

Does This Satellite Image Prove God Put His Name in Israel?

If you've spent any time exploring biblical prophecy, you know that Israel is always at the center of the action. But what if I told you that there's actual physical evidence—etched into the very landscape of the Holy Land—that God Himself placed His name there?

That's exactly what evangelist Perry Stone claims in a recent video, where he reveals a fascinating discovery: a satellite image showing Hebrew letters formed naturally by the shadows of Israel's mountain ranges.

The image, which was taken over 20 years ago, appears to display the name of God, hidden in plain sight.

A Stunning Discovery in the Mountains of Israel

Stone recounts how he came across this remarkable image. While at a shop in Israel, he and his guide, Gideon Shore, examined a satellite picture of the nation.

"My guide Gideon, who is Hebrew, he says, 'Perry, this is amazing,'" Stone recalls. When Gideon studied the image closely, he saw that the shadows of the mountains actually formed recognizable Hebrew letters. "When he looked at it, he gave me the letters, he interpreted it, and he was stunned."

The letters, Stone explains, spell out a profound biblical message. They include "Yah" (a shortened form of Yahweh), along with the name “Ephraim.” In Hebrew, Ephraim means “fruitful,” and Stone connects this to Jacob’s dream at Bethel, where he saw a ladder reaching into heaven and declared, “This is the gate of heaven.”

Most people think of witchcraft and the occult as fringe issues, something out of a Hollywood horror movie, not a real threat.

But what if I told you that millions of people, including churchgoers, have unknowingly invited darkness into their lives?

In his classic sermon “Laying the Ax to the Root,” Derek Prince exposes how seemingly harmless activities, like fortune-telling or even casual curiosity about the occult, can open dangerous spiritual doors. His message isn’t just about warning people; it’s about showing them the path to freedom through Christ.

Prince shares a powerful story of a woman who had no idea that a fortune-teller’s words had shaped her destiny. Only when she renounced this hidden spiritual bondage did she experience true deliverance—and even a miraculous turnaround in her life.

End of Damascus? Israel's Biggest Attack in Months Sparks Prophetic Speculation

The Middle East is once again heating up, and this time, Israel is making it clear that it won't sit idly by while threats gather at its doorstep. In the most significant airstrikes in Syria in over two months, the Israel Defense Forces launched dozens of attacks on military targets linked to the regime of Syria's interim president, Ahmad al-Sharaa.

The reason? Israel sees the new Syrian leadership as a growing danger, especially given its ties to radical groups like Hamas and Palestinian Islamic Jihad. If these terrorists gain a foothold near Israel's northern border, it could lead to a surge in attacks against Israeli communities in the Golan Heights and Upper Galilee. And let's not forget Turkey's looming involvement—there's real concern that it could start backing jihadist forces in Syria, further destabilizing the region.

It's not just about preventing immediate attacks. This is about shaping the battlefield before the enemy gets too strong. Israel has long had a policy of preemptive strikes when it senses a credible threat. With abandoned Syrian military bases loaded with weapons and terrorists being released from prison, the writing is on the wall. Israel isn't waiting for trouble to come knocking—it's taking action now.

Is Damascus on the Brink?

For those who follow biblical prophecy, this escalating conflict is more than just geopolitics—it could be a preview of what's to come. Isaiah 17:1 famously prophesies, "Behold, Damascus will cease to be a city and will become a heap of ruins." Could the rising tensions in Syria be leading to this ultimate fulfillment?

While Damascus has been war-torn for years, Israel's increasing military actions, the presence of jihadist forces, and the ongoing power struggle make the city more vulnerable than ever. If the chaos continues, it's not hard to imagine a scenario where Damascus faces total destruction—whether through war, terrorism or internal collapse.

As we watch these events unfold, one thing is clear: the stage is being set for significant prophetic developments. Whether this is the final fulfillment or another step in that direction, we should be paying attention. The Bible's predictions about the fate of nations have never missed the mark before—why would they start now?

