

The Spirit Reveals the Son

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

—Romans 5:5

The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost. The manifestation of the revelation of God's Son by the Holy Ghost comes by the Holy Spirit who is revealing Him to us as so uniquely divine that He is in power of overcoming, in power of purity, in power of rising all the time.

The Holy Ghost is shed abroad in our hearts for the very purpose that we may know that the inner man in us has to go on to develop—it must not cease growing. The Holy Ghost in us creates development and empowers us to move out as the Lord would have us be.

You are being changed, made right, made ready, changed by regenerating.

The Lord's life is moving and flowing. Put your spirit into the joy of the breath of God. Let yourself go on the bosom of His love. Be transformed by all the Spirit's life from above.

Holy Spirit, grow the image of Christ in me that I might reveal His love in my life. Change me and make me ready to be Your servant through the transformation of Your presence in my life. Amen.
