

When God Answers With Fire

Author June Volk grew up in a Jewish family in New York City and married a well-off Orthodox Jew. But when the family denounced her brother-in-law for proclaiming, "Jesus is the Son of God and the Messiah," she too wanted to know Christ. When she called out to the Father, she said He revealed Himself to her in the form of fire. God spoke to Moses through a burning bush, and He wants to reveal His presence to you. To hear June's testimony, watch the videos below.

Muslim Youth Protest at Jerusalem's Holy Sites

✖ Muslim youth began rioting last week at the Temple Mount in Jerusalem following Israel's decision to include the Cave of the Patriarchs and Rachel's Tomb in its list of national heritage sites.

Israeli police said protesters worshipping at the al-Aqsa Mosque emerged from prayer Friday throwing rocks at police and at Jews praying at the Western Wall, the Associated Press (AP) reported.

Son of Hamas Leader Shares Faith Journey

✖ The son of a Hamas founder whose Christian conversion made international headlines released the complete story of his faith journey Tuesday in a memoir brimming with spy-novel-like drama.

Son of Hamas by Mosab Hassan Yousef details a six-year-long conversion process that originated with a Bible study in Jerusalem and resulted in his departure from the Islamic terrorist organization. He was baptized in 2005 near Tel Aviv in a ceremony performed by a San Diego woman visiting the church that Yousef attended.

A Heart for God

According to the American Heart Association, small changes in our diet can lead to a longer, healthier life. And so it is with the spiritual heart. Letting the Holy Spirit daily search us and transform us into the image of God, can lead to a fulfilling relationship with Christ both in this life and the life to come. To discover how you can keep your heart pure and other spiritual truths, listen to the podcast below.

A Courageous Confrontation

Queen Esther saved her people from destruction when she petitioned King Xerxes to spare her life and the lives of the Jewish people. Esther 9:24 says Haman had “plotted against the Jews to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), to consume them” (NKJV). But God gave His chosen people victory over their enemies, and today Jews around the world celebrate Purim in recognition of Esther’s courageous confrontation. But will modern-day forces rise up and once again attempt to destroy Israel? Watch the video below.

Grace So Amazing

Denise Matthews has battled kidney failure, hypertension and other illnesses, and says her current health issues are the result of the sinful life she lived as a young adult. But today Denise, the former girlfriend of singer Prince, has a message for the body of Christ: Sin produces physical death and spiritual separation from Jesus, and its consequences are far-reaching. But she knows from personal experience that the grace of God is more powerful than the enemy’s grip. Listen to podcast.

The Prophetic Destiny of Ethiopian Jews

More than 20 years ago, many Ethiopians left their poverty-stricken country as the result of a secret rescue mission. Today thousands call Israel home, drawn to the land by their Jewish heritage. Some trace their lineage to King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba, but regardless of their roots, many call Yeshua Lord. This is foretold in the Word, which says Ethiopia will one day reverence the Father with worship.

Zephaniah 3:10 says, "From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my worshipers, the daughter of my dispersed ones shall bring my offering." To see prophecy fulfilled, watch the video below.

Real Intimacy

Do you want God to flood your heart with His love and draw you closer to Him? Nothing can replace the longing we have for authentic fellowship with the Father. And the moment we attempt to substitute His presence with religion, we feel distant from Him. Don't allow anything to keep you from intimacy with God. Be sure to pray and read your Bible, but seek to go deeper than that. Ask Jesus to speak to you and affirm in your heart that you belong to Him. Watch the video below.

What Have You Been Called to Do?

Many Christians believe that if they are not at the forefront of ministry, preaching, teaching or standing before a crowd leading worship, their gifts are somehow less important. How untrue. Your contribution to the body of Christ is not based on your status in church. God has uniquely designed each of us to work for Him. We all have a job to do for the kingdom, but we must know our purpose and walk in it. To join a discussion about destiny, purpose and doing God's will, listen to this podcast.
