

Deliverance Minister: Command Your Prophetic Words to Manifest

Three years ago, I had most of my prophetic words come to pass. I prayed and sought the Lord and asked Him to release more prophetic words into my life so I could expand His kingdom further and glorify the name of Jesus in a more significant way.

In the Bible, it says, "For we know in part, and we prophesy in part" (1 Cor. 13:9). Prophecy is in part. The first part is delivered by the prophetic person releasing the word. The second part is us co-laboring with the Holy Spirit through prayer to receive an understanding of the word and to command it to manifest in the natural.

If we receive a prophetic word that we are going to come into wealth, we can't simply sit around and wait for a million dollars to drop in our living room or someone to write us a big check. We need to seek the Holy Spirit in prayer and ask for creative ideas, business strategies and things to invent. Our wealth is often going to come by us seeking the Lord for instructions on how to receive the financial blessing He desires us to have.

Warfare starts when the prophetic word is spoken. It has just been released into the spiritual atmosphere, and the adversary and his cohorts will try and wage war against the prophetic word released in your life. Therefore, we need to decree and declare against the warfare and take authority over attacks against the word coming forth. We must take the word by force! "The kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force" (Matt. 11:12b, NKJV). The Modern English Version says, "The kingdom of heaven has forcefully advanced, and the strong take it by force.” We have to be strong and take what we desire by force, through prayer, declarations and our authority in Jesus Christ.

Jesus and the Father both took authority over things and spoke to create (See my book, Speak Out). We need to pray audibly and speak out words into existence. Jesus gave us authority, and we need to take that authority by praying audibly and speaking forth our prophetic words to manifestation. We can't sit idly by and expect them to manifest supernaturally, although I do believe that can happen.

Manifesting Your Prophetic Words

I manifested my prophetic words by keeping them in front of me and putting a demand on them:

- Type up your prophetic words. Visit them regularly or as the Holy Spirit leads.
- Attach a written declaration to each line. Take the prophetic word and for each segment write a two- or three-line declaration calling it forth. Be specific! If you have a prophecy that a worship leader is coming to your church; do you want a worship leader, or do you want a Spirit-filled, anointed worship leader who is going to be on time, lead with excellence and exude love?
- Decree and declare over your words out loud.
- Bind and restrict the enemy from coming to steal, kill and destroy (John 10:10).

Knowing your authority in Christ and praying audibly are instrumental in manifesting your prophetic words. You can learn more about authority and your identity in my course, “Purpose and Destiny,” at .

The Holy Spirit doesn't use people to release prophetic words to us to not have them come to pass. He doesn't desire to give us false hope. He doesn't want us discouraged. He gives us those words to keep us in a place of perseverance and determination while waiting for the words to manifest. I believe many prophetic words are sitting idle because the body of Christ is stagnant in calling them forth. We have a part to play in manifesting our prophetic words. The world needs your prophecies to manifest, and the ministry the Lord is calling you to, to go forth. We need all of our prophecies manifesting together to reach this world for Jesus Christ. Get up! Get active! Call those words forth!

Prophetic Word: The Lord Says, 'It is Now Everyone's Opportunity to Become Fearless'

Fear is one of the enemy's most effective tools, and fear has had a grip on the world since the COVID-19 pandemic began more than two years ago. Fear attacks in many areas of our lives and, for some of us, haunts us daily.

The Lord showed me the principalities over the earth and revealed their operation two years ago when COVID started to manifest. The best way to fight this spiritual warfare battle is by rooting out fear. Charisma Media partnered with me to produce a free e-course to help people conquer fear.

It is so important that we left it available, and you can still get it here for free.

I was in worship recently when the Lord said, "It is now everyone's opportunity to become fearless." He revealed that we have gone through an intensified trial and a time of fear running rampant through the earth and our minds.

He was telling me we have an opportunity to be fearless. I continued to receive revelation from the Lord that we are in a lull, defined as "a temporary interval of quiet or lack of activity." We need to get fearless before the next warfare attack.

