

25 Days Before Easter: Jesus Loved to Laugh

Of course Christianity should be taken seriously, Christian author and pastor Jamie Buckingham says. But shouldn't we be able to laugh like Jesus did?

"If God is really in control, we might as well enjoy life instead of taking it so seriously," Buckingham says. "Jesus had a humorous and free way of teaching. He loved to laugh and poke fun at people and events."

Why can't we do the same? For the rest of Jamie's teaching, watch this video devotional:
