

2 Major Ways the Devil Lured This Generation To Sleep

The devil is luring this generation to sleep, End Times Headlines Founder Ricky Scaparo says, after spending time in Acts 20:7-12.

On the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul, ready to leave the next day, preached to them and continued his message until midnight. There were many lamps in the upper room where they were assembled. A young man named Eutychus sat in the window, falling into a deep sleep as Paul spoke for a longer time. Being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third floor and was taken up dead. Paul went down and leaned over him, and embracing him said, "Do not be troubled, for he is alive." When he had gone up and had broken bread and eaten, he conversed for a long while until dawn and departed. They took the lad in alive and were greatly comforted.

Scaparo believes a similar epidemic is sweeping this generation, especially in the body of Christ.

Many may be in the right time at the right place, but the deceiver has two tricks to lull them to sleep.