As I was in worship, the Lord revealed we are in a lull; the warfare has let up some, and COVID has subsided from the intensity we once experienced. There will be more battles and challenges with which we are confronted. We are in the end times, and wars, plagues and other unfamiliar events will occur. While not in the intense battle, we now have a chance to press through to our breakthrough. As we push through, we can root out fear.

I remember years ago the Spirit of the Lord telling me, "Kathy, something will happen on earth and everyone is going to be in fear. I need you to root out all fear so you can be in faith when everyone else is in fear." I believe I've seen this manifestation, but I also believe there is more to this word that the Lord gave me that we are going to experience.

While I was worshipping, I also heard the word breakthrough. At that instance I felt an anointing for deliverance in the spiritual and physical realms. It piqued my attention as my senses were quickened and I felt the spiritual shift and momentum for breakthrough. The Lord said, "People will receive breakthrough in things they have been trying to receive breakthrough in for a long time. Areas where they have never before experienced the freedom they desired; this will be their liberation moment."

We have a brief opportunity to press in like never before. I think we are living in the greatest times of history. Father God has chosen us to live in this very crucial hour.

I believe it is a privilege to be part of a company of prophetic people ushering in end-time revival and the coming of the Lord. We are living out the very prophecy of the Bible. We need to be ready! We need to evict fear from our lives and trust the Lord deeply. We truly need to become fearless.

We have been given a short reprieve. How will we spend our time of rest and renewal – fearing the next event and end-times prophecy, or getting equipped and armed for battle by becoming fearless? {eoa}

How Praying in Tongues Can Release Your Prophetic Words

I remember when I first started to pray in tongues. I had longed for that gift of prayer.

One day, as I received the baptism of the Holy Spirit, my prayer language instantly manifested. "And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to speak" (Acts 2:4, MEV).

I have heard recently from the Lord to make it a priority and primary focus to be praying in tongues. There is an urgency to pray in tongues and release our heavenly prayer language.

Why is it important to pray in tongues? What are the benefits? The Lord is showing me in this season that as we pray in tongues, our destiny will come forth.

Praying in tongues releases our prophetic destiny. We have an entire prayer language stocked up inside of us, waiting to be prayed out and released. When we pray in the Spirit, we are releasing the perfect will of the Father. Our flesh isn't involved in what we are praying. We are connecting our spirit to His Spirit to release the manifestation of the kingdom for our lives.

Often, we don't know how to pray effectively and purely for what we need to happen. By praying in tongues – or as some call it, praying in the Spirit – we are yielding our control, will and fleshly tendencies to the Lord. We are submitting to the very will of God for our lives. We have been given our own will, and we can make our own decisions, but it is more beneficial to live a life of submission to the will of the Father.

When you are praying in tongues, take the insights the Holy Spirit reveals to you in those moments to then transition your prayer time to audible praying through declarative prayer. We are not meant to just pray in tongues but to have a balance between praying in the Spirit and praying in our native language.

It is in the times of praying in tongues that we can shut our minds down with our agendas and analytical thoughts and allow the Spirit of the Lord to speak to us about what should be prayed and how. It is us co-laboring with the Holy Spirit that will make our prayer time useful and effective (Rom. 8:26).

I've been feeling in the spiritual realm that we are in a season of releasing our destinies. I have been conversing with people around the world, and numerous believers are feeling an unction in their spirits to be praying in tongues. There is a sense of urgency, and the Holy Spirit is instructing people to increase in their prayer language, to be spending more time praying in the Spirit. The Lord has been revealing to me that by praying in the Spirit, our destinies will release.

However, you can't pray in the Spirit without the Holy Spirit's fullness on the inside of you. If you are one of the many Christians desiring to pray in the Spirit but your prayer language hasn't come forth, I encourage you to stop right now and stretch out your hands. Speak out audibly and invite the Holy Spirit to come upon you.

I teach more about this in my book Baptism of Fire and Power: Gifts and Language of the Holy Spirit. God is not a legalist. There aren't right or wrong words to speak out. However, you could speak out something similar to these phrases:

– Holy Spirit, come upon me. I invite You to fill me till I'm overflowing with the Spirit of the Lord.

