Michele Perry was born without her left hip and leg, but that hasn't stopped this missionary from helping more than 100 Sudanese children every day. In her latest book, she shares how to allow God's supernatural power to change any circumstance.

God Hates Ingratitude

But Jonah was greatly displeased and became angry. He prayed to the Lord, "O Lord, is this not what I said when I was still at home? That is why I was so quick to flee to Tarshish. I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love, a God who relents from sending calamity. Now, O Lord, take away my life, for it is better for me to die than to live." But the Lord replied, "Have you any right to be angry?" –Jonah 4:1-4

A Little Bit of Spirituality

Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone. –Colossians 4:6

Graciousness Is Spelled “N-E-E-D”

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. –Matthew 5:7

Forgiveness Is a Choice

And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins. –Mark 11:25

Tears Will End in Joy

Weeping may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning. –Psalm 30:5

Being Honest About Bitterness

If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth. -1 John 1:6
