Gateway Church Ousts Another Pastor for a 'Moral Issue'

Gateway Church is making headlines again after they let go of executive pastor Kental Glasgow due to a "moral issue."

In an update to the Gateway community, elder Tra Willbanks gave the news about Glasgow's exit from church leadership.

"As of Monday this week, Kental Glasgow is no longer employed at Gateway," Willbanks said. "We were informed last week of a moral issue, which we believe as elders disqualifies him from serving in the role that he had at Gateway."

L.A. Marzulli Unveils the Mysteries of the Shroud of Turin

L.A. Marzulli, a prolific author and speaker known for his work on biblical prophecy and the supernatural, recently discussed the Shroud of Turin in an interview with Charisma Media. Marzulli, who has dedicated significant time to investigating the Shroud, believes it is far more than a religious relic. He argues that it in fact serves as a critical piece of evidence in understanding the divine nature of Jesus Christ.

"The Shroud of Turin is one of the most enigmatic artifacts on the planet," Marzulli says. "It defies logic and science. We can't recreate it, and we don't understand how it was made."

Marzulli emphasizes that the Shroud's mysteries are profound. He points out that the image on the Shroud is not a painting or a photograph, and its origins have baffled scientists for decades. "The image is a negative, and the technology to create such an image simply did not exist in the first century," he noted.

For Marzulli, the Shroud is not just an object of fascination but a subject of deep spiritual significance. He sees it as a tangible connection to the resurrection of Jesus Christ. "This is not some random artifact," he asserts. "This is the burial cloth of Jesus, and it bears the imprint of the Resurrection."

He also discusses the scientific studies that have been conducted on the Shroud. He acknowledges that while some researchers have questioned its authenticity, others have found compelling evidence supporting its connection to Christ. "There are pollen grains on the Shroud that are only found in Israel. There is forensic evidence that aligns with the crucifixion wounds described in the Gospels," Marzulli explains.

Marzulli calls for more open-mindedness in the study of the Shroud. He believes that modern science, when combined with faith, can reveal even more about this mysterious relic. "The Shroud is a testament to the supernatural. It challenges us to look beyond the material world and consider the possibility of miracles," he says.

As the debate over the Shroud of Turin continues, Marzulli's insights add a compelling voice to the conversation, urging believers and skeptics alike to explore the deeper meanings behind this ancient and mysterious artifact.

Candace Owens' Descent into Antisemitic Rhetoric

Over the last year or so, Candace Owens has made an increasing number of deeply concerning comments about the Jewish people and Israel, leading to the question: What kind of anti-Semitic Kool-Aid is she drinking? In light of her most recent comments, the answer is: One of the worst kinds of anti-Semitic Kool-Aid, the kind that espouses the most ridiculous (and malicious) conspiracy theories. Her statements have now become completely unhinged, leading to bizarre headlines like this on an anti-Semitic website: "Candace Owens digs in, calling out Israel's Frankist pedo-protection cult." What?

In her rant, Owens informs us that that the horrors of the Holocaust did not help give birth to the modern State of Israel. Instead, many moons before this, Catholics and Christians went missing around Passover, and when their bodies were found, "they were able to trace them back to the Jews."

But, she tells us, she is not repeating the infamous blood libel, which alleges that Jews kidnap and kill Christians during Passover, using their blood to bake matzoh. Not at all!

These people weren't actually Jews at all. "They were Frankists," Owens says, referring to a sex-cult led by the notorious Polish Jew Jacob Frank (1726-1791).

The only problem with this unhinged theory is everything. First, this is the same, fictitious blood libel, just blamed on Frankists rather than Jews. Second, the Frankists, with all their perverted practices, did not kidnap and kill Catholics and Christians, using their blood for Passover. Third, the Frankists actually were Jews, although some of them eventually converted to Catholicism. But I quibble. Why we should trip over historical facts?

According to Owens, Leo Frank killed Mary Phagan during Passover (in 1913) for these same nefarious, bloody purposes. (Apparently, he must have been a Frankist too, since his last name was Frank!) And, she states firmly, "this Frankist cult, which is masquerading behind Jews, still participates in this s- to this day."

We will soon find out that it is these fake Jews who helped found Israel, which is why, she tells us, Israel is a sanctuary state for pedophiles. Surely, nothing anti-Semitic here! And surely, we shouldn't stumble over the fact that most legal scholars believe that Leo Frank was falsely accused and wrongly convicted of the crime. Tragically, he was dragged from a jail by an angry mob and lynched. But not to worry. After all, Frank was a Jew, right?

Owens claims that "the nation of Israel may have been established by some Frankists," which is why "Zionists defend pedophiles and criminals." But of course! How did we miss that? Yes, we are told, this is why Israel allows "pedophiles from America to flee and receive protection from their state." (BTW, Owens jokes that she will punch you in the face if you dare say that Israel is our ally. They are anything but an ally and friend. All clear?)

What is Owens's proof about the founding of Israel? "It is looking like Theodor Herzl's family" came from the exact same area in Moravia and Bohemia "where the Frankist cult was founded." And while Owens says "maybe" about her theory, she has read "a ton of books" and is quite sure about it. She also informs us that Herzl said that he didn't care how many Jews had to die in order to establish the Jewish state. How did all the Herzl scholars miss this?

