

The Lord Will Make a Way When There Seems to Be No Way

God is about to give many believers assignments and instructions that will look absolutely impossible in the natural. I'm talking about situations and circumstances that are so impossible that unless God makes a way, there will be no way. We see over and over again in Scripture that what is impossible for man is not impossible for God. In Luke 18:27, Jesus says, "What is impossible with men is possible with God."

If the Lord gives you an impossible assignment, you must not try to accomplish it without Him—because you can't! What the Lord will call you to do will be totally unfeasible without His help. When we are faced with impossibility, we can learn how to depend on God, and our faith is stretched and grown. As impossibility comes your way, don't be discouraged or feel hopeless. Instead, in great faith, say "yes" to every impossible thing God calls you to.

We cannot look and think in the natural if we want to make the impossible possible. Instead, every believer must have the mind of Christ and walk by faith, not by sight. Your natural thinking can keep you from doing the impossible things God is calling you to accomplish. Fight with the Word of God, and stand on the truth, trusting that God will come through and make the impossible possible. You were made to do the impossible! Don't be intimidated or overwhelmed. Step out in faith and know that whatever God has called you to do, He can do! There is nothing impossible with God!

Prophetic Word: The Lord Says, 'This Is Not What Is Really Happening'

Several days ago, as I woke up early one morning, the Lord spoke to me and said, "This is not what is happening." I got up and began to pray, as I do every morning, and sought the Lord about what exactly this word meant. Then, I started to get a download of revelation from the Lord about this season.

I believe many are discouraged and confused by what they see going on in the natural in this hour. I have encountered many people who are gripped by fear because of different world events that have taken place. I believe when the Lord spoke this to me, He was bringing clarity not just to me but wanted to bring clarity to the whole body of Christ.

Everything that we are seeing right now in the natural realm is not really what is happening according to the Lord. If you are looking in the natural and becoming confused or afraid, know that this is not what is happening from God's perspective. No matter what goes on in the natural realm, God's kingdom is still advancing and reigning above it all!

Who is in power in the earth and those in charge of enforcing and creating laws? The natural state of things in the physical realm does not matter as much as the kingdom of God. The political systems of this world will always be of this world.

However, the kingdom of God will always be supreme and will have the final word! God is still using His people to bring His kingdom to earth, and now is not the time for us to become distracted by what may seem to be happening in the earthly realm. This is a time for the true sons and daughters of God to war in prayer, declare the Word of God and manifest the kingdom here on earth as it is in heaven.

Do not shrink back in fear in this season! Advance forward in faith, knowing that God's plans are still going to come to pass. There is nothing that can stop the kingdom of God from invading the earth as we partner with heaven.

Do not look at any situation or circumstance with your natural eyes. Get into the place of prayer and intercession and see from a heavenly perspective. This is more important now for us as believers than ever before. We must use our God-given authority in this season to see heaven invade the earth.

I still believe we are on the verge of one of the most powerful moves of God anyone has ever seen before. Revival and awakening are coming! God is about to pour out His Spirit, and we will see reformation come to the church.

Don't be discouraged or distracted by what appears to be going on. Instead, keep moving forward with God, and keep leaning in to hear what He is saying. If what you are seeing in the natural looks like chaos and calamity is imminent, know that this is not what is happening!

We are about to see the greatest days of the church! {eoa}

Do Your Life Choices Invite God's Favor—Or Waste It?

The favor of God is not a one-time event, it is meant to be a lifestyle you walk in. We all want to walk in anointing and favor, and God wants to pour out His relentless favor over the life of every believer. But how many of us are willing to live and think in such a way that God can pour out His favor in our lives? When God places His favor upon you, it is because He loves you. The favor of God is not something we can earn, but unfortunately, it is something we can waste. We must each properly position ourselves so that when God's favor comes upon our lives, we can flow with it instead of wasting or squandering it.

When God blesses you with relentless favor, it is not just about you; it is also for others! God places His favor upon us to make each of us an illustration of how His power and favor can transform a person's life. When God begins to use you as an illustration of His goodness and power, you will become proof that God is who He says He is! To be used as an illustration means to be made an example in order to clarify or prove something. God is about to make His sons and daughters illustrations of His relentless favor, blessing and increase.

Catch the Wave of Anointing the Lord Has for You

There are waves of anointing coming to crash over the true sons and daughters of God. In order to experience these waves of anointing, we must properly position ourselves. Just like a surfer must position himself strategically to catch the wave at the perfect time, we also must be perfectly positioned to ride these waves of God's anointing. The waves of anointing will elevate you and position you where you need to be when you need to be there.

Many have been faithful and steadfast for many seasons and even for many years. Many have been consistent and committed to the things of the Lord and in prayer without yet seeing any results or answers. Some may have been fasting and praying for the same things for many years. Get ready, because if this is you, God is about to hit you with waves of His anointing!