– Jesus, I desire to be baptized in the Holy Spirit. I receive the Holy Spirit right now.

– I receive You, Holy Spirit; come upon me in Your fullness with the evidence of speaking in tongues.

Expect Holy Spirit to show up and fill you, and then start praying. If you don't feel your heavenly language coming up and forth, I suggest beginning by praying out loud in your native language. Praying out loud gets your lips moving, your voice box activated and your tongue moving. As you begin to pray in your native language out loud, your prayer language will eventually manifest.

Remember the verse from above, "And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to speak" (Acts 2:4, MEV). It says they were filled, which means you, too, can be filled. And that they spoke as the Spirit enabled them. The Spirit will enable you, but sometimes that takes patience, time and belief on our part.

Pray audibly, focus on the Lord and allow your prayer language to come forth.

I want to encourage you to receive and release your prayer language. I am passionate about helping people release their prophetic destinies. I believe the more people walk in their full potential, the more people will be out there changing the world for Christ.

I need you to walk in your prophetic destiny because it is going to take a mass army to change and transform the world. People need Jesus, and when you release your destiny, you can assist me in reaching the world for Jesus! Arise! Get in your prayer closet and release your destiny by praying in tongues.

Prophetic Minister: How to Test Your Prophetic Word to Discern Its Veracity

You just received a prophetic word and believe it is from the Lord. Your concern is, "What do I do next?" My concern is what you didn't do next.

The next step is not taking action on the prophetic word you received, but testing it. Ask yourself questions such as "Will this bear fruit and glorify the name of Jesus Christ, or will it distract and detour me from my godly assignment?" With prophecy, your first responsibility is to discern the accuracy of the prophetic word delivered.

When receiving a prophetic word that you believe is from the Lord, you should stop and verify that it is from the Lord and not your flesh desiring it or the enemy trying to distract you. Our own desires can seduce us into thinking something is of the Lord when it is not. It is wisdom to verify the word (not analyze it) before you take action. Taking the word at face value without seeking confirmation and direction can detour you from the will of God.

We can prematurely act on a word because we feel it makes sense and we have comfort proceeding. We think, I can do this. We are comfortable because it makes sense to us in the natural, but the question is, Do we have peace proceeding forth in the spiritual?

We are not natural people; we are spiritual beings. Moving forward with a prophetic word because of our natural comfort is one of the main ways the enemy and our flesh can cause us to proceed in a wrong direction. It must be tested.

When you receive revelation, a prophetic word or an answer to prayer, take the next step. Discern it. Dissect it. Don't overthink and don't analyze. Test it. Bring it back to the Holy Spirit through prayer and test it against the Word of God and what you know to be the will of God for your life.

God Downloads

God speaks to us through thoughts dropped in our spirits. When God speaks to us, we need not try to figure out the revelation but instead receive the revelation He is giving.

You may have heard God's voice before saying, "Don't do that," "Take this road instead today" or "Give this much as an offering." You have heard God as you have prayed and felt you received your answer. However, don't just feel you have received the answer. Instead, know you have received the response.

When you receive discernment, ask yourself, Is this the way God usually speaks to me? Verify it. He may speak to you in different ways, but it should witness in your spirit. Ask God, "Why do You want me to head in this direction?"

Test the Scriptures to confirm if the prophetic word and revelation you are receiving align with or contradict God's Word. God will not tell you to do something that is against His Word. I once knew a woman God had been convicting regarding giving. She felt led to write an offering check for $5,000. She wrote the check in advance of a business transaction that was being completed. The deal fell through, and she ended up in debt! That contradicts God's Word. If she would have tested the discernment, she would have stayed out of debt.

Flesh Blocks Revelation

Our flesh gets involved in receiving revelation because we think about it instead of praying about it. When thinking about whether a prophetic word is from God, we tend to overanalyze it and get impatient waiting on God for an answer.

Analytical people can plan out the answer instead of praying and receiving the answer. During prayer time, analytical people have difficulty shutting down their minds to receive from God. When analytical thoughts come into your mind, transfer those thoughts to your heart, to the place of love, where the Father is. He will help you accurately discern the word.

