

Take the Word of God

As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in Him. —Psalms 18:30

So I pray that you will think seriously in your heart about this: You have to be in the world, but not of it. Be a personal manifestation of the living Christ. Just as Christ was walking about the earth, you have to walk about as a son of God, with power and manifestation, because the people have not time to read the Bible, so you have to be the walking epistle, “read and known of all men.”

You have to see rightly that Jesus is the Word. You have to believe the Word of God, not change it because people have other opinions.

In taking God’s Word, you will discover that you want nothing better because there is nothing better. It is in His Word that you will find all you want—food when you hunger; light in your darkness; largeness of heart; and thoughts inspired by God.

Lord, Thy Word will stand no matter what man says.
Thy Word satisfies my every need. It is sustenance for my spirit; it guides my feet aright and inspires my mind to godliness. Amen.
