

New Romantic Comedy Shows Teenagers How to Date With Purity, Christian Values

Finally, there's a cute, funny high school film that positively models purity, modesty and taking relationships slowly. Because of Grácia, one of this year's most exciting Christian films, releases Sept. 15. Check out the trailer here.

Steven Curtis Chapman Encourages Prayer Warriors to Rise Up

Steven Curtis Chapman wrote an intercession anthem inspired by the hit movie War Room. Pay attention to Chapman's great lyrics: "The enemy trembles every time/Cause he knows the battle is no longer mine."

Stunning Colton Dixon Video

Reminds Christians to Find Identity in Christ

Former American Idol contestant Colton Dixon knows what it means to base self-worth on fame or talent—and he's rejecting all that. His new video proclaims that God must be the basis for any healthy identity.

Viral Video Points Out the Top 15 Funny Things That Christians Do

Jordan Taylor, a Christian vlogger who hosts the YouTube channel Blimey Cow, observed lots of clichés among his Christian friend group. So he made a funny video pointing them all out—and it went viral. Have you seen these clichés?

Joyce Meyer: God Doesn't Want to Live in Your Sunday-

Morning Box

Does God permeate your heart, mind and soul all the time—or just at church? Joyce Meyer reminds Christians that God cannot be confined to merely Sunday mornings in this powerful sermon.

Matthew West's New Single Celebrates God's Incredible Grace

Throughout Scripture, we see God use broken people to accomplish mighty deeds for Him. Matthew West takes that concept and turns it into an arena-ready worship anthem with his new single, "Broken Things."

Todd White Shares How Christ Freed Him From the Kingdom of Darkness

Todd White is best known for his Spirit-filled evangelism. But before he met God, he was a captive of the enemy. In this interview with YWAM's Loren Cunningham, White shares his testimony.

Should Christians Skip the New Spider-Man?

Spider-Man: Homecoming hits theaters today, and plenty of moviegoers are hyped. But should Christians exercise extra discernment regarding Marvel's latest? Movieguide shares its review here.

The Amazing Reason God Stopped This Pastor From Building His Church

Pastor Dave Williams was working on building his new church, when he felt God put up a spiritual wall. At first, he couldn't understand why. Then he had a spiritual epiphany—and you won't believe what happened next. {eo}

Meet the Pagan Cannibals Who

Became Christians

Bible-Believing