Upon its first 10 days in publication, Cahn’s new book, The Dragon’s Prophecy, has delivered a book-publishing ‘triple-crown,” earning a debut at the #1 spot on the vaunted New York Times Bestseller list, along with the #1 ranking on Amazon Books In America, and a #1 listing in trade publication, Publisher’s Weekly, categories hardcover frontlist fiction and overall.

Says Cahn, “The Dragon’s Prophecy has surprised and stunned us from the beginning. Before I even finished writing it, it became a global bestseller on Amazon—and it wasn’t even written! Then I was told that the presales for the book were something like three times higher than any of my previous bestsellers. And now, we’ve been informed that it’s the number-1 bestseller in the nation, selling twice as much as the 2nd-place title.”

The Harbinger, published in January 2012, propelled Cahn into prominence among both the Christian media and secular publishing spheres. What followed was a string of best-selling books, each exploring unique subtle nuances of the Bible's prophetic wisdom. Two years ago he led a project to produce a major motion picture on his core areas of scholarship. The documentary, The Harbingers of Things to Come, captured national acclaim and was viewed by over 100,000 people in its two-night run, grossing well in excess of $1 million dollars.
