

One Faith

There is one body, and one Spirit-.-.-. One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. —Ephesians 4:4–5

Just in the proportion that you have the Spirit unfolding to you—"One Lord, one faith, one baptism"—you have the Holy Ghost so incarnated in you, bringing into you a revelation of the Word. Nothing else can do it, for the Spirit gave the Word through Jesus. Jesus spoke by the Spirit that was in Him, being the Word. The Spirit brought out all the Word of Life. Then we must have the Spirit.

If you take up John's Gospel, you will find that when He came, it wasn't to speak about Himself but to bring forth all that the Father willed. "For all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you" (John 15:15).

We shall have faith. The church will rise to the highest position when there is no schism in the body on the lines of unbelief. When we all with one heart and one faith believe the Word as it is spoken, then signs, wonders, and various kinds of miracles will be manifested. There will be one accord, in "One Lord, one faith, one baptism." Hallelujah!

Lord God, by Thy Spirit we shall confess One Lord,
Jesus, and be of one faith in Him. Amen.
