

Charisma Online

The Generational Elephant in the Room

For far too long young people have experienced God from one side of the church while the “older folks” resigned to do ministry from a separate corner. Why is there such a wide generation gap in today’s church? At Charisma held a roundtable conversation with leaders from within the body of Christ to talk about the generation gap and discuss a remedy. Listen to the podcast, then tell us if you agree or disagree. It’s high time we start talking about this elephant in the room.

Creative Churches

To get inspired by how God is moving through His church in creative ways, check out trendsetters.. There you can watch how innovative ministries such as the Expectation Church Network push the envelope.

What Are You Chasing?

This month we're highlighting young ministers who are sharing their passions for the next generation. What are you passionate about? What are you chasing? Go to and tell us what you're pursuing. We may feature your answers in an upcoming issue of the magazine.

Leaders Predict Where the Church Is Going

So where is the church headed? Is there change on the horizon? Visit , where we've gathered thoughts from leaders about where the church is going.

Avoid the 'Wouldas' and 'Couldas'

Charisma tracked down a few veterans in the faith to give young people sage advice about faithfully standing the test of time. Go to and get advice to avoid your own "wouldas" and "couldas."