

10 Examples of Men Abusing Target's Dangerous Policy

The overwhelming evidence continues to pile up against Target's policy to allow men into women's restrooms and dressing rooms in its stores.

Target says, "[W]e welcome transgender team members and guests to use the restroom or fitting room facility that corresponds with their gender identity. ... Everyone deserves to feel like they belong."

This means a man can simply say he "feels like a woman today" and enter the women's restroom ... even if young girls or women are already in there. Target's policy is exactly how sexual predators get access to their victims. And the proof keeps mounting.

Clearly, Target's dangerous policy poses a threat to wives and daughters. Over 1.4 million people have pledged to boycott Target stores until protecting women and children is a priority.

Here are 10 examples that show Target should immediately rescind its dangerous policy and keep men out of women's bathrooms and dressing rooms.
