

Faith Laughs at Impossibilities

Jesus said unto ye have faith as a grain of mustard shall be impossible unto you. —Matthew 17:20

Four things are emblematic, divinely ascertained or revealed by the Lord—fire, love, zeal, faith.

Fire, burning up intensely, making us full of activity on line with God.

Love, where there is nothing but pure, undefiled willingness, yieldedness, knowing no sacrifice.

Zeal, so in the will and the mighty power of God until we press beyond measure into that which pleases God.

Faith, that laughs at impossibilities, and cries, “It shall be done!”

Lord Jesus, set me ablaze with fire, love, zeal, and faith. Amen.
