

Prophetic Warning: The Remnant in Florida Must Stand Firm

In a video released just before Pentecost, 2021, lead pastor and co-founder of Spirit Move Ministries Liberty Turnipseed shared a revelation of a word from the Lord for Floridians, starting at timestamp 7:25.

She believes the Spirit of God is moving mightily in Florida, and that has caused the devil to turn his attacks toward the intercessors of the state. Because of this, the remnant must arise, and generals of the faith must prepare themselves for a spiritual battle unlike anything they've experienced before.

The devil, Turnipseed says, is preparing to strike, and only by the support of the Spirit will men and women of faith be ready to fight back.

The Lord is saying, "You're the standard," and He's raising you up to be the standard against the flood of the enemy as He prepares to pour out His glory in Florida, because we're coming into the season of the rumblings," Turnipseed says.

"So don't be afraid but say, 'Oh God, I will be the standard, and I will stand, and I will pray, and I will fight; and we will stop the flood of the enemy.'

"The enemy thinks he can gain some ground and he can stop all powerful God," Turnipseed says.

"We're in the birthing pains of Christ's return, which means He's preparing His people," she continues. "He's getting us ready because we have a job to do: to bring in souls."

She decrees this prayer over the rising remnant that will operate in Pentecost power:

“Lord, I just lift up every intercessor every faithful Christian in Florida that is battling for their state. They know revival is going to come, it’s going to flow from their state, Lord. I lift up every single intercessor, Lord, every general, everyone who calls themselves a prayer warrior in Florida. Lord, I just release supernatural strength and I declare over them that they are the standard. They are the standard that the Lord is going to raise to defeat the enemy in Florida and defeat the games that he wants to play to stop the revival that’s going to come out of Florida.

“And Lord, I just lift them up to You, and I say give them a clarity, a vision; give them wisdom, let all distraction and offenses fall away in the name of Jesus Christ. And let Your will be done as they rise and they stand and they become the standard against the flood of the enemy in Florida. In the name of Jesus Christ, amen.”

Renowned Worship Leader Eddie James Joins Nations Church With Daniel Kolenda

Lead Pastor Daniel Kolenda and the Nations Church/Christ for all Nations team are thrilled to announce that world-renowned worship leader, Eddie James, will join them as the worship director and associate pastor at Nations Church, as well as the director of the forthcoming CfaN School of Worship.

Raised in the Church of God in Christ in Cleveland, Tennessee,

Eddie James has deep roots in Gospel music. But his extraordinary musical talents opened doors for him in other streams of Christianity, allowing him to add many diverse “sounds” to his repertoire. The result is a style that is all his own and a leadership approach that fits the Nations Church and CfaN culture hand-in-glove.

Eddie James brings more than 25 years of experience and his entire team of musicians, singers and dancers to join the already stellar musical team, including music director Leonard Jones (formerly of MorningStar), worship pastor Jenny Weaver and outstanding worship leaders like Amber Brooks, Roy Fields, Andrea Hand, Christopher Griffin and many others.

James notes, “When you look at Acts 2, and later at the Antioch church, you see a picture of what I see the Holy Spirit doing today with CfaN and Nations Church. The nations were represented at Pentecost—Christ-followers literally poured out into the streets, sharing the gospel of a resurrected Jesus where the people were and in the languages they spoke. It wasn’t one culture or one sound. But it was one baptism of fire creating one family in God. My experiences have carved room in my heart for more than one sound. When I open my mouth, there’s no question I grew up in Black Pentecostal churches. But I hear the same Holy Spirit in all the styles that this church and the future worship school are already attracting. And this house is big enough for all of them. We need all of them if we’re going to reach the lost, hurting and broken people of Orlando and beyond. I think that’s a model not just for us as a community but for what God wants to do with His church as a whole. Nations Church is just the tip of the spear.”

The arrival of Eddie James adds even more energy to a movement that is already experiencing tremendous momentum. Though Nations Church only officially launches on Aug. 15, 2021, they have already seen more than 800 people come to Christ on the streets of Orlando, Florida, through their weekly outreaches.

More than 200 people are meeting weekly in small discipleship groups across the city. Attendance at the weekly “Pre-Launch” prayer services has exceeded venue capacity. 115 families are moving from other cities around the United States and even from many nations around the world representing every continent. They are on track to start with a staggering 1,500 launch team members/volunteers, and the team is now preparing multiple venues for simultaneous services around the greater Orlando area!

The announcement also comes on the heels of the CfaN Evangelism Bootcamp “Initiation Trip.” The multi-city evangelistic campaign was the culmination of three months of intensive training, just one of the many evangelistic outreach events organized by Christ for all Nations and Nations Church. The results were staggering; in more than 1,100 individual outreaches, more than 316,000 decisions for Christ were documented during the three-week campaign, along with many testimonies of miraculous physical healings, broken addictions and spiritual deliverances

James notes, “There’s a real alignment of vision. I started a ministry called Dream Works in the early 2000s because God kept putting young people, often drug addicts, with no place to go, in my path. At one point, I had sixteen young men sleeping on my living room floor! Over the years, many of those kids have become my touring band or our dance team. It’s a lot more than a road act— we’re a genuine family. Now, we have homes ministering to these young people in Ohio, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee—and soon Orlando, Florida. Daniel Kolenda, CfaN and Nations Church all have that same authenticity.”

James and his ministry team will relocate from Cleveland, Tennessee, to Orlando, Florida, in September 2021. The CfaN School of Worship is slated to launch in August of 2022. # 3 Powerful Prayer Foundations

Foundations of Prayer

Simply put, intercession is taking hold of God's will and refusing to let go until His will comes to pass. As intercessors, we need this spiritual grit factor—tenaciously holding on to the promises of God in prayer until we see His will accomplished. To this end, we need to be reminded of three important foundations of prayer. These will prepare us for the deeper places God wants to take us in intercession.

1. You need to ask.

John Wesley once said, "It seems like God is limited by our prayer life—that He can do nothing for humanity unless someone asks Him." This may seem backwards, but it's true. Because of the fall, Satan became the god of this world. God had given Adam and Eve authority over the earth, but they gave their authority to Satan when they sinned (see Gen. 1:26-27, Ps. 8:6, Luke 4:6, 2 Cor. 4:3-4, 1 John 5:19). This means God is not running everything in this world; He does not have everything under His control.

Because of this, Jesus came as the second Adam. Through His death, burial and resurrection, He triumphed over Satan. Then He gave the authority He won back to His church and told us to establish it on the earth in His name (see Matt. 28:18-20). For God to do what He wants to do, we have to enact the authority Jesus won for us in prayer. Prayer is the open door God needs to release His will on earth (see Matt. 7:7-8, 11; 18:19; John 14:13, 15:16, 16:23). We have not because we ask not (see James 4:2).

2. He hears you when you pray.

Proverbs 15:29 tells us, “The Lord ... hears the prayer of the righteous.” We are the righteous because we are new creations in Christ. We have become the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus (see 2 Cor. 5:21). Because of this, we can say with the apostle John, “This is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us” (1 John 5:14). We must not lose hope in prayer. When we pray, we must engage our faith, holding firmly to the truth that God hears us when we pray.

3. He answers you.

God promises that when we call out to Him, not only will He hear us, but He will answer us (see Jer. 33:3). “So if we know that He hears whatever we ask, we know that we have whatever we asked of Him” (1 John 5:15). When we pray, we will never get God’s voicemail or a busy signal. He is always available, always eager to engage with us in conversation. The key to laying hold to God’s answers in prayer is found in James 1:6, which tells us that we must pray in faith, not doubt. When we pray in faith, God will answer us.