And why quibble over the fact that the Frankist cult originated primarily in Podolia, which is in modern-day Ukraine. After all, Ukraine and Moravia and Bohemia are all in Europe, right? That's pretty close! And at some point in time, some Frankists were located in the same country where Herzl was born. So, obviously, he himself was a Frankist sex pervert, and as the founder of Israel, that explains why the Jewish state is a sanctuary for pedophiles. Candace is on a roll! And since no one questions whether Herzl was Jewish, it appears that the Frankists masquerading as Jews were Jews after all. Got it!

As for the fact that the Frankists had largely disappeared by the time of Herzl's birth, again, why split hairs over things like chronology and history and dates and facts? Owens has a theory!

Not only so, but Owens wants us to know that Israel was involved in the assassination of JFK. It was a Mossad job!

But no one dare speak about these things. That's because America is being held hostage by a foreign country – Israel! And so she fearlessly proclaims, "We are an occupied nation!"

But it gets darker still. Owens informs us that the first Jewish Supreme Court justice, Louis Brandeis, was a Frankist. Don't believe her? She has an ironclad answer: "Look it up!"

Unfortunately, not even my AI bots could figure out where this nonsensical and diabolical theory came from, with AI Claude pointing out that: 1) "The Frankist movement was primarily active in the 18th century, while Brandeis lived in the late 19th and early 20th centuries." 2) "Brandeis was known for his strong ethical standards and progressive reforms, which seem at odds with what is known about Frankist beliefs and practices." 3) "There are no reputable historical sources that suggest Brandeis had any connection to Frankism." (These are just some of the points Claude raised, who also noted, "This myth might have originated from anti-Semitic conspiracy theories")

But Owens has still more to say. She alleges that "every person who speaks about Israel has to basically say a statement like, 'I don't want to get killed.'" Yes, of course! No one in America or abroad would dare say anything negative about Israel or the Jewish people for fear of being killed by the Israelis. And if anything happens to her? "Blame the Zionists, like 1,000 percent, blame the Zionists"

Thankfully, she provides a "easy litmus test" by which you can judge "any commentator." If they don't condemn Israel's defense of pedophiles and acknowledge that Louis Brandeis was a Frankist, then they, too, are evil, psychopathic Zionists.

Sarcasm aside, Owens is peddling some really sick, terribly dangerous stuff, given her popularity and influence.

May she awaken from this antisemitic stupor, may she spit out the poisonous Kool-Aid she is drinking, and may she become an advocate for righteousness and truth. And as much as her statements deserve ridicule and scorn, she needs our prayers. (I say this out of concern, not condescension.)

May the Lord deliver Candace Owens from deception!

Author's note: As for Louis Brandeis allegedly being a Frankist – and therefore, somehow involved in sexual perversion – by the time of Brandeis, the Frankists were simply a part of the Catholic Church with no connection to the earlier sexual rites. It is true that his parents were Frankists, but not in the sense that Owens alleges, which is where the confusion lies. It's fairly easy to verify this.

Amanda Grace Reveals the Mysteries of the DNC

In a new livestream, Amanda Grace revealed some of the prophetic implications surrounding the DNC after she had a very vivid dream earlier this month and a word from 2023 that came to pass.

On Aug. 9, Grace had a dream which she believes represented the location of the DNC and the lawlessness and rebellion taking place there.

The Supernatural Love Story of Joni Lamb and Doug Weiss

When Doug and I began telling people about our relationship, the vast majority said, “We’ve been praying for you. We’re so happy.” But the other voices definitely left an impression.

From a relationship standpoint I knew I was free, biblically and emotionally, to move forward, but I wasn’t looking.

There was no real desire in me for a relationship. I want to make that crystal clear. I wasn’t looking and had no need to do so. So many people have judged my timeline from Marcus’ death to my marriage to Doug. They question how I could have grieved enough in seven months to even think about talking to someone else. They think that’s not enough time.

All I can say is that each person processes grief differently. For me, this was the timeline I was on. For someone else, it could be very different. Each of us is uniquely created to fulfill the purpose God made us for. We are “fearfully and wonderfully made,” as the psalmist wrote (Ps. 139:14). In addition, He has qualified each one of us, meaning He has made us able or authorized us for the task He has put before us.

Gateway Conference Canceled Amid Robert Morris Scandal

The annual conference put on by Gateway Church, Gateway Conference has officially been canceled.

As the fallout from the shocking revelation of former lead pastor and founder Robert Morris’ sexual abuse of Cindy Clemishire, who was 12 years old at the start of the abuse, the Conference leadership explained in a public statement why they felt it was in the best interest of everyone to cancel.

“We want to let you know that after much prayer and consideration, we have decided not to hold Gateway Conference in 2024. Our congregation and staff are in the midst of navigating Robert Morris’ resignation and the emotions surrounding it. We are deeply sorry for the pain this situation caused the survivor, other survivors of abuse, and the Church at large.”

‘Give Me the Baby’: Good Samaritan’s Bold Dash to Save a Missing Child

A good Samaritan in Tennessee saved a missing baby over the weekend.

The accused, Gerald Blair, the boyfriend of Maybrie’s mom, was reportedly fleeing after an alleged hit-and-run and went into the woods with Maybrie. On Saturday, James learned through a neighbor’s camera the two were by a creek outside his home, and he promptly took action, WTVF-TV reported.

Steven James told WTVF-TV how he came to encounter the man with the child, 1-year-old Maybrie Like. It all started Friday night, when the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation issued an alert about a missing child, and police asked to search James’ property.

“It was a kid,” James said of his decisive moves. “I’d do anything for a kid.”
