

Howard Hansen Dies

Howard Hansen has a massive heart attack in April

Howard Hansen, husband of Aglow International President Jane Hansen, died April 13 after suffering a massive heart attack two days earlier while working in Edmonds, Wash. He was 74.

Jane was at her Aglow office when her husband fell ill, and she rushed to be at his side. He died without regaining consciousness. Memorial services were held April 15 at Westgate Chapel in Edmonds.

The Hansens, who married in 1959, have three children and 11 grandchildren. Aglow was founded in 1967 and is the largest charismatic women's ministry in the United States.
