

Trusting an Extravagant God

Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. —Psalm 103:1–2

As I see it, Scripture is extravagant. When God speaks to me, He says, “Anything you ask.” When God is speaking of the world’s salvation, He says, “Whosoever believes.” So I have an extravagant God with extravagant language to make me an extravagant person—in wisdom.

You must learn above all things that you have to be out and God must be in you. The trouble with many people is that they never have gotten out so that He could get in. But if God ever gets in, you will be the first one out, never to come in anymore.

Jesus, by faith I go out that all of You might come in. Amen.
