

Study: Calvinism Growing in Baptist Churches

A recent study found that 30 percent of Southern Baptist seminary graduates identify themselves as Calvinists. Yet less than 10 percent of Southern Baptist pastors follow the teachings.

A new study from LifeWay Research reveals that almost 30 percent of recent Southern Baptist (SBC) seminary graduates who are now serving as pastors describe themselves as Calvinists.

That's compared to less than 10 percent of SBC pastors at large who affirm the five points of Calvinism.
