

Conference Features Secular, Christian Leaders

This past weekend the “Rethink Conference,” which was held at Robert Schuller’s Crystal Cathedral, was “a rare opportunity to get inside the minds of some of today’s top thinkers”.

[01-22-08] Both Christian and global leaders met in Southern California this past weekend for a unique, and unprecedented conference aimed at pointing church and ministry leaders in a more progressive, culturally relevant direction.

Dubbed the “Rethink Conference” and held at Robert Schuller’s Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove, the list of more than two dozen prominent speakers included former President George H.W. Bush, Larry King, Chuck Colson, Erwin McManus, George Barna, Henry Cloud, John Townsend, Rupert Murdoch and Lee.

The event, which organizers called “a rare opportunity to get inside the minds of some of today’s top thinkers and innovators,” was simulcast live via satellite to host sites in 44 major U.S. cities.
