

The Heart Mender

 The Heart Mender

This story of forgiveness is a blend of fact and fiction. In 1942 during World War II, German subs are sent to the Gulf of Mexico. While taking a late-night walk, Helen Mason, who lost her husband in the war, stumbles across a dying sailor. She is furious when she sees Josef Landermann's uniform and plans to leave him for dead. But she has a change of heart when she hears an unusual phrase whispered.