When you receive the revelation from a prophetic word, ask yourself, "Is this the way I would think?" You may think you heard from God when really what you heard were your own thoughts. Try to distinguish the difference between hearing God's voice and hearing your own.

Deceptions and Distractions

If confusion is present in times of discernment, it is from the enemy. "For God is not the author of confusion but of peace" (1 Cor. 14:33, NKJV).

The enemy will attempt to distract. When we don't pray about things in advance, it leaves the enemy an open door to sidetrack us.

Testing the Spirits

When testing the spirits, ask yourself if you are feeling convicted. Conviction from the Holy Spirit is quick and calls you to action. He presses you until you act. When a prophetic word is received from the Lord, it puts a prophetic burden within your spirit to complete God's will for your life. It calls you to action with a holy, reverential fear of the Lord to complete the burden He has placed within you.

Testing the word is important to verify that it is of the Lord. Process the information until you know the authenticity of the word. As spiritual warfare occurs, you cannot automatically assume that you can hear God with the same clarity as in other times. All of us have heard wrong at one time or another and have regretted the decisions we made in the flesh. Therefore, making sure we have valid marching orders from the Spirit of the Lord is essential before we proceed.

In 1 John 4:1, the Word of God instructs us to test the spirits.

When you receive revelation from God, keep it in front of you and consistently pray it through.

Ask for His will to be further revealed and for Him to give you the spirit of revelation, knowledge, wisdom and understanding (Isa. 11:2).

Be in tune with and sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading, and then be obedient. Persevere and accomplish His will for your life.

When Expelling a Demon, Keep Doing This to Experience a Release

God has given us a creative imagination, and it can be used to our benefit or detriment. Talking about the ministry of deliverance and watching movies or hearing stories of how demons manifest can make our imaginations run wild. What is the truth? How do demons manifest?

Demonic manifestations can make the ministry of deliverance seem scary. In deliverance ministry, people run to it or away from it. However, I want to dispel some myths and help you learn how demons manifest and that it isn't always severe. I want to lead you to and through the ministry of deliverance, which is a powerful and beautiful thing to have manifest in your life.

Demons manifested on Jesus. I taught about this recently on Charisma magazine, "How Demons Can Manifest and What to Look for to Combat Them," and my recent podcast, How Demons Manifest While Being Evicted. Jesus experienced what I will label as more severe demonic manifestations. In the presence of the Lord, according to the Gospels, we learn that demons manifested on Jesus.

When we cast out a demonic spirit, we usually say something similar to, "Spirit of [insert spirit's name, such as 'Rejection'] get out, in Jesus' name. When we have released forgiveness towards others and received forgiveness for ourselves, it looses the demonic stronghold, and the demon must leave. By taking authority over the evil spirit as instructed, "Look, I give you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. And nothing shall by any means hurt you" (Luke 10:19), the demon must leave.

When casting a demon out of yourself or another person, how do you know or discern if the demon has left? Some people have the gift of discernment or can see into the spiritual realm, and they can see or feel the demon has left. How does a person without the gift of discernment operate in general discernment? In my book, Discerning and Destroying the Works of Satan, I give a complete list of how to know if demons have left.

There are simple ways to know if a demon has been evicted. During our prayer time or while ministering to another, the demon being expelled could cry, yawn or cough. The person could feel peace, a shift or change within themselves. They may have been experiencing a stomach ache or pain during the prayer session and now feel released from that manifestation. A demon can expel through natural body reactions and other exit points.

When expelling a demon, pray until you feel a release. You want to feel something in the spiritual and natural realm break. What happens in the natural and spiritual is often correlated. Therefore when you are expelling demons, expect to feel a release, peace and freedom; something shifts in both the natural and spiritual to receive freedom.

Deliverance Minister: How Demons Can Manifest and What to Look For to Combat Them

Jesus was in the ministry of deliverance. We see in the red-letter words of the Gospels where He was consistently casting out demons.

Jesus as the Son of God, knowing His authority, saw many demonic manifestations. In fact, the demons manifested while Jesus was taking His authority and casting them out.

