

Sanctified by Thy Word

Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. —John 17:17

Thy Word is truth. Sanctify them through Thy Word, which is truth. No child of God ever asks a question about the Word of God. What do I mean? The Word of God is clear on breaking bread, on water baptism, and on so many things. No person who is going on to obedience and sanctification of the Spirit will pray over the Word. The Word of God is to be swallowed, to be obeyed, not to pray over.

If you ever pray over the Word of God, there is some disobedience. You are not willing to obey. If you come into obedience of the Word of God, then when it says anything about water baptism, you will obey. When the Word speaks about tongues you will obey what it says about speaking in tongues. When the Word says anything about breaking bread and assembling yourselves together, you will obey.

When you are sanctified by the Spirit, you will be obedient to everything revealed in God's Word. In the measure you are not obedient, you will not come into the sanctification of the Spirit.

Holy Spirit, sanctify me by Thy truth and Word, that I might obey Thy Word without reservation. Amen.
