

Jesus at the Center

Israel and New Breed (Integrity Music)

Israel Houghton and New Breed are back with their first live recording in five years. The 20-track double CD includes an eclectic group of guest artists such as Aaron W. Lindsey, Michael Gungor and T-Bone.

Judging Is God's Prerogative

It is mine to avenge; I will repay. –Deuteronomy 32:35

Feedback July 2012

“Charisma continues to be a relevant, crucial tool for the Christian community.”

–Jesse Pisors

Charisma Online July 2012

©

istockphoto_Ele

The Power of a Servant's Heart

Watch Dino Rizzo teach on how to become a more Christlike servant at servant.charismamag.com.

 © istockphoto-
AnthiaCumming

This Laugh's on Us

Check out a short parody about how Christians can be obsessed with labeling one another by going to labels.charismamag.com. Come on, it's OK to laugh a little.

3-Minute Evangelism Training

Watch Rice Brooks' 3-minute training on sharing the gospel by visiting godtest.charismamag.com.

Christian Olympic Athletes in action

Christian athletes are not only representing their home countries at this year's London Olympics, they're proudly proclaiming their faith. Watch interviews and other video footage from some of these talented competitors at 2012olympics.charismamag.com.

Totally Forgiving God

R.T. Kendall

(Charisma House)

R.T. Kendall, who spent 25 years as pastor of London's famous Westminster Chapel, completes his trilogy on forgiveness with his most recent offering, Totally Forgiving God: When It Seems He Has Betrayed You.

As Christians journey through life, they must learn how to forgive others, themselves—and even God.

His book concludes that the problem and inevitability of evil and suffering—coupled with God's seeming hiddenness or absence—is a truly vexing phenomenon for the believer. Yet Kendall explains that we can arrive at one of two choices: 1) to conclude that God is nonexistent or 2) to ask God why He allows suffering.

No amount of academic theology can bring comfort to the hurting. Given this, Kendall takes a different route, sensitively drawing upon his own personal losses and using examples of life's enigmas as well as biblical illustrations, which include the sufferings of Jesus and Paul.

What's more, Kendall draws deep from Job's and Habakkuk's experiences of pain, doubt, questioning and faith. He explains that unforgiveness leads to a host of physical and spiritual maladies, and notes that we must forgive God for the sake of our own character development.

Written with refreshing honesty, Totally Forgiving God will truly comfort those who feel as if the ways of God don't make sense.

Instant Family Devotions

Mike Nappa and Jill Wuellner

(Baker Books)

Take the guesswork out of your family devotional time. With this practical devotional, parents and children can grow closer to Christ and each other.

Release

With more than 1 million records sold, pastor Clint Brown returned this summer with another eclectic studio album, Release. The praise and worship leader collaborates with gospel greats such as Marvin Winans, Fred Hammond and Nicole Binon.

Spiritual Warfare Self-Study Bible Course

Mary K. Baxter

(Whitaker House)

Learn key principles of spiritual warfare and find out how to effectively fight in the spirit with Mary K. Baxter's newest release, Spiritual Warfare Self-Study Bible Course.

T.N.T.: Treasure-Hunters 'n Training

Kevin Dedmon, a Bethel Church leader, equips readers on how to integrate supernatural evangelism into everyday life with his new book T.N.T.: Treasure-Hunters 'n Training.

Fearless DVD

Max Lucado

(Thomas Nelson)

Designed for intimate Bible study, the Fearless DVD series draws from Jesus' encounters with people who were frightened by their situations, proving that we can trust God through the most uncertain times.