Go deep into the things of God. Stay in prayer, create a lifestyle of fasting and get in the Word. The more that you consecrate yourself, the more your anointing will grow. We must properly position and prepare ourselves with intention to steward the anointing God will give to each of us. Those who receive it are those who have been found set apart and committed for a long time. Expect waves of anointing to overtake you!

To be encouraged and equipped, tune in for more by listening to Season 2, Episode 3 of The Kingdom Mindset Podcast with Joe Joe Dawson called Waves of Anointing. {eoa}

Prophetic Dream: Brace Yourself, an Earthquake Is Coming

I recently had a very powerful prophetic dream. In the dream, I saw millions of angels standing shoulder to shoulder. It was almost like they were standing at attention waiting for a command.

Then the dream shifted, and I was in an apartment that looked like it was out of the 1980s. I was looking at a collection of pictures hanging on one of the walls when the Lord spoke to me in the dream and said, "Brace yourself: There is an earthquake coming."

The Earthquake

Then suddenly, everything began to shake. The earthquake began, and as everything was shaking, some magazines fell off of a table in another room, and several pictures fell off of the wall. The pictures that fell off of the wall looked like pictures of grandparents, and as they fell, the glass from the frames shattered on the ground. But, there was a picture on the wall that I knew was of a family. All of the people in the picture were very diverse and were from different races and different walks of life. This picture did not fall off of the wall during the earthquake.

When the earthquake stopped, I walked over to a window in the dream and could obviously see the effects of the earthquake. There were many people out in the streets below, gathering their loved ones. The buildings and streets were also damaged, and there was a real sense of chaos in the air. Then the dream shifted again, and I saw the millions of angels from the beginning of the dream coming down quickly and wildly. I knew in the dream that they were bringing something to the earth after the shaking but did not know what it was. Then I woke up from the dream.

As I prayed into this dream, the Lord spoke to me very clearly again and said, "There is a shaking coming, like an earthquake, but everything is going to be OK."

I believe this dream was a prophetic picture of what has been happening and what will happen in the earth in this hour. I do not believe God is sending a literal earthquake. I do, however, believe that there is a shaking coming. This shaking will cause a disruption in the earth like an earthquake would naturally. I believe many will be tempted to give in to the chaos, fear and uncertainty that the shaking may bring to those who are not hearing from heaven. However, the true sons and daughters of God have no reason to be afraid. This shaking is coming to get rid of anything that is not from God.

I do not believe this was a political dream, but I do think the shaking that is coming will affect the political landscape. But I also think the shaking will affect every area of society and culture, especially the church.

I believe the magazines that fell off of the table in the dream represented the media that has pushed its own agenda for many years. God will discredit the false media in the world when the shaking comes, and the truth will be known.

I believe the pictures of the grandparents that fell off of the wall and shattered represented old systems and old ways of thinking God will shatter when the shaking comes.

I also believe that the picture of the diverse family represented what God desires for His church to look like. God is establishing a real kingdom family with people from all ethnicities and walks of life to work together as a family to see the kingdom of God advance.

God's plans for His church will not be destroyed in the shaking; instead, those plans will be established and moved forward by the shaking!

The key part of this dream was at the end, when the millions of angels were released and began to administer whatever they were carrying to the earth. I believe the shaking must come forth before these angels can be released. This dream was to show us that the shaking must come first before God can begin to do something new and powerful in the earth in the upcoming season.

So, do not be afraid! This shaking will shake everything that can be shaken. It will take out every wrong agenda and make way for what God wants to do. There is a shaking coming, but what God will release in the earth afterward will be like nothing we've ever seen before. Get ready!

Make This Vital Choice to Increase Your Spiritual Growth

Now more than ever, it is vital to every believer to lean in to hear what God is saying. In this season, you will not be able to accomplish the assignments God has for you if you do not come out of confusion and step into the clarity that the voice of God brings.

Where the Lord wants to take you, you will have to live a life above the chaos and confusion of the world. Learn to lean in and be guided by the Holy Spirit. Only then will we each be able to find ourselves in a place of clarity where others' opinions no longer matter. Everyone will have an opinion about everything you do or don't do. They will have an opinion about what you say or don't say. The sad thing is many people waste their lives giving their opinions about what everyone else is doing, but they aren't doing anything.

This is why it is so important that we learn to turn away from confusion and tune out the chaos. Do not worry about the endless chatter that is happening all around you. Instead give all of your attention, effort and energy to the voice of God. Lean in to hear heaven's instructions and run after everything God has called you to do in spite of the confusion of the world.

Prophetic Word: Believers, Get Ready for a Roller Coaster Year in 2021

2021 will be a rollercoaster year for many people—in the best way! I believe that God will accelerate and surprise many in 2021.