Joel Rosenberg Connects the Dots: End Times Turmoil and Biblical Prophecies

Could President Trump's latest proposal for Gaza be setting the stage for ancient biblical prophecy to unfold? That's the question best-selling author and Middle East analyst Joel Rosenberg is asking after Trump made waves with his bold vision for the war-torn region.

At a recent event, Trump declared, "I do see a long-term ownership position, and I see it bringing great stability to that part of the Middle East and maybe the entire Middle East." He went even further, saying, "The United States is going to own Gaza and rebuild it and make it beautiful."

The idea is stunning—both in its ambition and in the shockwaves it sent through the political and diplomatic world. Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu never asked for such a plan, and even members of Trump's team were reportedly caught off guard. But Rosenberg sees something even bigger at play—something with prophetic significance.

It's no secret that global elites are tightening their grip on society. Whether it's censorship, government overreach or economic manipulation, we're seeing an orchestrated effort to reshape the world as we know it. But what if this isn't just political maneuvering?

What if, as Curt Reed argues in a recent episode of "Through The Lens," these developments are laying the groundwork for the final Antichrist?

Reed warns, "We are seeing right now the setup of the infrastructure of the final Antichrist." He believes the tools being developed today will be weaponized in ways most people can't even fathom. Let's break down the five major ways the Deep State is paving the way for global control.

1. Censorship Is a Government Operation

According to Reed, the so-called "censorship industrial complex" is not just a Silicon Valley initiative—it's a Deep State operation. "A key figure, Renee DiResta, was the research director of the Stanford Internet Observatory... but what about her past? She previously worked for the CIA and is a member of the influential Council on Foreign Relations."

He continues, "Organizations that are deciding what is deemed misinformation... are often run by former CIA agents. Wow. Think about that." If that doesn't raise alarms about who is controlling what we can and cannot say, what will?

2. Election Manipulation Is No Conspiracy Theory

Reed highlights a shocking revelation about how intelligence agencies influence elections. "In 2018, Dr. DiResta organized a false flag online operation that influenced an Alabama Senate race. The CIA has been doing this across the world for a long time—why would we ever think for a moment that they wouldn't be doing it here in America?"

And it doesn't stop there. He quotes Klaus Schwab, founder of the World Economic Forum, who once said, "You do not even have to have elections anymore because you can already predict the outcome." Reed argues, "Not only are they attempting to know what the result will be... they are trying to control what the result will be."

3. AI and Quantum Computing Will Be Used to Enforce Control

The rise of artificial intelligence isn't just about convenience. Reed believes it will be a key tool of the Antichrist. "The Antichrist isn't going to come on the scene and say, 'Yeah, no, I'm not interested in utilizing and weaponizing technology against the people.' Of course, he's going to utilize those things."

He warns that AI, predictive analytics and advanced computing will be used to monitor, manipulate, and ultimately control people. "The world is going to have technologies that will give him that ultimate power... a global one-world leader, dictator kind of thing."

4. The Deep State is Indoctrinating Children

The agenda isn't just about controlling adults—it's about shaping the next generation. Reed warns, "The Deep State is using AI to brainwash children... don't trust your parents, don't trust your youth pastor, don't trust your church—trust us.”

He explains how AI is being positioned to replace human teachers, effectively putting the government in charge of education. “The goal is to turn children away from truth, away from family, away from faith and into the arms of a system that controls them.”

5. Governments Are Engineering Crisis After Crisis

Reed lays out a chilling pattern: governments create crises, then use them to grab more power.

“We’ve seen the government manufacture health crises, economic instability, and even environmental disasters. The national debt is $34 trillion—it’s a house of cards ready to collapse.”

Reed reminds us of one crucial truth: “My hope is not in Washington, not in science, not in the Supreme Court... My hope is in Jesus Christ.”

