

11 Ways to Rebuke Demons We've Accidentally Invited Into Our Homes

Jesus taught us on several occasions and modeled to us the power of our words. As Christians we use words to create and call things forth in the positive, but do we realize the same power in our words activates the negative spirit realm.

What do we do when we have spoken something we shouldn't have? Does the demonic realm activate against our negative words or words that other people have spoken out against us? You bet! Death and life are in the power of the tongue (see Prov. 18:21), and that goes both ways.

Jesus rebuked the demon and rebuked the storm. Rebuke means to take authority over, and then He gave it a follow-up command.

"He rose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace, be still!' Then the wind ceased and there was a great calm" (Mark 4:39).

"Jesus rebuked him, saying, 'Be silent, and come out of him!' When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him and did not hurt him" (Luke 4:35).

When Jesus rebuked in both cases, He gave a follow-up command. He was taking authority over the situation and speaking in the natural and spiritual what needed to happen.

When we speak out words, they create. We need to take authority over words we have created and rebuke them and then speak in the natural and spiritual realm what needs to happen.

How do we cancel the effects that have gone forth in the spiritual realm? Here is a list of words we can speak out into the atmosphere to cancel any spiritual warfare assignments sent to target against our words.

1. Rebuke and renounce all words spoken against you, your family, business or loved ones. Speak out: "I rebuke and renounce all negative words spoken against me and that I have spoken against another person. I decree they will not go forth in the spiritual realm, and I cancel their negative assignment in Jesus' name."

2. Break off all word-curse assignments. Speak aloud: "I cancel all word curses and attacks from the enemy in Jesus' name. I declare no weapon formed against me shall prosper."

3. Cancel assignments of the enemy to steal, kill and destroy your life, health, family, business and finances. "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). Declare out: "I have life and have it abundantly. Thank you, Jesus; I have abundance in every area of my life."

4. Speak Isaiah 54:17a, "No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment, you shall condemn."

5. Bind the words of those who speak negativity over you. Bind their tongue, mouth, lips and voicebox from speaking negative words, gossip, slander and anything that does not edify, exhort or build up. Say "Lord, I bind my friends' and family's words and mouths from speaking negative things in the spiritual realm about me, in Jesus' name."

6. Follow the scriptural example to bind and loose in Matthew 18:18, "Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

7. Ask the Holy Spirit to convict them and expose them. Pray, "Holy Spirit, convict them, reveal to them the wrong words they speak.”

8. Repent of any ungodly words you have spoken. Make sure you don't have an open door to the enemy. Shut all demonic doors by asking Christ for forgiveness and forgiving yourself.

9. Keep your tongue from evil (see 1 Pet. 3:10-11). Do your best to put a guard around your tongue, heart and mind.

10. Live out the biblical mandate of 1 Peter 3:10-11: “For he who would love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking deceit.
