

Charisma Online June 2010

10 Ways to Rejuvenate your prayer life

Do you want to jump-start your prayer life? Have you fallen into a rut and feel you've lost the fervor you once had? Then you'll want to check out Charisma's 10 tips to help renew your prayer life at .

10. Accountability. Start praying with a partner or with a handful of believers who will push each other to pray. The key is to never treat group prayer time as a substitute for your personal prayer time. Carve out a period before or after the group intercession to engage with your heavenly Father alone.

9. Location, location, location. If your knees have burned a hole in the same place for the last 50 years, than maybe it's time to change your location. A change in surroundings might exhilarate your prayer time. Try going to a park and praying while gazing at God's creation.

To read the entire list, including the No. 1 way to rejuvenate your prayer life, visit .

FREE Book Giveaway

Learn how you can live at the optimal level of God's grace and mercy. Go to and enter to win a copy of Joseph Prince's newest book, Unmerited Favor. Discover keys to help you be in the right place at the right time for encountering God's favor.

Get your App! Get your Charisma App!

The Charisma mobile app is finally out and available for free in all app stores. Get breaking Christian news, spiritual teaching, Bible studies, entertainment reviews and more on your Android, iPhone, BlackBerry, Windows Mobile and Palm OS—now! For more info, check out .

Alvin Slaughter wants you free of fear

Join gospel legend Alvin Slaughter on June 8 at 9 p.m. (EST) as he discusses overcoming one of life's greatest struggles: fear. Listen in as he talks about his personal journey and offers biblical tips to help combat fear. Go to to reserve your spot on the call and to submit questions for Slaughter.