Many will experience dramatic changes along the way, so hold on. What God has in store for you in 2021 will be like a rollercoaster full of the extreme favor and blessings of God. This new year will be one of the most incredible years for the sons and daughters of God, but we must stay properly positioned in order to succeed.

In 2021, you can't make the same choices and expect new or different results. Romans 8:15 (TPT) says, "And you did not receive the 'spirit of religious duty,' leading you back into the fear of never being good enough. But you have received the 'Spirit of full acceptance,' enfolding you into the family of God. And you will never feel orphaned, for as he rises up within us, our spirits join him in saying the words of tender affection, 'Beloved Father!'"

The true sons and daughters of God who seek His kingdom first will have the right to walk in full kingdom favor, anointing and blessings in 2021!

In This New Year, God Wants Us to Take Action

If you asked any believer if they want to reach their God-given destiny, I'm sure they would each say yes! However, I've seen many people sit idle while "waiting for God" to drop something into their lap. God's able to do anything. There is nothing that is impossible for God. However, God wants for each of us to take action and co-labor with Him to see His will for our lives accomplished and His kingdom advanced.

If God's design was to do everything on His own, without our participation, then He wouldn't have created us. God's purpose for every person is to partner with Him to see heaven come to earth.

The dreams and prophetic words God gives to each of us are not automatic. We must steward the prophecies He has given us and partner with Him to see them manifested. There is always a process that will lead to the promise. That process will always require action.

We are not waiting on God; God is waiting on us! God can do anything, but He will not do everything. To reach the fullness of our purpose and destiny, we must depend on God, but we also must move and act. God is looking for those who want to step out in faith and put in the work.

Pursue This Quality to Become the One God Strongly Supports

As we grow and develop our mindset, we are also developing our character and integrity. A kingdom-minded person is not concerned with being the most talented or the most gifted. Instead, those who think with a kingdom mindset are almost always those with great character and integrity. A man or woman of integrity and great character thinks differently than someone who is simply gifted. One of the byproducts of having character and integrity is faithfulness.

Those who are naturally gifted or talented can at first seem to have the upper hand. Gifts and talents can make a person seem important or special. However, faithfulness will always eventually trump talent or gifting. One trustworthy person will be more valuable to any ministry or organization than a dozen extremely gifted people. Time will always reveal the true differences between faithfulness and gifting.

Unfortunately, those with only talents and gifts are often unreliable and unpredictable. A faithful person with true integrity can be counted on. God is unimpressed by your gifting because He is the one who gave it to you. Whenever God is looking for someone to use to accomplish His will in the earth, He does not look for the most talented person or the one with the best personality or gift. Instead, God is first looking for faithfulness and loyalty. 2 Chronicles 16:9a (NASB) says, "For the eyes of the Lord roam throughout the earth, so that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His."

A wise man once said, "If you can be anything, be counted on." In my many years of ministry, I have encountered hundreds of very gifted and greatly talented people. However, I've only known and run with a few truly faithful men and women of God. There is a clear difference between faithfulness and gifting. If you can only be one of them, choose to be a faithful person with character and integrity!

Prophetic Vision: Portals Will Open and the Kingdom Will Invade the Earth

The Lord recently began to speak to me about open portals. I believe many are going to experience open portals from heaven here on the earth.

When there is an open portal, heaven opens up in a unique way over a specific place or individual. In an open portal, you are able to hear from God with clarity and accuracy. There is an easy flow of the prophetic for yourself and for groups of people in an open portal. When we experience His power and anointing in a special way, we are most likely experiencing an open portal from heaven.

Some time ago, the Lord gave me a prophetic vision of a multitude of angels pouring out a flask of oil over different revival hubs and kingdom ministries. I believe this was a picture of the open portals that are here and the ones God is opening over His people.

There will be portals opened over key regions and geographical locations to see the kingdom of God invade the earth through the people of God. I believe we are about to enter into one of the most powerful seasons in the body of Christ both in America and in the nations of the world.

In the prayer Jesus prays that we know as "The Lord's Prayer," Jesus says, "Let Your kingdom come, let Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." Jesus isn't talking about an earthly kingdom here. He is talking about the kingdom of God being fully manifested in the earth.

I believe this is why God is opening portals in this season over many people and places. God is about to advance His kingdom on the earth like never before. I believe under these open portals heaven will come to earth, and many individuals and corporate bodies will experience revival, awakening and outpourings of the Spirit of God. Get ready for God to do miraculous things in this upcoming season as the heavens open over the body of Christ.

When we encounter these open portals, we will receive downloads from heaven like never before. We will hear numerous prophetic words and receive key insight and revelation that we need in order to move forward and advance.

If you have been hungry to see God move in your life and in your city, region or nation, get ready because open portals are in your future. {eoa}
