

1 Peter 4:17 Coming to Fruition With This Election

I watched the debate with great interest last Sunday. This debate has touched the ears of millions of Americans and people around the world. There were some amazing takeaways for me from both of the candidates.

It's very clear that Mrs. Clinton fully supports Planned Parenthood's abortion agenda. It's also clear that Mr. Trump supports appointments of pro-life justices like Justice Scalia. More here.

As to rumors of reports of more controversial tapes with Mr. Trump using the N-word, if he did, he should apologize along with the countless others who have done so. On the flip side: Too many people, including politicians, have used the N-word. It's even possible that Sec. Clinton has used the N-word too. At any rate, we are praying that she will stop supporting baby killers.

For the record, my daddy, Rev. A.D. King taught me that skin color bias is based on a lie. When I wanted to hatefully blame "white people" for killing my Uncle MLK, his brother, my Daddy, said: "No. White people pray with us, go to jail with us, die with us. The devil killed my brother. We are one human race, the One Blood of Acts 17:26."

"We must learn to live together as brothers [and sisters] or perish as fools" said Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.

In the midst of the current political fray, we ask everyone to focus on current key election issues such as sanctity of all human life. As long as Mr. Trump keeps his promise to stop the abortion scourge that kills so many black babies, we accept his apologies. Just don't do it again. Fix our cities, sir. Put America to work again, educate our children again, and let

America pray again.

This morning as I was meditating, it seemed as though God asked me: "Why are you asking Me to give you My best? Are you giving Me your best?" I repented right away. If we want God's best, we, as a people, must do better.

Watch my appearance on Fox Business' Cavuto: Coast to Coast for more debate analysis.

Yes, locker room trash talk is bad. Casting the first stone is bad. Pretending to be pious is bad. Face the truth: America, we've been naughty. Stop it.

"For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God, and if it begins first with us, what shall the end be for those who do not obey the gospel of God?" (1 Pet. 4:17).T

Finally, we encourage everyone to pray for America and vote pro-life.