom'

Near-Fatal Jellyfish Attack Turns Kiwi Atheist Into Evangelist

“Heathen” Ian McCormack claims to have died after being attacked in the Indian Ocean and says God’s love sent him back

‘Ministry Time’ a High Spot in Christian Group’s Concerts

SonicFlood now prays with its fans after a band member was miraculously healed of incurable disease

Ugandan Capital’s Christian Life Church Reports Remarkable Growth

Jackson Senyonga’s congregation in Kampala has grown from seven people to 22,000 since 1995

News Briefs