There is no need to be afraid of demonic manifestations. Jesus said, "Look, I give you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. And nothing shall by any means hurt you" (Luke 10:19, MEV). We have authority and, like Jesus, we may take that authority but still experience demonic manifestations.

Knowledge is power and the Word of God is full of knowledge. As we gain revelation and education, we don't need to fear deliverance ministry, demonic attacks and spiritual warfare.

Demons convulsed, spoke and cried out as Jesus was releasing the ministry of deliverance and confronting the demonic. Even with the manifestations, they had to go.

Jesus had authority. You have authority. Learn how to take authority over the demonic realm.

Ways Demons Can Manifest Through (excerpt from Discerning and Destroying the Works of Satan):

- Blinking
- Sneezing
- Coughing
- Yawning
- Vomiting
- Breathing
- Burping
- Crying
- Screaming
- Seizures
- Twitching
- Shaking
- Stomach movement
- Visual movement

As we continue to study the life of Jesus and His ministry, according to the Gospels, we will be empowered to set the captives free. {eoa}

Deliverance Minister: Prayer Points for Prodigals, Rebellious Children and Salvation of Loved Ones

It is difficult when you love the Lord with everything in you and those closest to you don't have that same sentiment. You've raised your children in a Christian home and now they are in rebellion, and you desperately desire for that prodigal to return to their roots and foundation.

It is discouraging when you have prayed prayers and haven't seen the full manifestation.

When most of us got married, we weren't pursuing Jesus full force and didn't pray about who to marry. In most Christian marriages, one spouse is on fire. At the same time, the other is stagnant in their spiritual walk and satisfied with basic church attendance but no relationship with Jesus and the Holy Spirit. One spouse hopes the other spouse will be set on fire and walk with the Lord as they do.

I was preaching recently to my online church and taking prayer requests when I noticed the common request was praying for a lost loved one, a prodigal or a spouse to come into spiritual alignment. I felt the Spirit of the Lord come upon me and give me prayer points to release to my church. I then thought we needed to write these points from the Lord down and share them with the world. I believe every family has someone that needs to come to the Lord or come back to the Lord.

I remember years ago, I had to pray for my rebellious child. She didn't want to be a pastor's kid, was hurt by the church and wasn't interested in pursuing Jesus. I wrote an article for Charisma Magazine on it that you can read here. Meanwhile, I've also included some of those prayer points here.

Prayer Points

– Pray audibly. There is power in our outspoken prayers and words. Bind and restrict the enemy in your loved ones' lives audibly, so he can hear you take authority and restrict his movements.

– Pray, "Holy Spirit, convict them." Pray to the Holy Spirit to convict them and then go further and pray that the person will receive the conviction.

– Pray to expose the darkness and bring it into the light. Pray for the person's influence by dark powers, their sin, evil spirits, hidden faults and whatever else the Spirit of the Lord gives you to be brought forth into the light and exposed so they can see it.

- Pray, “Father God, renew them to You and remove them from the destructive, unproductive and unfruitful paths they are following.”*
- Pray for angels to come into their path and be sent forth on assignment.*
- Pray for people to come into their lives to speak the truth in love, for divine opportunities and conversations. Often, the people we love aren’t going to receive from us, so pray for people to be put in their paths that they will receive from.*
- Pray for them while you cook their food, fold their laundry, walk up the sidewalk into their home or get into their car.*
- Anoint their possessions with anointing oil and pray a blessing over them. Pray over their rooms or vehicles if you can. Do a spiritual housecleaning in their rooms if they live with you and take authority audibly. (Receive my free pdf e-book on how to do a Spiritual housecleaning here.) Play Christian music or Scripture in their room when they aren’t home if they live with you and permeate the atmosphere with love and worship.*
- Write a warfare declaration of what you want to see manifest in their lives or what they need to have to happen and declare it out daily.*
- War on their behalf. Declare and decree aloud to eradicate the powers of darkness sent to thwart and abort their destiny. Restrict the devil and his movements over their lives.*

Don’t give up! Keep praying and keep believing!