Jonathan Cahn's Shocking Revelation on Prophecy Unfolding

Eric Metaxas' interview with New York Times best-selling author Jonathan Cahn was nothing short of jaw-dropping. If you've followed Cahn's work, you know he uncovers biblical patterns that echo in modern events. In his latest book, "The Dragon's Prophecy," he may have outdone himself.

Cahn opened the interview with a revelation that sent chills down the spine: "One of the mysteries here is... I was actually sharing at the congregation in Beth Israel... on a Friday night, and I was led to share about a mystery from the Bible." That mystery? A biblical pattern pointing to an attack on Israel in 2023, in October, on a Sabbath, and on a Hebrew holy day.

"And the next morning it happened."

The night before Hamas' surprise assault on Israel, Cahn was unknowingly describing its exact timing. "This is one of the mysteries of the book... that God is in charge, and it may even enable us to know a number of events to come."

Cahn's book explores Jubilee Mysteries, pointing out that every 50 years, major shifts occur in Israel's history.

End times expert Pastor Paul Begley is back with a powerful and urgent message about the prophetic significance of the upcoming blood moon, which coincides with Purim, the Ides of March and the ongoing turmoil in the Middle East.

In this riveting broadcast, he explores how this rare celestial event could be a warning to the West, particularly America, while also signifying a pivotal moment for Israel. With tensions high between Israel and its adversaries, Begley connects this blood moon to biblical prophecy and modern-day rabbinical insights, emphasizing its potential as a sign of war and spiritual awakening.

According to Pastor Begley, this is just the first of three significant blood moons appearing over the next year, marking what he believes could be one of the most prophetic periods in modern history. He dives into the historical and biblical connections, referencing the story of Purim—when Queen Esther’s bravery saved the Jewish people from destruction.

Biblical Giants in North America? Exploring the Mystery of the Nephilim

Economic turmoil is gripping the world, and according to Pastor Mark Henry, this is no accident. In a recent interview with Prophecy Watchers, Henry laid out a biblical perspective on inflation and how God is using it to shape the end times.

“Everyone that goes to the store is shocked,” Henry remarked. “The other day, my wife sent me to pick up some eggs, and I was shocked. I mean, they’re like $29 now for 60 eggs. It’s like they must be gold-plated or something now.”

Henry points to a broader, more intentional agenda behind rising prices.

“We have talked a lot about that—how we’ve printed money and that creates inflation, and how the globalists have worked with great intention to bankrupt the country so they can move to a global currency,” he explained. “Now, praise God, President Trump is putting a lot of brakes on that, but it’s not the end yet.”

A Divine Window of Opportunity

While many are worried about financial collapse, Henry believes this is a time of divine grace. “God’s given us this measure of space,” he said. “He’s given us an opportunity, and the question is: how do we seize this opportunity?"

He encourages believers to follow biblical principles of financial stewardship. "What does Proverbs tell us? It says that a wise person makes a plan. 'The plans of the diligent lead surely to an advantage, but everyone who is hasty comes surely to poverty.' That's a principle in the Bible that transcends all dispensations."

Henry urges Christians to take this grace period seriously.

"The Bible gives a lot of instruction. When people were asking, 'What do I do with my finances?' a lot of times I would just sit there and go, 'You're such a mess, you're just going to have to hold on and pray for extra grace to make it through this collapse.' But now, God has given us possibly four years or possibly eight years of a measure of grace."

Preparing for What's Ahead

Henry sees parallels between today's economic challenges and biblical history.

"I think Joseph had that same experience," he noted. "Remember, there was a prophetic word given to Pharaoh—there's going to be seven years of plenty and then seven years of famine. We know from the book of Revelation what's going to happen during the times of the Antichrist—it's going to be devastating."

While the future remains uncertain, Henry stresses the need for preparation. "Some people will say this is not acting by faith—that you shouldn't prepare for the future. But God has told us that lazy people will be poor, that those who don't have a plan will be poor."