Show them love; don’t push and force your beliefs on them. It will push them away instead of drawing them close. I am a firm believer that they are watching from afar and they see your Christian walk and, most of the time, they desire it but they don't know how to get it. Have hope whether your spouse, a child or a loved one will come home to the Lord. Meanwhile, know the fervent prayer of a righteous person availeth much (James 5:16).

Prophetic Word: The Lord Says, 'Receive Acceptance and My Glory'

I was in worship when I saw a great wave of God's glory coming off the water and I heard the word "billows." Webster defines a billow as a rolling mass, especially a great wave. I listened to the Lord say, "Tell My people they are accepted and as they internalize that acceptance that a great surge of My glory is going to come upon them."

As I continued worship, the Lord revealed that people don't know and aren't feeling accepted. Acceptance comes from knowing who you are in Christ, your kingdom inheritance and that you are created in the image of God. You are pleasing to God, and the Father accepts you because He made you.

Your acceptance of who the Lord has created you to be releases your anointing. You are accepted and anointed; and when you put acceptance and anointing together, it will release your destiny. I recently released a prophetic word, titled Your Anointing Has Not Left You, on . I encourage you to read it.

You are accepted because the Father created you, Jesus died for you and the Holy Spirit is in you. You are accepted, not rejected! He trusts you, and He accepts you for who you are! You are anointed, appointed and accepted!

Receiving our acceptance come from releasing guilt, condemnation, shame and regret. The Lord revealed to me how some of your obstacles to not receiving acceptance are because you feel shameful. You are holding onto your sin and the unworthiness you feel as a result of that sin. He said, "Release shame, guilt, condemnation and regret so My glory can invade those places. Your sins are forgiven; now forgive yourself. If I separated your sin as far as the east is from the west, now you need to separate it and believe it."

Acceptance is knowing that you are worthy because Jesus is worthy and the Spirit of God lives inside of you. People have rejected people for so long that for some, it becomes a struggle to realize that the heavenly Father accepts them. No sin is too great; He can forgive. He can still use you.

As I was in worship, I kept hearing, "Tell My people they are accepted." I think some of you need to shout it out, and you need to hear yourself say it. You are accepted by God the Father, Jesus His Son and the Holy Spirit.

Just as important in this vision and the word I was receiving was the wave and billow of His glory He wants to release into believers' lives. The glory was coming in and being released, and it will come in as a rolling mass as you believe you are accepted and release the guilt of sin. Being accepted was a key to God's glory coming upon you in stronger measures. He accepts you. Now the question is will you accept yourself and receive His glory? {eoa}

Deliverance Minister: How You Can Pray With Peace in Your Heart in These End Times

How do we pray when there is so much going on in the world? The Bible speaks of wars and plagues. Our natural reaction would be to pray against it.

Are there specific prayer points we should be targeting? We are in the end times and some believe the last of the last days. Can we stop wars, pandemics and other things that are according to Bible prophecy? What authority do we have against these things when the Bible clearly states we have authority over all things? What do all things include and how should we pray?

The Bible says, "For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled. For all these things must happen, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines, epidemics, and earthquakes in various places" (Matt. 24:5-7, MEV). The Bible clearly states what we are experiencing will happen. Can we pray against that which will occur and command it to stop?

My husband was awakened the other night at 3 a.m. to pray. Three o'clock in the morning is a spiritual warfare hour in which the Lord will awaken us to pray against evil powers. My husband started praying for the natural things he knew needed to be prayed for when the Spirit of the Lord came upon him and said, "Pray the Lord's prayer."

As my husband was praying out repeatedly the Lord's prayer, the verse, "Your kingdom come; Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven" (Matt. 6:10) caught his attention. He then heard the Spirit of the Lord say, "Pray My kingdom come; My will be done." I teach on declaring prayer and even though we have authority to decree and declare, I think praying and adding God's will be done in powerful.

When COVID began, I never heard the Lord say, "Pray for COVID to stop." I did hear the Lord say, "Pray to bind and restrict a principality of fear over the earth." I heard the Lord clearly say to help people through fear. Charisma Media worked with me and within 24 hours, we had a free e-course, which is still available today, on How to Conquer Fear. I did pray and see many people supernaturally healed of COVID. However, the prayer target I was assigned to as a deliverance minister was to attack the spirit of fear in operation.

Once again, we are faced with Bible prophecy and rumors of war. How do we pray? Do we pray to stop the war? As we are in the end times, I believe we need to pray strategically, led by the Spirit of God and for His will to be done. I was thinking, how do we pray when we don't know the heart of the situation? Therefore, I came up with these prayer points for end-time prayer strategies.

- Pray for God's will to manifest on the earth.
- Pray for souls to come into the kingdom of God.
- Pray for the shalom peace for people and children.
- Pray to bind and restrict a spirit of fear.
- Pray for wisdom in movements and decisions for all people.
- Pray for the conviction of the Holy Spirit to be received.
- Pray the innocent are not injured.
- Pray for people to receive inner healing and deliverance.
- Pray for love to go forth in all things.
- Pray to dispatch angels on assignment.
- Pray for all government officials.
- Pray for our first responders, military and medical personnel.
- Pray the media would bring forth truth without fear.

These are some power points on how to pray in our world. I encourage you to spend some time partnering with the Holy Spirit as I discuss in my book, Prophetic Spiritual Warfare, so you can receive additional power points of how He wants you to pray. {eoa}

Prophetic Minister Encourages Partnering with the Holy Spirit in 2022

I was staring at the “Trust God” sign on the wall this morning as I was in His presence. The Spirit of the Lord began to speak to me. He spoke about those in ministry; people who want ministry opportunity and growth and people already in ministry. His people are worn out and overworked because of the lack of rest and striving to grow a ministry. Their stress and pressure are self-inflicted.

I heard Him say over a year ago, “Partner with the Holy Spirit in everything you do this year.” It seems like a simple statement of something we should always do, but the reality is we don’t.

I was sitting quietly when He spoke, “People need to minister out of a place of rest and not a place of striving. If the Holy Spirit is in it, it will be a place of rest instead of unending restlessness because you are working so hard to make it happen. If my anointing is on it, it will come with ease. It will feel as if it is rest, even though it is work.”

Recently, my marketing coach and friend said to me, “Kathy, if the Holy Spirit isn’t breathing His breath all over it, then don’t do it.” Is the Holy Spirit breathing His breath on your tasks, or are you going with the flow and the normal statistics to make it happen? This same friend and coach told me months ago, “Be a disruptor; don’t go with the norm.” Don’t do things the normal way people do them. Do it differently and if the Holy Spirit is breathing His breath on it, it will happen. It was wise advice. I’ve been a disruptor and forerunner to great things on three different occasions.

The Spirit continued to speak to me this morning. He revealed to me the law of sowing and reaping. He spoke to me about when people (we) have a check in our spirit or an unsettledness with a person in ministry, they are kingdom advancing. They are doing good things, it appears, but we can’t shake the feeling of something being off. I call it having a check in my spirit.

People strive and want their ministry to grow. When opportunities come to expand our ministry and get a larger sphere of influence, we set aside the check we had and connect and co-labor with the very person or ministry we are unsure about. He said, “Kathy when people do that, they are just as impure as the impure person they were questioning and having an unsettledness about.” He continued to the law of sowing and reaping and said if we sow into that person or ministry, we are also going to reap what they are reaping, (the negative, impurity and the part we have a check about.) He said, "If people will sit back and rest, seek Me and allow Me to lead, I will do it." It won't seem like so much digging and work to get kingdom business accomplished.

The Holy Spirit wants you to partner with Him and seek Him in decisions. When you rest in the presence of the Lord, step back and spend time in the secret place, He will give you the wisdom and instructions.

Don't compare yourself to another person or ministry. The Spirit of the Lord will give you creative strategies for what He wants you to accomplish. Rest! Pray! Trust! The Spirit of the Lord is waiting to speak to you and make what you do not stress you out, so you may be able to go forth with ease. Trust Him! He knows what is best! Listen, seek and go forth in peace!
